

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

It's now hot! The air conditioning should be complete in a week or so, and then the work on the roof and facade will commence. We just received the bids for the new roof and facade project and will be deciding on a contractor soon.

There is now a platform (a floor) in the attic, and the new air conditioning equipment will be installed very soon (if not already by the time this letter is published). A crane on Washington Place will lift the equipment into the attic of the church through the roof. The equipment was just delivered, and all the preparatory work to install them has been completed, and so far we're on time and on budget.

Nicole Michell, our new Director of Religious Education, has now started her full-time position at St. Joe's! She has an office in the parish offices (the first floor of the rectory). She will be leading our Religious Education program as well as helping run and begin many new ministries at St. Joe's. Please make her feel welcome.

Have a Wonderful Summer & God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf, O.P

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30: 10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.
