

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family,

Concerning the air conditioning project, our architects and contractors are working to lift the stop work order—and they are making progress. I'm confident that work will start soon. Please keep this and all the projects in your prayers (as well as praying for mild weather!).

Two of our summer student brothers, Brs. Vincent and Elijah, have finished their summer with us. They are visiting their families, and then they'll return to their studies at the Dominican House of Studies in DC.

Our deacon student brother, Br. Jonah, will be here for another week, and our Kenyan friar, Fr. Martin, will be with us for the rest of the month. It has been great having them here for the summer, and they have been very helpful—I put them to work organizing and cleaning the sacristy and the parish files. Please keep them in your prayers.

Recently I've been thinking about all the vocations from St. Joe's in the past decade or so— there're quite a number of them. I can think of at least 5 people who have become priests or religious from St. Joe's. If you know of any, please let the friars or the office know because I'd like to put together a list of parish vocations and a poster with pictures of them. It is exciting to see the Holy Spirit at work in people's lives here!

God Bless,

Fr. Boniface Endorf, O.P

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead. Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.
