WEEKLY COLLECTION A total of $2,049 was received in the collection last weekend. 188 Adults attended Mass. Thank you for your generosity.

MARIAN CONSECRATION His Eminence, Cardinal Dolan is offering an opportunity to bring to our archdiocesan family something of a spiritual conversion, a light within the darkness of these troubled times. All are invited to consider joining in consecrating themselves to the Blessed Virgin Mary on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. Through the goodness of the office of young adult outreach we have received 160 copies of the consecration book, 33 Days to Morning Glory. They are in the narthex and you may take one home. These consecration books map out everything you need to know. Please take one home and use it with your family

GRAYMOOR Are you searching for a connection with nature? A place of quiet reflection? Spiritual Renewal? Graymoor, known as the "Holy Mountain," in Garrison, New York offers all these things, and more. ALL SOULS DAY

Before Jesus was born, the first mention in the Bible of praying for those who have departed from this earth occurred in the book called Maccabees. The Maccabees were a Jewish army led by Judas Maccabeus.

During the battle against the governor of Idumea, Gorgias, some of the Jewish soldiers were slain. When Maccabeus and his army gathered the bodies of these fallen soldiers for burial, they found under the coats of the slain some of pagan objects of the idols of Jamnia, which was forbidden the Jews. Maccabeus gathered together his army and prayed to God that He might forgive the fallen soldiers' sins. "And because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins."

After the crucifixion of Jesus, during the early years Christianity, many different dates were chosen to pray for those who had departed from this world. During the early 11th century, the first All Souls' Day was initiated at the Abbey of Cluny. St. Odilo of Cluny proclaimed November 2nd of each year to be the date specifically set aside to pray for those who have departed this world. "Around 1030, Abbot Odilo set aside November 2 as a day for the special commemoration in his own monastic community for the souls in purgatory. He started this as an observance for the monks of Cluny and all the other communities in the Cluniac family, requiring them, on the day following All Saints, to pray for deceased monks." The tradition spread throughout European monasteries and was accepted by many in Western Christianity. For the Roman Catholic religion, the day of November 2nd was not officially approved until the 14th century. Today, throughout the Catholic religion, November 2nd stands as the day to pray for the deceased.

*Eternal rest grant unto them of Lord,
And let perpetual light shine upon them.*

May they rest in Peace.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed

Through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Amen.
