THE TRUE JOY OF THE SEASON

When we honor Christ as the heart of our Christmas,
When we put Him first in all we pursue,
When we hold Him up as the season's true reason,
For who He really was and what He came to do...
When we set aside time for quiet contemplation
Despite all the hurry, the noise, and the fun,
When we remind others by gentle example
That there's more to Christmas than "getting things done" ...
When we let our spirits be called to renewal
In worship and peace at the good news He brings,
Then we will know the true joy of the season
And we'll truly have life's most valuable things.
