Happy Father's Day to all men who give of themselves with a father's heart

Reflections of a Father

I can give you life, but I cannot live it for you.
I can teach you things, but I cannot make you learn.
I can give you directions, but I cannot be there to lead you.
I can allow you freedom, but I cannot account for it.
I can take you to church, but I cannot make you believe.
I can teach you right from wrong, but I cannot always decide for you.
I can buy you beautiful clothes, but I cannot make you beautiful inside.
I can offer you advice, but I cannot accept it for you.
I can give you love, but I cannot force it upon you.
I can teach you to share, but I cannot make you unselfish.
I can teach you respect, but I cannot force you to show honor.
I can advise you about friends, but I cannot choose them for you.
I can advise you about sex, but I cannot keep you pure.
I can teach you the facts of life, but I cannot build your reputation.
I can tell you about drink, but I cannot say no for you.
I can warn you about drugs, but I cannot prevent you from using them.
I can tell you about lofty goals, but I cannot achieve them for you.
I can teach you about kindness, but I cannot force you to be gracious.
I can warn you about sins, but I cannot make you moral.
I can love you as a child, but I cannot place you in God's family.
I can pray for you, but I cannot make you walk with God.
I can teach you about Jesus, but I cannot make Jesus your Lord.
I can tell you how to live, but I cannot give you eternal life.
I can love you unconditionally all of my life...and I will!

Charles (Pop) Avery

Twelfth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Both readings today focus on the two-fold reality that while the prophet/preacher will surely suffer persecution, God is always there to care for and protect those who remain faithful to the task.

In the first reading, Jeremiah confesses his fear of persecution, even by friends, and then reminds himself that God is with him. So even in the face of persecution, Jeremiah can praise God.

Our Gospel is a continuation of last week's "sending" of the apostles. This section focuses on the inevitable persecution of the apostles with the promise of protection.

God does not remove the suffering but is always there to comfort, protect and see the task to its fruition.

Saints of the Week

Saints John Fisher and Thomas More

John Fisher, a bishop, and Thomas More, a layman, were among the most prominent martyrs during the English Reformation under King Henry VIII. More was one of the most highly respected men of his time, having risen, by 1529, to the post of Lord Chancellor of England. Though he considered himself a loyal friend and servant of the king, by this point King Henry was moving on a collision course with the authority of the Catholic Church. The issue was his desire to annul his marriage to Catherine of Aragon and marry Anne Boleyn. When the pope blocked his way, Henry divorced Catherine, married Anne, and required that all subjects repudiate "any foreign authority, prince or potentate." Rather than oppose the king, More resigned his position, but when he refused to take the oath he was arrested and imprisoned in the Tower of London.

John Fisher, the bishop of Rochester, served as a strong defender of Catherine's marriage. Like More he refused – alone among all his fellow bishops – to take an oath acknowledging Henry's supremacy over the Church in England. He too was arrested and remanded to the Tower. Both Fisher and More were beheaded on June 22, 1535. Both showed great courage in facing their deaths. Standing on the scaffold, More addressed the crowd: "I die as the king's true servant, but God's first."
