GREENWOOD LAKE FOOD PANTRY

Because of your generosity we have received a letter from the Food Pantry thanking us for our recent donation of $597. Your continued support of the Pantry is greatly appreciated.

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

If Communion is received in the hand, the hands should first of all be clean. If one is right handed the left hand should rest upon the right. The host will then be laid in the palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed this is reversed. It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing.

JULY 4TH INDEPENDENCE DAY

One of the most popular dates on the American calendar is July 4th. Second only to December 25, it, too, is a birthday celebration. On this day in 1776 our nation was officially born. Philadelphia was the site of our nation's birth. It was that historic city which first witnessed the formal break from the British. President John Adams spoke in a prophetic manner about the future of the Fourth. He said, "It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells and bonfires from one end of the continent to the other." Although "The Fourth" has been long celebrated, it was not declared a holiday until 1941. This birth certificate of our country promises continuation of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. These deep truths, Jefferson said, are both sacred and self-evident. They have become part of the very fabric of our way of life.

SECOND COLLECTION

We will be taking up a second collection on the weekend of July 11th for the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People. Please support this important mission.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we hear part of Jesus' very candid teaching on the importance and demands of discipleship. As he sends the Apostles out to preach, he reminds them that they can expect hardship and a variety of responses to their preaching. Yet they are not to be afraid of whatever might happen, for they will never be without his care and love. Today we hear about the woman from Shunem who sought to serve God by assisting his servant. Her generosity did not go unnoticed, but rather is rewarded with her deepest wish – a child. Paul reminds us that we are each baptized in Christ. That call emanating from the very heart of God to follow Jesus and to take up our cross is at the heart of our baptismal identity. Today we are challenged to reflect on how we have accepted this call. Making the choice to follow Jesus, and then living it fully, is difficult and challenging. When we put God first, we are promised eternal life with him. Let that promise inspire and strengthen our commitment to be faithful as God is always faithful.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

June 29 commemorates the two preeminent apostles of the early Church. Of the two, St. Peter was among the twelve disciples called by Jesus. Originally named Simon, Jesus gave him an Aramaic name, Cephas, meaning "Rock." Peter emerges in the Gospels as a complex character, bold, impetuous, capable of fear, doubt, and childlike meekness; in short, a fully human creature. It was this "Rock" who denied Christ three times after his arrest but who later repented his betrayal and courageously assumed leadership of the early Church. St. Paul was initially a persecutor of the Church. But after receiving a dazzling vision of the Risen Lord, he was convinced that Jesus was the Messiah. He went on to become a zealous missionary and servant of the Gospel. Paul was largely responsible for extending the Church to the wider Gentile world. He suffered persecution in many forms and was eventually martyred in Rome, where Peter, too, suffered the same fate.
