EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Upon hearing the news of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus seeks to withdraw, but the crowds follow him. Jesus reaches out to them in compassion and heals the sick. At the end of a long day, the disciples encourage Jesus to send the crowds away so that they might find provisions for themselves. Jesus again responds with compassion for the crowd. Jesus tells the disciples to provide food for the crowd. The disciples reply with a report of the meagerness of their own provisions – five loaves and two fish. The result is the very familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. Matthew's Gospel tells us that 5,000 men were fed, and this number does not even include the women and children.

The story of this miracle is an anticipation of the Eucharist in which we are fed. Not by physical bread, but by the Bread of Eternal Life, the Eucharist.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

If you are planning to send your child(ren) to Religious Education classes in the fall, please contact the office at 845-477-8378

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

OFFICE SCHEDULE

The Rectory Office will be closed on Fridays during the months of July and August. Summer hours will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John Vianney

The early life of John Vianney contained no foreshadowing of greatness in any field. Born to a peasant family in Lyons, he desired nothing else than to be a priest. But his humble background and lack of education made it unlikely that he would ever realize such a vocation. With the help of a private tutor he secured a place in seminary but proved to be a miserable student. It was only with grave reservations that he was recommended for ordination. After a brief assignment in his home parish, he was named the parish priest of Ars-en-Dombes, a village of 250 souls. To Vianney the size of his parish was unimportant.

His sermons were simple and unsophisticated. But there was one area in which he acquired a reputation for genius: his extraordinary gifts as a confessor. It was said that he had the ability to read souls. Fixed in his cramped confessional, he would sit ten, twelve, as many as eighteen hours a day.

By the time of his death in 1859 Vianney was one of the most beloved figures in France. He was canonized in 1925 and named the patron saint of all parish priests.

"Prayer is to our soul what rain is to the soil. Fertilize the soil ever so richly, it will remain barren unless fed by frequent rains."

-St. John Vianney
