First Sunday of Lent † February 22, 2015

ST. BRUNO PARISH

“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert and He remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to Him.

—MARK 1:12-13

The Season of Lent calls us to enter into the journey through the “Desert”, to face our own temptations, to repent and seek reconciliation with God, ourselves, and each other.

WHAT WILL YOU DO FOR LENT?

How are you going to make this Lent different from those in the past? Will this Lent be different? Can you get more meaning out of it than perhaps you have in the past?

There are many ways to approach Lent. Traditionally, we ask people, “What are you giving up? What is your sacrifice? What are you doing for Lent?” Well, there are so many different things to do out there that there is really no reason that someone can’t find something that will lead them through this journey of Lent to a resurrected spirituality on the other side of Easter. This past week I came across several options – one is an app for your phone, one is an internet accessed daily prayer, and two can actually be sent to your email address. I was able to put two of these options in the bulletin (the insert last week) and two more I will list here. There are other options that are listed in the bulletin also, including “Take Five”, retreats, prayer groups…

I can only encourage you to be a part of something. If you do not chose to insert/exert yourself into this Lent then you cannot expect to have a change in your relationship with God, which I see is the purpose for these seasons. Good Luck, Have Fun, and Engage. Let’s see what can happen.

From the Web:

1.) http://www.lentreflections.com/
A daily reflection sent to your email from Fr. Robert Barron, renown bible scholar and author of the Catholicism Series.

2.) Praying Lent – Creighton University Daily Reflections is part of my daily routine for Mass Prep. The daily reflections are well worth it, but they also have a segment for “praying Lent”: http://onlineministries.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/Lent/

3.) An app for your smartphone – Lentsanity. Sounds like this could be for a younger crowd, but check it out as a mobile resource. Along with graphics, articles and other things, this app is also supposed to remind you that it is Friday so you don’t eat meat. I picked it up through the app store on my phone.

4.) DON’T GIVE UP CHOCOLATE FOR LENT.

Instead, do something life-changing. Sign up for the BEST LENT EVER email program. Each day, you will receive spiritual coaching from Matthew Kelly, America’s Best-selling Catholic Author.

It’s simple and FREE. The only cost is your commitment to live better each day this Lent.

Learn more at BestLentEver.com

5.) And don’t forget about the old-fashioned face-to-face encounters found in the bulletin – TAKE FIVE, retreats, prayer service, reconciliation, etc…

A great Lent is up to you. I hope you chose to engage.

SAVE THE DATE!

May 31, 2015 • 10:30 a.m. Mass
Join us in celebrating Karen Warner’s Retirement after 31 years of dedicated Lay Ecclesiastical Ministry to St. Bruno Parish! There will be a reception following Mass.

BREAD SHARING/PRAYER PARTNERS

On Sunday, March 8, our First Communicants will be sharing bread with our Parishioners at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. This symbolic sharing of bread with the larger church family will remind the children of the significance of the Sacrament and their place at God’s table. They are not only sharing food, but sharing Christ’s love for one another. The parishioners receiving this bread will become “Prayer Partners” and communicate with the children until they celebrate First Communion in May. (Name cards will be exchanged). PLEASE be a willing recipient of this bread. Suggestions for communicating with your “Prayer Partner” will be included on your name card. There will also be opportunities for ALL parishioners to communicate with these First Communicants – watch for information in future bulletins.

From The Archbishop

See with God’s Eyes … and Respond in Love!
The theme of this year’s Catholic Stewardship Appeal, “See with God’s Eyes”, is drawn from Pope Francis, who said that wisdom, the first gift of the Holy Spirit, can only be given to us through the grace of God. True wisdom allows us to see beyond the surface of things – not through the imperfect lens or scope of our own reality – but with profound, unblemished clarity and vision of which only God can provide.
Your support makes a difference in keeping Catholic ministries strong and vital so that everyone who needs help receives help. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the 2015 Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Visit www.CatholicAppeal.org.
