Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And He was transfigured before them, and His clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

-Mark 9:2-3

The Season of Lent calls us to enter more intentionally into the Sacred Scriptures and be transformed in our commitment to discipleship.

“Fifty Shades Of Grey” Movie

This all may be a bit late, but I still want to share some comments I have heard from others. One woman movie reviewer didn’t exactly comment on the details of the movie, but spoke about how women, young and older, “should speak about the God-given gift that they are, which wasn’t portrayed in this particular movie’. She spoke especially about “mothers helping their daughters make informed and Christ-like choices about their current and future relationships and not be afraid to speak openly”. She suggested that “women link arms and show the world a glimpse of the redemptive God we serve”. Then she had what I thought was an excellent suggestion. She recommended that we take the “Fifty Shades of Grey” and respond in a counter-cultural, Christian way to its messages. She gave four suggestions:

“GIVE” to organizations that work tirelessly to release women from the bondage of abuse. By that action we can provide resources to women who may have no where to turn. This can be your voice for hurting women who may not be able to speak for themselves”.

“PRAY” for all men and women who will be affected by this movie, especially those victimized by the message of this movie that states that abuse is acceptable. Pray for women who don’t love themselves as God does’.

“SHARE” this message with others. You may be changing someone’s life”.

“Support” family-friendly and faith-based movies and television programs. Give your dollars to viewing those forms of entertainment.

Isn’t it tragic that the book, “Fifty Shades of Grey” sold more than 100 million copies and the movie was one of the most anticipated films to come out this year? A book and a movie promoting torture as sexually gratifying and normalizing domestic violence, especially violence against women, is not what should be attractive to Christians.

A former head of the Commission on Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence for the City of Milwaukee stated in an editorial that “we need to understand that love does not cause pain. The character, Christian Grey, is flawed and hurtful and controlling in a way that, in real life, is very unhealthy. Do not mistake him for Prince Charming’”. She recommended that any woman who feels endangered or threatened should call the Domestic Violence Hotline at 414-933-2722.

Archbishop Dennis Schnurr of Cincinnati called the movie “a direct assault on Christian marriage and on the moral and spiritual strength of God’s people. The story line is presented as a romance; however, the underlying theme is that bondage, dominance, and sadomasochism are normal and pleasurable. Instead, we need to highlight the beauty of God’s design for loving relationships in the bond of marriage”.

Reconciliation Cleanses

The absolution given us by Jesus Christ through the priest and the Church in the Sacrament of Reconciliation absolutely restores our covenant and bond with God and the whole family of God. That gift of forgiveness generated through the love of Jesus’ death on the cross and His Resurrection makes us new, whole, healed, alive again and one with God and one another. Our sorrow for and confession of our offenses is such a small thing to do to receive such a tremendous gift from God.

So sometime during Lent, take advantage of the opportunity to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, either privately or communally, and experience the same life you had the day you were baptized.

A number of Communal Penance Services are scheduled throughout Lent. Each will include an opportunity for the penitent to confess privately to a priest and receive sacramental absolution.

Music Ministry

Ready Your Hosannas For Palm Sunday, March 29
Join the Children’s/Youth Choir and High School/Adult Band for Palm Sunday, Mar. 29. We will rehearse on Mar. 7, 14 & 21, from 3:00-4:00 p.m. in the Church. Kick-off Holy Week on a high note and feel the inspirational uplift of praising God in song together. See Director of Liturgy and Music, Mark Gould, if you are interested or have questions.

Thanks For Sharing Your School Solos
Thanks to Ty Evans who is sharing his Bach “Air and Bourree” tuba solo with us at the Feb. 28 Mass. If you have done all the hard work to get something ready for District Solo & Ensemble contest, why not talk to Mr. Gould about the possibility of sharing it with the worshiping community at St. Bruno. We appreciate your musical inspiration and you can appreciate a supportive, attentive group of listeners (audience).

School Cantors of the Week
Thank you, St. Bruno Parish School Students: Braelyn Torres, Rachael Kimnard and Kallynn Sauer, for leading us in song at last week’s Student Mass on Ash Wednesday.

Hungering For A Bountiful Earth
This week, CRS Rice Bowl takes us to the coffee highlands of Nicaragua, where we’re called to protect both the goodness of creation and the livelihoods of struggling families. How will this week’s fast remind us of the sacredness of God’s creation and our duty to protect it?

BREAD SHARING/PRAYER PARTNERS
On Sunday, March 8, our First Communicants will be sharing bread with our Parishioners at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. This symbolic sharing of bread with the larger church family will remind the children of the significance of the Sacrament and their place at God’s table. They are not only sharing food, but sharing Christ’s love for one another. The parishioners receiving this bread will become “Prayer Partners” and communicate with the children until they celebrate First Communion in May. (Name cards will be exchanged). PLEASE be a willing recipient of this bread. Suggestions for communicating with your “Prayer Partner” will be included on your name card. There will also be opportunities for ALL parishioners to communicate with these First Communicants—watch for information in future bulletins.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

St. Vincent De Paul

Lent is a call not just to “give up something”, but more importantly, to “give something for the poor”. Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell. Your almsgiving in the St. Vincent de Paul basket will help the poor to celebrate the grace of God’s love this Easter.

We Want You!

The Men of Christ Conference is back:
March 14, 2015
9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

We have an excellent line-up of speakers, and some exciting additions that will energize you to enter into your Catholic faith with a renewed vigor and passion. Early-Bird pricing has begun, so sign-up now at www.MenofChrist.net.

Baptisms
To arrange Baptism, please contact Deacon Tom at least one month in advance, at 262-392-2516 or 262-366-1505.

Marriage
Please contact the Pastor at least six months before the anticipated wedding date. At least one of the parties must be a registered, practicing Catholic member of our parish community.

Annointing of the Sick
We encourage parish members to celebrate the Anointing of the Sick for healing and strength at the time of serious illness or before surgery.

Communion to the Sick
Parish members bring Holy Communion to the homebound. If you are unable to attend Mass for a few weeks because of health or weather, please call the Parish Office.

Danny’s Helping Hands
If you need occasional help with errands, companionship, transportation or meals, contact Rita Mezydlo at 602-885-0299 or rmezydlo@sboglobal.net.

Meals for Families with Newborns
Expectant and new mothers can receive meals made by fellow parishioners for themselves and their families. Contact Carla Schreiner at 262-965-2353 or carlaschreiner@wi.rr.com.

Prayer Network
If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, we have a group of parishioners at St. Bruno’s who would like to pray for your special needs. Call Donna at 262-965-3224, or Ruth at 262-965-2329.

St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP)
Contact the Parish Office for assistance from SVDP: 965-2332

THE ENDOWMENT FOR ST. BRUNO
We have established a permanent endowment fund for the future of our church and school. We invite a contribution in honor of family members, friends, or in memory of a loved one. Information and contribution envelopes are in the Gathering Place
