Fourth Sunday of Lent † March 15, 2015

ST. BRUNO PARISH

“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY SON, SO THAT EVERYONE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM MIGHT NOT PERISH BUT MIGHT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE.

-JOHN 3:16

“God The Father” by Cima da Conegliano

The Season of Lent speaks to the human condition of sin and God’s unlimited mercy (because He so loved the world).

Lent challenges us to seek reconciliation through His Son, Jesus, and His suffering on the wood of the Cross.

“The Crucifixion” by Simon Vouet
With Lent (a little more than) halfway over, it’s a good time (continue) to take a look at today’s psalm, then at our-Lent-selves, then back at the psalm for Monday.

Psalm 42:2-3; 43:3-4
As a hart (deer) longs for flowing streams,
so longs my soul for thee, O God.
My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and behold the face of God?
Oh send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me,
let them bring me to thy holy hill and to thy dwelling!
Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God my exceeding joy;
and I will praise thee with the lyre,
O God, my God.

Are our voluntary Lenten disciplines making our souls thirst for God? Or are they just making our (families) duck into another room when they see us coming?

Are we going towards the altar of God—towards Easter Sunday—with exceeding joy, being led by God’s light and God’s truth? Or are we moaning and grumbling as we head towards who-knows-where?

Lent isn’t a time to try to punish ourselves into being deserving of God’s grace. (Especially since that’s not possible, at Lent or any other time.)

Lent is a time to try to be our best selves, to take up new practices that lead us towards God and to leave behind practices that distract us from God.

If giving up chocolate has left us longing for chocolate, rather than for God, perhaps this would be a good time to reassess. When we feel that twinge of desire for sweets, can we use it as a reminder to direct our thoughts towards God? Do we eat a carrot stick AND do some small act of service for someone? Or do we try to fill that sugar-void by shouting at our kids and/or coworkers?

If giving up coffee means that we are too foggy to spend time in morning prayer, perhaps we need to add getting to bed early to our Lenten disciplines. Or maybe now would be the time to try substituting caffeinated tea, instead of just going cold turkey. Maybe just cutting it out is the best approach to your Lent this year, maybe that’s what will lead you to God’s holy hill.

But if your voluntary Lenten disciplines are leading you to hell in a hand-basket instead, you can do something about it! Praise God with your sacrifices today. If we can’t do that, then we’re not making the right sacrifices.

Where are your voluntary Lenten disciplines taking you today?

~Fr. Chuck Wrobela

Attention Liturgical Ministers!

We need your help! Please remember to sign-up for your Ministry during the Special Liturgies of Holy Week. If you are not a Liturgical Minister, there are still opportunities for you to serve: Foot Washing, Carrying of the Cross on Good Friday, and participating in the Liturgical Movement on Palm Sunday (ages 14-18). The sign-up board is in the Gathering Place.

Bulletin Board

There is a bulletin board located in the hallway as you enter our church. This board is for non-St. Bruno sponsored events that benefit our parishioners. Before anything is placed on this board, please have it approved by one of the administrate assistants in the Parish Office. Thank you for adhering to this procedure.

~Leann Gronowski, Business Manager

Art & Environment Group Forming

The Art and Environment Group decorates the Worship Space—giving it an atmosphere of reverence and beauty—making it fit for our liturgical celebrations. The Liturgical year calls for certain requirements and changes during each of the seasons. The members of this group plan the decorations according to the seasonal needs. Ideally, the new team and coordinator would work with the present coordinator this Easter season. Please contact Karen Warnes at 262-965-2332 if you are willing to share your time and talent with your Parish.

First Communicant Mailbox

Our 1st Communicant “mailbox” is back! The second graders are preparing to celebrate their First Communion on Apr. 25 or May 3. Last week at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, parishioners volunteered to become a prayer partner with a second grade child. The children shared a loaf of bread with these prayer partners as a symbolic sharing of Christ’s love for us in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. These prayer partners will communicate and pray for these children until they celebrate their First Communion.

We also invite all St. Bruno parishioners to share prayers and to communicate with these First Communicants. Their pictures are on display in the Gathering Place.

Please share your love of Jesus with them by occasionally writing a prayer, sharing a special thought, or sending a holy card to any one of them. Pick a different child each week. You can sign your name or simply sign as a special friend. Note cards will be available by the mailbox if you need them. We will distribute the “mail” to them at class time.

Thank you for showing these children how much we love them.

God’s Not Dead

Faith Formation is hosting a showing of the movie God’s Not Dead on Thursday, March 19, at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. After the movie, refreshments will be served in the Gathering Place, with an opportunity to discuss the movie. ALL are invited to come! This is a movie for people of all ages. Many people may have seen the movie, but why not see it again and then take some time to talk about it after? High School Faith Formation students earn a “flat” for attending. Bring your friends, even if they aren’t members of our Parish. There is NO charge for this event. For further information, contact Amy Golden at 262-402-8229 or aldgolden@gmail.com.
