ASSOCIATE PASTOR’S PEN

I sit here in my office on Monday morning, the day after Easter, still marveling at all that took place in the past week – Holy Week: Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil and Easter Day. Wow, that is a lot to fit into one week. And it all seemed to go pretty smoothly this year (at least as I look at it now). There are always bumps along the way, but the blessings that were given and received are so worth the little bumps. I heard so many people say that this was one of the best Holy Weeks they have experienced. God was working in some very powerful ways. I hope you were able to feel at least some of it.

As amazed as I am and as much as I heard all these great things, I can’t help but think of all the people who helped to make it possible. If you only knew all the work that goes on behind the scenes to make for such beautiful celebration and prayer.

With fear of forgetting someone along the way, I want to try to thank as many as I can remember (sorry if I miss you).

All the music ministers and the many hours of practice, the art and environment people who changed the décor almost daily, the ministry leaders who searched endlessly to fill the many posts for the liturgy (servers, ushers, Eucharistic ministers, readers, sacristans), the people who had their feet washed (what a great experience that can be), the maintenance guys who open the baptismal pool and make sure things are clean and the lights are working, the liturgy coordinators/directors (thank God for them), the candidates received into the church and the catechists who taught them (what an amazing witness).

All of these and the very people who came to worship, to accept God into their hearts, and to bring God from our celebration to the world. This is what church is all about – a people coming together to praise God and then bringing God to the rest of the world so they can know God also. (Don’t forget to bring them back with you next Sunday).

The blessing of Easter be with you ALL days,

“BLEST ART” HERE TODAY

Blest Art is visiting our parish today on behalf of the Christians of the Bethlehem district. For centuries, these people have earned a living by carving olive wood religious art to sell it to visiting pilgrims, but there are fewer pilgrims visiting the Holy Land now. Blést Art has helped hundreds of struggling families. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families! Cash, checks, and all major credit cards are accepted, but donations are not. Thank you in advance for your purchase. Visit www.BlestArt.org.

It is the poignant story of five courageous World War I Gold Star Mothers’ amazing journey across the sea to visit the cemetery where their sons were buried. Along the way, the women forge lifelong friendships as they face a death, a scandal, and a secret revealed. It is compelling—a first-rate novel worth reading! You are welcome to join us!

Care For Creation Month

Pope Francis’ universal prayer intention for April 2015 is “That people may learn to respect creation and care for it as a gift of God”. In the face of human-made climate change, which is undoing God’s gift, let us join Pope Francis in praying and acting for creation together; to prepare ourselves for his upcoming encyclical on Ecology. (Ref: Global Catholic Climate Movement for God’s Creation, The Poor & Future Generations)

www.cartholicclimatedovement.global. As Christians, we believe in the power of prayer, so we encourage you to include the Holy Father’s prayer intention in your personal and family prayers and pray for the wisdom and strength to help restore and protect the wonderful gift of creation. ~The Green Team

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?
The answer is a)

The Second Sunday of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. In visions, St. Faustina (1931) heard Jesus request that the image of divine mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter. Red and white rays emanate from Jesus’ heart, symbols of blood and water – symbolic of the forgiveness and love of God, the “Fountain of Mercy.” Jesus, I trust in You.
