Fourth Sunday of Easter † April 26, 2015

ST. BRUNO PARISH

“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”

HOLY WEEK 2015
PASTOR’S PEN
Looking Ahead . . .

On Saturday, May 2, the parish leadership of St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes (Pastoral Councils, Finance Councils, and Pastoral Staffs) will meet for a second time from 8:30 a.m.–3:00 p.m. to continue the process of “strategic planning” for the transition happening in 2016 when there will be one priest shepherding both parishes. At our last all-day gathering on March 7, ten different, major themes were raised for further reflection and discussion in individual groupings. Those “inter-parish” dialogues have been going on throughout the month of April. Five of the groups (Faith Formation [except for ages 20–40], Human Concerns, Priest Effectiveness, Schools and Worship Experience) will report at the May 2 gathering with more defined concepts as to what could best be done jointly across the two parishes. Some of the concepts may reflect simple sharing, while others may suggest greater collaboration in serving both parishes and their communities. At this May 2 meeting, the leadership of both parishes will determine which strategies from these initial five groups will move to the next phase of evaluating how they might be accomplished and possible timeframes. A communication plan is also part of this strategic planning to assure parishioners at both parishes will be well informed at regular intervals throughout the process. Many of you have already contributed through your participation in listening sessions in which you shared your thoughts and experiences. Thank you!

All of these matters need the prayer support of our St. Paul and St. Bruno communities.
St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes are “many parts,” yet one Body of Christ.

~Fr. Ralph

CALLING ALL PARISH HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

Two youth-focused listening forums will be held for High Schoolers by Rita Borowski, consultant working with both St. Bruno and St. Paul parishes. KAREN WARNES

The character Tevye sings the question to Golda in Fiddler on the Roof, “Do you love me?” Eventually, Golda responds with “after 25 years” of all the things she has done for and with him. Well, we are given an opportunity to show our love for the 32 years of Karen Warnes’ faithful service to our parish on May 31, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. If you have ever sung with Karen in choir or even worked with her, consider joining the Festival Choir to share this great day in her and our parish’s life together. Rehearsal is on Wednesday, May 27, at 7:00 p.m. See Director of Liturgy and Music, Mark Gould, for more information. May we reach the end of the song together with “Yes, I love you!”
