FIRST COMMUNION

May 3, 2015
For the last two weeks, I have had the honor to be able to first hand witness and distribute First Communion to the youngsters of St. Bruno Parish. This is always a fun day for me as I get to chat with the kids during the homily about what it means to receive Jesus in this particular and very intimate way. I (hopefully, we) get to experience the excitement of the children as they get to fulfill a long-time dream to come to the table and receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, and I get to distribute this glorious gift of spiritual nourishment to those who hunger so much for it. It’s a great day.

I try to remember back to my First Communion. I can’t remember back that far, at least not with great detail or clarity. I have had other moments in my life that have shown me the great significance that the Eucharist can be/should be in life. I pray that as people come up to receive every week that it is not just a routine action that we do simply because everyone else in the church is doing it. I pray that we take a moment to intentionally prepare ourselves to receive such a great gift that strengthens us on our journey until we meet again the next week.

I came across this paragraph by Fr. Stanley J. Kempa in one of my books I use for homily prep:

There is such a thing as a spiritual recession, a decline in the spiritual life of an individual or a nation.

Receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist implies recommitment, the imitation of Christ’s love, the embrace of dying as a way to life, the acceptance of Christ’s mission as our own and the personal graces of the Eucharist. These are all ways that we can prevent a spiritual recession or even a spiritual depression from occurring in our lives.

The Eucharist is how we sustain and strengthen our new life in Christ. It is our protection against spiritual decline.

Also, Happy Mother’s Day to all mothers. I wish everyone could have a perfect mom like I had in mine and I have again in my step-mom. God Bless you ALLways.

Men Who Cook Dinner & Auction

The “Men Who Cook” Dinner and Auction, which we celebrated on Saturday, April 18, to raise monies for our school was an outstanding success on many levels. Karen Hoffman dedicated her time and talent in a big way as she chaired the event. Karen Philips gave generously of her time along with a whole army of volunteers and chefs, who decorated their tables in various themes and cooked food to match those themes. Many school children helped with serving and did other errands. The number of gifts and prizes that donors contributed was unbelievable. Our auctioneers, Pat Maloney and John R. Mezydlo, energetically invited people to bid on live auction items. They also kept the audience focused on the real purpose of the night—supporting our School and giving students a chance for faith formation along with a great education. The participants who made up the dining and auction experience were representative of our entire parish family. Their generosity was outstanding. The figures are not yet final, but it appears that more than $52,000 was raised. Some of that money will support a portion of the School’s budget. Another portion will contribute to upgrades in school equipment, textbooks, programs, etc. Many members of our parish community are unaware that more and more families who want a Catholic education for their children at St. Bruno’s are seriously struggling to pay the needed tuition. In this day and age, we especially need senior adults and adults with financial resources to step forward and help younger, struggling families to provide this gift of a Catholic education for their children by offering “tuition assistance.” So the “Men Who Cook” Auction and Dinner was a great community builder and a fun and fellowship evening for the parishioners of St. Bruno’s and their friends.

Thanks and Blessings upon all those who had anything to do with the success of the evening.

~Fr. Ralph
Happy 5th Anniversary, Fr. Chuck!

Notice For Trustee Nomination

As pastor, I am legally bound to inform you at this time of the fact that the position of Parish Corporate Trustee/Treasurer is open for nominations. Please read the following.

A parish trustee is an active, responsible lay parish member who is called to serve the parish as a member of the corporate Board of Directors and acts in a leadership role as a member of the Pastoral and Finance Councils. Each parish has two lay trustees, one serves as the parish’s Corporate Treasurer and the other as Corporate Secretary. Each serves a two-year term, with no limitation on consecutive terms. Here in our parish we have staggered the terms of our trustees so that we don’t have both positions vacant simultaneously. This year we will have an election for the Parish Trustee-Treasurer. Candidates must be practicing Catholics who are parish members and who are at least 25 years of age. Each candidate must submit his/her name along with the signatures of 10 supportive parish members. The deadline for submission of your nomination to the pastor is May 20, 2015. The State Statutes allow the pastor to nominate one candidate in addition to those who seek their own nomination. If only one candidate is nominated, that person takes office without an election, subject to the approval of the Archbishop, the parish’s corporation president. The trustee’s term would begin with the new fiscal year.

The trustee-treasurer is responsible for parish treasury activities, including the care and custody of funds, assets, credit and insurance matters, supervision of banking and finance reports, and signing of checks. Many of the above listed tasks are managed on a day-to-day basis by the Parish Business Manager.

If you have the basic qualifications to serve in the role as Parish Trustee-Treasurer, please consider nominating yourself. ~Fr. Ralph

Pastoral Council

Highlights from St. Bruno’s Pastoral Council Meeting 4-21-15:

- 60 people were nominated for Pastoral Council. Fr. Ralph has mailed a letter to each of them. Pastoral Councilors are asked to follow up with a phone call.
- It was decided that the Pastoral Council minutes and pictures will be posted on the Kiosk in the Gathering Place.
- Strategic planning groups consisting of members from St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes will be helping to shape the work of Archdiocesan Synod Implementation in our parish.
- Fr. Chuck presented the organizational chart for St. Bruno Parish. Liaisons will share this with their committees.
- To facilitate communication with parishioners, the Pastoral Council will have a “Conversation Starter of the Month.” This month’s question is, “What more can we do to be a welcoming parish?”

For more information, see the Parish website, the Kiosk in the Gathering Place, and/or talk to one of the Pastoral Council members.

Music Ministry

Come Sing With Jesus

Jesus Villanueva is bringing singers and musicians from Saint Adalbert’s Parish to join us for Fr. Mauricio’s Mass of Thanksgiving on May 17. Come join the bilingual Festival Choir that will be rehearsing Wednesday, May 13, at 7 p.m.

Next Sunday!

Mauricio Fernandez will be ordained a priest at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 16, at St. John the Evangelist Cathedral. Please join him there, and then celebrate with the entire Parish on Sunday, May 17, at 10:30 a.m., as he celebrates his Mass of Thanksgiving. Reception follows Mass. Fr. Bob McGlinn: 60 Years A Priest

We want to extend heart-felt congratulations to Fr. McGlinn on the occasion of the 60th Anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was ordained by Samuel Cardinal Stritch, the Archbishop of Chicago, on May 3, 1955, as a priest of the Chicago Archdiocese. Fr. Bob has been on loan to the Archdiocese of Milwaukee for many decades. He taught in the public school system, and for 23 years served as a missionary to the people of Honduras whenever he had summer and holiday breaks in his teaching schedule. In 1991, Archbishop Weakland appointed Fr. Bob the administrator of the Christo Rey Parish in Racine. He served in that capacity for 16 years. Then, he moved out to Waukesha County and has been serving multiple Spanish-speaking needs, including at St. Bruno. Since 2007, Fr. Bob has celebrated Mass and given all kinds of other service for the Hispanic people at St. Bruno up to this day. Thank you Fr. Bob! Congratulations!

Ad Multos Annos!

~Fr. Ralph

Karen Warnes

We are being given the opportunity on May 31, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass, to show our love and appreciation for Karen Warnes’ 32 years of faithful service to our Parish. If you have ever sung with Karen in choir or even worked with her, consider joining the Festival Choir to share this great day in her life and the life of our Parish. Rehearsal is on Wednesday, May 27, at 7:00 p.m. See Mark Gould for more information.

School Happenings

3K Now Being Offered!

Registration has begun for our NEW 3K Program which will begin this Fall (minimum of 7 required). A full-day option is also available. We also have openings in 4K–8th Grade, but space is limited, in efforts to keep our class sizes small. All Registration forms are available on the website. For more information, contact the school at 262-965-2291 or tammy.price@stbrunoparishschool.com. We inspire academic excellence and instill Catholic values within a faith-filled community. Come join us!
FAITH FORMATION CORNER

A BIG THANK YOU!
Thank you to all the First Communion prayer partners and to everyone who used the First Communion mailbox to communicate with the First Communicants. The children were truly excited to receive the cards, letters, and small gifts. They felt so special knowing that the entire parish was praying for them. Special thanks to all the prayer partners who were able to attend their partner’s First Communion Mass and meet each other. What a great example of “Love One Another.”

GRIEF SUPPORT SESSIONS
You are invited to join this eight-week, Christ-centered support group that focuses on grief topics associated with the death of a loved one. The presentations are taken from Alan Wolfelt’s book, Understanding Your Grief: 10 Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and Healing Your Heart. The group will meet from 6:30-8:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, June 9 – July 28, in the Parish Room. To register, contact the Parish Office at 262-965-2332 or Peggy at 262-424-4567. Information is also online at www.stbrunoparish.com.

LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS
The environment of our Church and how it is decorated is all part of the worship experience. We are looking for volunteers who would meet together several times a year to help plan how to decorate the Church for the different Liturgical Seasons of the Year. It is a fun way to use your talents to serve God and His people. If you would like more information about this ministry, just call Karen at the Parish Office, 262-965-2332.

THANK YOU, ST. BRUNO CONGREGATION
I wish to thank all of you for your kindness during Craig’s illness. I appreciate the many phone calls, visits, food and prayers. It helped ease the heartache of losing Craig. Thank you to all who attended the Funeral Mass; the choir; and the priests and deacons. I am sure Craig is smiling down on all of you. Thanks to all my Church family. ~Carmela Matysiak

LET’S TRY SOMETHING NEW FOR ADULTS
We have often talked about asking adults to be Altar Servers, but there was never a real need, because we had plenty of youth Servers. Well now, at the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Sundays, there is a real need. Look around! There are hardly any youth that come to that Mass. So here it is people – a real need for Adult Servers – men or women. If you would like to be trained as an Adult Server for the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Sundays, please call our new Server trainer, Joe Senglaub, at 262-442-7888. You can also contact Karen Warnes at 262-965-2332.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is a)

On May 13, 1917, three young children, Lucia, 10, Francisco, 9, and Jacinta, 7, were tending a flock of sheep. Suddenly, there was a flash in the sky and then another flash. A beautiful Lady stood over the top of a small oak tree. She explained that she was the Lady of the Rosary and asked them to pray, do penance and make sacrifices to save sinners.

Nepal Earthquake

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Responds to Nepal Earthquake

Thank you for your outpouring of prayers and support for all those affected by the 7.8-magnitude earthquake that struck Nepal on April 25. More than 6,200 people have been recorded up to this point. More than 8.1 million people have been injured and/or left homeless. CRS, the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic Church in the United States, is responding to the crisis in your name. Their history of emergency response in the region, as well as their network of experienced local partners, allows them to provide aid quickly and effectively. Your donations will assist with this immediate emergency response and help CRS to reach even more families. Please keep the Nepalese people and all those affected by the earthquake, in your prayers! Thank you!

Gifts can be made: Online at www.crs.org; By telephone at 877-435-7277; By check to CRS, PO. Box 17090, Baltimore, MD 21297-0303 (“Nepal Earthquake” on the memo line).
