Church’s Teaching on Marriage

The Archbishop of Sydney Australia, Anthony Fisher, recently reaffirmed the Church’s teaching! Here are some excerpts:

“Married couples (as man and woman) are ‘signs of contradiction’ to parts of our present culture. Marriage, as traditionally understood, is universally understood to mean a comprehensive bodily, psychological and spiritual union between a man and a woman whereby they become ‘one flesh’ and so found a family. That’s why these couples did not promise to become ‘spouses’ or ‘partners’ but to become ‘husband’ and a ‘wife’. That’s why they promised to be faithful (‘for better, for worse’, ‘to the exclusion of all others’) and fruitful (open to new life) and final (indissoluble, ‘till death do us part’). These dimensions of real marriage make it a prophetic sign today, a sign of contradiction, because some want to reduce marriage to no more than a public statement of a physical-emotional bond between any two people. In the Christian view, on the other hand, what is so special about marital relationships is that they bring together for life people of opposite sex, of complementary sexuality, as ‘man and wife’, hopefully to found a family – the fundamental cell of Church and society – and to give their all to that end, exclusively and for life. Marriage brings together and attempts to hold together things that otherwise tend to fall apart: man and woman, sex and love, babies, parents and children...

“To say this is not to criticize anyone. We all know and love people who have genuinely given marriage their all and yet it has fallen apart. We know and love others who have tried and failed to have children. We know and love others with same-sex attraction, who understandably want their friendships to last and be honored. We know and love others whose vocation has been to remain single and find other ways to serve life and love. To say marriage is special is not to demean these other realities; rather it respects the diverse ways of being human and loving, not pretending away the differences.

“But there are voices in our culture that no longer think marriage need be for life, or be open to children, or be exclusive, or be between man and wife. They write off as bigoted those who stand by marriage as traditionally understood. As a result Christian couples today can find themselves in an uncomfortable position, for some politically, culturally and commercially powerful forces are determined to silence any alternative to their ‘politically’ correct position in this matter; to bully us all into accepting the deconstruction and redefinition of a fundamental institution; and to relegate questions of what marriage is and is for as secondary to an homogenizing ‘equality’.

“We must resolve to support marriages, so they really can be faithful, fruitful, final unions of people of opposite sex, while also supporting and loving people in other situations too. Thank you dear married couples for your prophetic role in teaching us all how to love and to bear witness to Christ! May God bless you abundantly!”

Scrip Reminder

Summer means time for family fun! Whether you plan to take a road trip, enjoy the beach, go camping, or spend time in the backyard, think SCRIP for everything from outdoor gear to hotel stays. St. Bruno SCRIP volunteers are happy to take your order—stop by the SCRIP table after Mass today!

Meals For New Moms

The Mom2Mom group provides this wonderful gift for new moms! We try to give new moms one or two weeks of delivered meals to help ease the burden of adjusting to life with a newborn. I am currently looking for people who are willing to be in the “pool” of those willing to make and deliver a meal to a new mom. Please contact me if you would like to help with this wonderful ministry.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus exceeds both the Apostles’ and the crowds’ expectations: with little He feeds many... Jesus is the sign of God’s lavish Presence and love. Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is indeed a sign of God’s extravagant love to the lonely and the poor.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist multiple families, providing money for food, utility and rent bills, etc. God Bless You!

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?
The answer is a)

Stories abound in the Carmelite traditions but St. Simon Stock, an early Carmelite, is said to have had a vision of Our Lady. She promised special aid for the salvation of the person who wears a Scapular.
