STEUBENVILLE YOUTH CONFERENCE

This past weekend (July 24 to 26), a group of 25 of us from St. Bruno and St. Paul (18 high school students and 7 adults) went to Steubenville North at the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota. We were joined by 1,950 other people that made for a very raucous group of “Jesus Freaks”.

The theme for the weekend was “LIMITLESS”. This theme permeated the entire weekend and all there present – the energy of the youth, the amazing speakers, the praise and worship, the time in adoration and the abundance of reconciliations (almost 1,500 of the 1,950 people). Above and encompassing all this was the limitless actions of God the Holy Spirit that came “as like a strong driving wind” – encouraging, lifting, opening, nudging, and inspiring. God showed up in amazing ways – sometimes it was in the great noise of the youth yelling cheers prior to the program, sometimes it was in the sweet sound of praise and worship as those present sang their prayer to the heavens; sometimes it was in the open posture of prayer accepting the gift of the Holy Spirit into the heart of a believer, sometimes it was through the inspiring words of incredible God-loving speakers; sometimes it was in the quiet whisper of a penitent experiencing reconciliation with our loving God; sometimes it was in the fun of free time as the youth (and adults) blew off steam playing, dancing, talking, and running around; sometimes it was the awesome power of God touching the very core of those present during Adoration; sometimes it was the simplicity and comfort of the Mass; sometimes it was....

It was LIMITLESS.

Great things happened and great depths were achieved, but as with all things of God if it really has touched a life, it cannot stay within the confines of St. Thomas University or the heart of the receiver. We cannot contain God’s love anymore than God can contain it. We receive it, we cultivate it, and we need to share it. God and God’s love are limitless. The only thing that can limit God is our “no”.

Thanks to all these teens (and adults) who said “yes”. Thanks to all who supported our teens with prayer or in other ways. Thanks to the chaperones who journeyed with our youth. And Thanks to God who makes all things possible.

The St. Bruno Grief Sessions ended July 28. This was an inspiring ministry and we have many people we would like to thank. We could not have succeeded without them! Thanks to God for holding our hands when we most needed Him! Thank you to the Parishioners for their prayers, the Parish Staff for their support and Pagenkoff Funeral Home for their financial support. We want to especially thank the participants in the Good Grief Group. They are an incredible group of people who had the courage to do the hard work of mourning their loved ones and facing their “new normal” with hope in the future. May God bless you all! Faith Formation Corner

Help Needed

We are currently getting prepared for the 2015-2016 Faith Formation year and REALLY need your help! There are many ways to get involved:

1. Lead teachers (Catechists) are needed for Kindergarten, 5th Grade and Middle School. It is NOT necessary to have teaching experience to take on this very important role. All you need is a love for children and a willingness to share your faith with them. Training and support will be provided.

2. Aides to the Lead Catechist (all grade levels) – especially needed in the primary grades.

3. Small group leaders for Middle School. In this role, you will lead a small group for discussions and activities. The main teaching is done by the Lead Catechist.

4. Children’s Liturgy of the Word: Adults/high school students are needed to provide the lesson of the day based on the Sunday Scripture during the 10:30 Mass.

5. Small group leaders for High School.

PLEASE consider helping out in one of these areas. This is a GREAT way to strengthen your own faith and grow in your relationship with God and His Church. Contact Amy Golden, Child Minister, at aldgolden@gmail.com or 262-402-8229 for more information.

Whether you are veterans of our formation program or you’re just curious about what we do, this info session is for you. This session will give an introduction to our program, outings, retreats, schedule, and our 9-11th Grade class format.

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

In last week’s bulletin there was an insert from Archbishop Listecki. He challenged us to become “Intentional Disciples.” What does that encompass?

a) A lifestyle; b) A full-time job;

b) Seeking encounters with Jesus; d) Missionary Mojo.

St. Vincent de Paul

The Gospel tells us “this is My beloved Son. Listen to Him.” By “listening”, we are able to live the Gospel. Gospel living is something so simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help. Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you enable the members of the Society to become a “listening heart” to the hungry, the homeless and the struggling poor.

Marriage Moments

“Live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love…” (Ephesians 4:1-2). Enough said.

Make this true today.

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is All of the Above

“Catholic Discipleship is best understood as an ‘intentional lifestyle’. It is a chosen, full-time, ‘all in’ way of life. And the only way we get there is to seek personal encounters with Jesus in His Church.”

(July 15, 2015 Archbishop Listecki)
