POPE FRANCIS

DESIGNATES SEPTEMBER 1, 2015, AS WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR CARE OF CREATION

Pope Francis has announced that starting this year, Catholics will add an annual prayer day to the Catholic calendar. He has designated Sept. 1 as the “World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation”. This is not really a new day for the Church, because our Eastern Orthodox brothers and sisters have been celebrating a Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation for over 35 years!

In Pope Francis’ most recent encyclical, “Laudato Si: On Care for Our Common Home”, we are reminded that the degradation of the environment and the degradation of human beings that follows is a sin. We are told that what we corrupt on the earth, we corrupt in ourselves and in our poorer brothers and sisters around the earth.

The Pope said the World Day of Prayer for Creation will give individuals and communities an opportunity to ask for God’s help in protecting creation and an opportunity to ask God’s forgiveness “for sins committed against the world in which we live.”

Pope Francis states that our spiritual life is not dissociated from nature. He reminds us that living our vocation to be protectors of God’s handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience. In “Laudato Si”, he challenges us to defend our planet – and the poor - who are always the first and most affected by undesirable changes in our planet earth.

The annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, Francis said, will be a time for individuals and communities to “reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care.”

Quoting his encyclical, Pope Francis encourages us to work with all of the Catholic Church’s ecumenical partners and the World Council of Churches to make sure the prayer day becomes a sign of ALL Christians’ commitment to work together to safeguard creation.

Francis encourages Christians to make their special contribution to safeguarding creation. He urges them to rediscover the spiritual foundations of their approach to earthly realities and to acknowledge that our spiritual life is not dissociated from nature. The ecological crisis, he said, is a summons “to a profound spiritual conversion” and to a new way of life for all Christians.

A BIG Thank You!

Thanks to all the players, sponsors, donors and volunteers who helped make the 2015 Golf Outing a HUGE success! You were great!

God Bless Everyone!! ~Wayne Schwister

LABOR DAY - SEPTEMBER 7

Mass on Monday, Labor Day, will be celebrated at 8:00 a.m.
As we celebrate this Labor Day Holiday, let’s reflect on some dimensions of “work.”

• Pray for all workers, especially those who work in sweatshops, are on strike, downsized, locked out or left unemployed.
• Make sure that repairs and construction work are done by contractors and subcontractors that treat workers justly.
• Talk about how you can practice your faith on the job.
• Encourage public policies that seek justice and equality for workers.
• Know your rights and the rights of others and then support them.
• Raise worker justice issues to appropriate authorities.
• Do your own work with dignity and integrity.

Work on at least one of these things over the next month! Pope Paul VI said: “In work it is the human person who comes first, not work!”

Music Ministry

Choir Kick-Off

The Choir kick-off rehearsal is on Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 7:00 p.m. See Director of Liturgy and Music, Mark Gould, if you are interested or have any questions. Youth through adults are welcome. We most often sing for the 10:30 a.m. Mass and have occasional concerts. All God’s children got a place in the choir; some sing low some sing higher. We focus on servant fellowship and developing your God-given voice to build up our worshipping community and praise Him in song.

And the Band Played On

Thanks to all who helped lead our second Contemporary Music Mass at 5:00 p.m. on Sat., August 22. Kudos to Deacon Vince and the entire Band! We especially want to thank our new bassist, Ty Evans, and guest drummer, Monica Bagal, from Seattle, Washington.

Thanks To All

Thanks so very much for responding to our “SVDP Back-To-School Drive”! We helped 15 students right here in the Dousman Area by giving them back packs and school supplies. The final count for all of Waukesha County will be given at a later date. God’s Blessings to you all! ~St. Vincent de Paul

Mom2Mom

Mom2Mom is a women’s group dedicated to sharing the joys and struggles of motherhood. We learn through conversation, lecture and sharing about what it means to be the woman, wife and mother that God is calling us to be. In addition to our bi-monthly meetings, we meet for local events, social get-togethers, and a yearly retreat (this is an all-inclusive event – everyone from inside and outside of our parish is invited). 2015-2016 meetings will start on Sept. 2, 2015, and will meet in the Parish Room from 7:30-9:00 p.m. every 1st & 3rd Wednesday of the month through May 18.
