Coming Alive In Christ

I am so pleased with the fact that St. Paul Parish and St. Bruno Parish each have a very high quality Catholic Parish School that serves the Catholic Education of children from K3 through 8th grade. In addition both parishes have vibrant Faith Formation Programs for K4 through 12th grade youth who attend public schools. These tools are building blocks to the faith life that was initiated with each child’s baptism into the Lord and the Church family. One major thing needs to be made a point of. Even though these great parish schools and valuable religious education programs exist, parents are still the chief and primary educators/catechists of their children in the “ways of faith.” Parents and/or guardians need to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. What is it exactly that parents are instructing their children in? They are leading their children by word and example to understand their faith and then to “go out” and witness it to and for others. They are walking their children through the doors of the God’s Word, the Sacraments and beyond. Having a relationship with Jesus Christ and the People of God is what came through Baptism. Now these children need to learn how to practice Christ’s love in the world.

Maybe you have guessed what is missing from this picture? Adults need to be fed and formed in a mature level of Catholic life so that they not only can be the faith-formers of their own children, but live out their own faith life in the world around them both while their children are under their care and after the children have grown and left home. A Catholic Way of Life needs constant nurturing and cultivating through adult faith formation opportunities. And at both St. Paul and St. Bruno Parishes there are numerous, vibrant faith formation and learning experiences provided by staff and other members of our parishes, noted in our bulletins and on our parish web sites. The U.S. Bishops have identified three goals in adult faith formation: developing a personal, growing relationship with Jesus that fosters a strong spirituality, learning and living concretely our faith as active members of the Church (community participants), and sharing the message of Christ to renew and transform the world (a light for the world).

So the reality is that from “womb to tomb” we all need to be coming alive in Christ! Fr. Ralph

Have you ever wondered what's next? What do you do after class, how can you live out our faith, and how to take that next step? Well, we have an answer.

What's Next? is offered every Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Paul Youth Room. Our goal is to provide a place where high school students can come to have fun, be themselves, make new friends, and be encouraged in their Catholic faith. Nights are informal and welcoming with activities ranging from reading the upcoming Sunday Gospel to eating pizza and playing ghost in the graveyard. What's Next this week? We'll be discussing next Sunday's Gospel reading and playing a childhood favorite: Capture the Flag! Be there - and bring a friend, all are welcome!

High School Lock-In

St. Paul Catholic Church
Activities include a cookout, bon-fire, midnight Adoration, movies, open gym, and more! Open to all high school students, regardless of home parish or denomination.

Preventing Child Abuse is Everyone’s Responsibility
It is every adult’s moral responsibility to protect possible victims by reporting the suspected abuse or neglect to responsible authorities. Sexual abuse of minors is a pervasive societal problem, and only concerted and sustained efforts by all adults in every segment of society can help to protect children and youth. To report suspected abuse of a minor, call your local authorities or Child Protective Services.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today’s Gospel Jesus called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help hungry children feel the arms of Jesus around them.
