OCTOBER 17-18, 2015

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time † October 11, 2015
The Administrative Staff of St. Bruno & St. Paul Parishes, including we priests, has been going through an intense strategic planning process over the past few months. After numerous meetings and much reflection, a new structure for the future of our Administrative/Finance Ministry has been accepted by and is being endorsed by us priests. All of this is setting the foundation for when Fr. Ralph retires next June and Fr. Chuck takes over shepherding the two parishes on his own. With the size of our parishes, Fr. Chuck will need significant assistance in facilitating administrative matters.

The new structure will have a full-time “Parish Cluster Director” who will serve and be accountable to both parishes; work closely with the pastor on administrative operations; serve as a resource to parishioners and ministries in most administrative matters; and manage human resources, including a three-quarter time “Business Manager” for each parish. These managers would oversee the data base, facilities, financial records and statements, mortgage data and contracts, and work with the Finance Council, Parish Cluster Director and the Pastor. Basically, they will oversee financial and stewardship resources.

In order to transition into this new structure while both priests are still on board, we priests have asked Rita Borowski, our part-time consultant who has been facilitating the strategic planning of our parishes, to serve as our Parish Cluster Director on a part-time basis. She knows both parishes well and has the skills needed to serve as our Parish Cluster Director. After discussion and prayer, she has accepted.

The position of Business Manager at St. Bruno’s has been handled by a qualified temporary appointment, Pam Schmitt, since early July. Rosemarie Etzel, who has so diligently served as Director of Administrative Services at St. Paul’s for over 30 years, has given her notice to retire this December 4. That leaves us needing to fill two Business Management positions within the next eight weeks. So we have begun to “open list” for those positions. If there is anyone in our midst who has the skills and make-up to embrace this ministry, please contact the parish within the next two weeks.

We priests feel that this is the most effective parish management structure for the upcoming two-parish, one-pastor model. Know also that this administrative strategic plan can be implemented without impact to the current budget bottom-line both this fiscal year and the next.

We ask you to help with your prayers that we not only fill the positions that will be open, but that we truly find the right people for those positions. Thank you!

St. Paul & St. Bruno, Pray for Us! ~Fr. Ralph & Fr. Chuck

The turkey dinners were flying out of the kitchen at St. Bruno’s this past Sunday, Oct. 4. The fact that it wasn’t a “sit down” dinner, but “take out only” didn’t seem to bother most people. We regret and apologize that we ran out of turkey earlier than expected because of our unexpected success. We won’t get caught off-guard next year! Thanks to the one hundred and fifty members of our parish community who pitched in with service at this turkey event. I especially want to express thanks to Heather Meczylo and Rita Meczylo for resurrecting the St. Bruno Turkey Dinner after a one-year absence. Thanks too for the other leadership people that came forward with their involvement. There is the “planning” and then there is the day itself when the plan is executed. Hopefully it was fulfilling work for all. Thanks and blessings to all those who fashioned this wonderful occasion. We also want to thank those who came and purchased turkey dinners. Hopefully they found the turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, squash, stuffing, green beans, rolls and pie to be a full-course meal that satisfied their appetite. May many blessings shower each person, from the youngest to the oldest, who made our Turkey Dinner such a successful event!

World Missions (Propagation of the Faith), Bishops’ Overseas Appeal (Catholic Relief), Peter’s Pence (Holy Father’s Appeal), The Church in Central and Eastern Europe Catholic Home Missions

Most members of St. Bruno Parish have already received an appeal letter, a brochure, a gift card and a return envelope from Archbishop Listecki regarding this year’s “combined collection” for Catholic Causes. There are five collections in one. (Remember that when you are making out your check.) You may designate how much you give to each cause on the gift card. You also have the choice of mailing your gift directly to the Archdiocesan lock box or you can drop your gift card and envelope into the collection at Masses on October 17/18 or the following weekend. Make all checks payable to “Church in Mission: Combined Collection,” NOT to St. Bruno Parish.

Please be generous in financially supporting these life-giving apostolates in the Church. We are “called” by Christ to be a participant in the broader Church’s mission and the “Need Is Great”. Remember to add prayers for the good works that are going on through educators, missionaries, the bishops, and the Holy Father. God reward you! If you did not receive a mailing, a gift card and envelope can be secured in the Ministry Room off the Gathering Place. Thank you.

~Fr. Ralph

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is c)

Our chief knowledge of Callistus was written by his enemies and therefore its truth is open to doubt but it seems that as a result of his background as a slave, Callistus had a great desire for equality among Church members.
