ST. BRUNO PARISH

“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”
Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time † October 18, 2015

2015 Parish Picnic
ASSOCIATE PASTOR’S PEN

This is a reflection that came across my desk for this weekend’s Scripture Readings that I thought I’d share with you:

“Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant.” In the wake of James and John’s vanity, Jesus offers this directive. These two apostles had been thinking in terms of prominence, glory, and worldly honor. They wanted their association with Jesus to lead to public recognition and respect as they took their places at his right and left. But Jesus put them in their place.

As was typical of so many of his teachings, Jesus upset the status quo. He told his followers that, although “great ones make their authority over them felt ... it shall not be so among you.” Then, He put forward this clear image of the servant leader: “Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.”

As followers of Christ, this instruction applies to us as well. We are called to the humility of service that seeks neither personal glory nor gain. We are called to use what authority we may have in the world for the benefit of our brothers and sisters, not for the sake of stroking our own egos. It’s easy to pat ourselves on the back for the good works that we do—to think that we are superior Christians, that others owe us a debt of gratitude, or that our names should be engraved on a public placard in some noteworthy hall. But Jesus calls us to a different standard—the one He himself exemplified through His life of service.

At the same time, today’s Gospel gives us cause to meditate upon our association with Jesus and what we hope to get out of it. Why are we Christian? Are we only after the glory of heaven? Are we afraid to publicly profess our faith when it might hurt our reputation? Or are we in this for the love of the Lord, who came into this world “to serve and to give His life as a ransom” for us?

Mass of Remembrance

November 2, 2015 • 7:00 p.m.

Our parish will hold its Annual Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 2, at 7:00 p.m. Anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago is invited to attend. This is a wonderful liturgy to pray for our deceased loved ones—a special way to remember them! There will be a light luncheon served after Mass. You should have received a letter regarding the Mass of Remembrance in the Parish mailing. There is an RSVP on the bottom of the letter that needs to be returned to the Parish Office by October 31. If you need a copy, there are copies in the Parish Office or on the Kiosk in the Gathering Place. (They are on blue paper.) Any questions, please call the Parish Office at 262-965-2332 or Peggy Knepprath at 262-424-4567.

Welcome!

Our Parish holds a Welcome Weekend on the weekend of the third Sunday of each month. This weekend, Oct. 17/18, we have coffee & juice after all Masses, along with cookies on Saturday and donuts on Sunday. This is also the weekend that we register New Parishioners and offer Blood Pressure Screening. We welcome everyone to take this opportunity to reconnect and socialize with each other.

Combined Collection This Weekend

The envelope sent to each household for the Combined Collection (five causes in one collection—respond accordingly) is designed to be sent to the Archdiocese by direct mail from your home. Those who would rather not take advantage of this method may drop their envelope into the collection at all the Masses this Sunday. If you forgot to bring your envelope this weekend, please know that you can still send it to the Archdiocese, drop it in next week’s regular collection or drop it off at the Parish Office during the week. Thank you for your generosity to the Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Home Missions, Peter’s Pence (Works of the Holy Father), World Missions (Propagation of the Faith), & The Church in Central & Eastern Europe. Make all checks payable to “Church in Mission: Combined Collection”, NOT to St. Bruno Parish. The people served by these five valuable apostolates need our help so badly.

St. Vincent De Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells His disciples: “Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all”.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.
