

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time † October 25, 2015

ST. BRUNO PARISH

"While the world changes, the cross stands firm."

*Mass of Remembrance
November 2, 2015*

ASSOCIATE PASTOR'S PEN

Last Monday's Gospel reading (Oct. 19, 2015) was Luke 12:13-21. This reading has always frustrated me and even saddens me because it continues to happen today. "Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." When did things and money get to be more important than a relationship? I understand that sentimentality of things can be very important and that when someone dies some people grasp for whatever they can in order to hold on to what was.

When my mom died there was very little to be had, but I had what I needed. I had an amazing relationship that will last for eternity with my mother and I have a relationship with my family that will last just as long. There is no amount of money or a single trinket that could ever stand in that way of that.

It saddens me when I hear about people who have not lived this and now have a broken relationship, do not and will not speak to the other because of this.

At the end of the reading it speaks about what is important as the riches of God. For me it comes down to relationships (with God, with other, with self) that should endure forever and not things of this world that will ultimately decay.

A couple quotes from "A message from God" from Facebook:

Forgiving others who have wronged you isn't a one-time thing; it's an ongoing process. So when you find yourself angry again, forgive them again. And forgive yourself for getting angry again. If you need inspiration, remember: YOU can't be free until you set THEM free. Amen!

You don't have to love someone to pray for them. You don't even have to like them. Your enemies need your prayers, too. After all, how long can you pray for your enemies & still think of them as enemies?

WELCOME TO ST. BRUNO PARISH!

ALL SOULS DAY, NOVEMBER 2

Monday, November 2nd is All Souls Day. It is not a Holy Day in the Catholic Church's calendar. However, because it is so important that we pray for our loved ones who have died and gone before us to the kingdom of heaven, I remind everyone that we will have an All-Souls Day Mass on Monday morning at 8:00 a.m. Or you are invited to our annual special evening Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 p.m. that same day. Those present can participate in the meaningful candle lighting service that is part of the Mass. There will be a light luncheon served after the Mass. This is a wonderful liturgy to pray for our deceased loved ones.

Throughout the month of November, in the Gathering Place, you will find the Book of Remembrance. Those who have died and have their names entered in the Book become members of our "All Souls Society," for whom Masses are periodically offered.

Throughout the year an individual loved one who has passed away can be remembered as the Mass Intention of a weekday or weekend Mass. The intention (person's name), the Mass & the time are noted in our bulletin the Sunday before. It is a wonderful way to have the loved one remembered, prayed for and honored. The offering for each of those Masses is just $10. (The Bishops of Wisconsin set that guideline.) Presently, we have many openings for intentions in the Mass schedule at St. Bruno. Contact Pam in the Parish Office or Fr. Ralph!

"ETERNAL REST GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD.
AND LET PERPETUAL LIGHT SHINE UPON THEM!"

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus: "What do you want Me to do for you?", and he answers "Master, I want to see". Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely.

This month, through your gifts, the society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God's love and mercy to many families, providing money for food, utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

PREVENTING CHILD ABUSE

PREVENTING CHILD ABUSE IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY

It is every adult's moral responsibility to protect possible victims by reporting the suspected abuse or neglect to the responsible authorities. Sexual abuse of minors is a pervasive societal problem, and only concerted and sustained efforts by all adults in every segment of society can help to protect children and youth. To report suspected abuse of a minor, call your local authorities or Child Protective Services.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is a)

Melchizedek was a king of Salem (later called Jerusalem) and a priest of God at the time of Abraham. Some believed he was divine, on a par with angels.
