(What is a Synod? It is an assembly of representative Bishops from around the world who assist the Holy Father with counsel on important questions facing the Church.) In October 2014, the Holy Father called an Extraordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on the topic of “family.” Subsequent to that gathering, Pope Francis called an Ordinary Assembly of the Synod of Bishops to continue the dialogue on “family.” So for three weeks, October 4-25, 2015, Pope Francis and 270 representative Bishops from all parts of the world met in Rome to listen to & learn from not only each other, but also the laity of the Church (married couples, single men and single women, and many others) and share a message of mission on the importance of serving families.

(In order to have as many people as possible give input, a questionnaire also went out from the Holy Father a number of months ago asking Catholics to share their concerns, experiences and wisdom about “family.” Our parishioners were asked at the time to look at the Pope’s questionnaire on the internet and to send in their responses by e-mail. Some of you did!) The Synod participants shared the faith and concerns of the world’s Catholics about “family,” and they wrapped up this part of the Synod last weekend. At the conclusion of the Synod, the Bishops voted on a number of issues relating to family, some of which you have seen in the media over the past week. Later, an “action” document will be coming from the office of our Holy Father covering a wide range of topics related to family. The Church’s teachings will be highlighted and a message will be shared on how to concretely and pastorally live and apply those teachings to ‘where people are at.’ If the Holy Father and the Bishops maybe didn’t know the struggles of families before, they definitely do now, because of the experience of the Synod. Their intent is neither to scold people nor to demand impersonal allegiance to the teachings of the Church, but rather to meet families where they are at. If people are expecting the teachings of the Church to change, they will be disappointed, but there is still the concrete application of justice and mercy that have to be applied and used in our understanding of family issues. Stay tuned!

May all the different experiences of family in our homes and in society be guided by the grace of the Lord!

~Fr. Ralph

Mass of Remembrance † Nov. 2

Our annual Mass of Remembrance will be held this Monday, Nov. 2, at 7:00 p.m. This liturgy is for anyone who has experienced the death of a loved one. Please join us for this special time of worship and loving remembrance.

Welcome To St. Bruno Parish!

Whether you are new or visiting, we welcome you to our Parish! If you are interested in becoming a member, or just want to find out more about us, please see page six, or go to our website: www.stbrunoparish.com.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal & Archdiocesan Bankruptcy Update

Hopefully, during the second week of November, the Judge who has been handling the Milwaukee Archdiocese Bankruptcy Case, which has gone on for almost five years, will rule that the bankruptcy is over. At that time she is expected to rule that the Chapter 11 Reorganization Plan proposed by the Milwaukee Archdiocese, and accepted by the creditors group (victims), should be implemented.

Although no Archdiocesan Catholic Stewardship monies over the past five years or at any other time have been part of this bankruptcy case, I have heard a number of people express that they were not contributing to the CSA because they didn’t believe that the Archdiocese, the creditors and the judge were telling the truth. They were telling the truth! If you have been reluctant to make a donation to the 2015 Catholic Stewardship Appeal up to this point, please change your mind and come on board. Last week I received a performance report that identified that only 20% of St. Bruno’s Parishioners have made a donation to the 2015 CSA. Our parish goal is $36,000 and we need $8,000 more to reach that goal before mid-December. Can you help? Will you help the various Archdiocesan ministries that serve St. Bruno Parish and over 650,000 Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee? (Forward your donation to “CSA, 3501 S. Lake Dr., P.O.Box 070912, Milwaukee, WI 53207-0912.” On the memo part of your check please include our Parish ID number: “M06.”) Thank you!

~Fr. Ralph

TAKING CARE OF THE HOME WE SHARE

Fall and Winter Energy-Saving Tips

Fall is here and as temperatures begin to drop, there are a number of things you can do to keep your energy use and energy bills down:

• Open curtains on windows during the day to allow sunlight to naturally heat your home and close them at night to reduce the chill from cold windows.
• Add caulking or weather-stripping to seal air leaks around doors and windows.

For more information go to www.energy.gov

RESPECT LIFE

Please stop by the Pro-Life table in the Gathering Place after Masses this weekend to add your name to the Pro-Life Ad which will appear in the Waukesha Freeman. This ad supports the efforts of Wisconsin Right to Life. ($1.00 donation per name.)
