On October 31st, little goblins, superheroes and princesses descended upon our doorsteps seeking treats and goodies. If we think about it, our relationship with God is sometimes like that Halloween tradition. We, like children, eagerly come to God’s doorstep when we want something. We come to God for blessings, requests of help for ourselves or someone else, for strength in times of trouble, and, most importantly, for the gift of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist at Mass.

All of these are available to us if we but knock at God’s door. But are we to be merely like children who continually ask for more without ever thinking about God’s will for us and the gifts He gives us?

If our relationship with God is based solely on our asking and God giving, we are like the neighborhood children coming to our door asking for candy. There is no relationship. God is always at the door waiting for us to knock. He wants to give us love, joy, faith and blessings. However, God’s gifts come with a purpose and a responsibility. God does not give us His gifts just to keep to ourselves. He gives them to us to be shared, and shared abundantly, with others. With love and generosity the gifts are given, so with love and generosity they are to be shared.

As we stand at the doorstep of God to receive His gifts, we are to receive them graciously, cultivate them responsibly, share them with others in love and justice, and return a fitting portion back to God with gratitude. If we do this, we are no longer just neighborhood children knocking on God’s door, but truly His sons and daughters.

GRATITUDE TO DEACON TOM & ANNA MARIE

From 1995 to the present time, Deacon Tom Filipiak and his wife, Anna Marie, have been involved in a very important ministry and service to the community of St. Bruno’s and the whole Church, providing baptismal instruction to parents of babies about to be baptized. Over those twenty years they have dedicated themselves to meet in their home with the parents of these newborn babies, providing the parents with instructions about the ceremony, the sacramental effects of baptism on their newborn and the responsibilities of the parents in the faith formation of their child. They likewise handed out written aids for parents to refer to in the future. Checking St. Bruno’s baptismal records, approximately five hundred children were baptized after the instructions Tom and Anna Marie provided. I would guess that many families of our parish now know where Tom and Anna Marie live. This ministry was done on behalf of all of us because it involved baptizing and welcoming a new member into our faith family. From what I understand, Tom and Anna Marie personalized what they shared, which made each encounter special for themselves. They have shared with me what a joy and honor it has been to be involved in this ministry. Tom and Anna Marie feel that since St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes now share an Adult Minister – Mary Kral – it is a good time to hand over the baton to Mary, who is finalizing her studies in pastoral ministry and is anxious to serve as the provider of baptismal instruction in the future.

Fr. Chuck, I and the St. Bruno Community thank you, Tom and Anna Marie, for the gift you have given to St. Bruno’s, the whole Church and the families you have met with. And, we welcome Mary Kral on board as she embraces this ministry and a number of other ministries relating to adult formation.

School Happenings

How To Help Our School:

- Pray for us.
- Submit your BOX TOPS & LABELS FOR EDUCATION. You can drop them off in the School Office or in the drawer of the Kiosk in the Gathering Place.
- PURCHASE SCRIP: Online or in the Gathering Place after Mass.
- Use GoodSearch. Similar to Google, GoodSearch donates one cent every time you search the web. Be sure to enter “St. Bruno Parish School”.
- Facebook: We want all of our students, parents, and friends to “like” us on Facebook. This will be used as an opportunity to highlight some of the amazing talent that the students have to share at St. Bruno.

Prayer Army

Thank you to all who have joined our Memorare Prayer Army. Remember, please try to pray this prayer six times a day. We know prayer is powerful and we are seeing great things happening already. Keep praying!

Annual Fruit Sale

The Annual Fruit Sale is underway! Proceeds this year will be going to our Middle School Students who are raising funds for their 8th Grade trip to Washington D.C. To place your order, visit our table in the Gathering Place after all Masses this weekend and next. Fruit may also be purchased for donation to the local Food Pantries. If you have any questions or would like to place an order, contact Tammy Price at tammy.price@stbrunoparishschool.com. The students thank you in advance for your purchase!

Cookie Bakers Needed!

We need cookie bakers for The World’s Greatest Cookie Sale. If you are able to provide 7-10 dozen small holiday-themed cookies, this event is for you! The cookies need to be dropped off at the School Office or to Patty Kinnard by November 22. If you have any questions, please contact Patty at 262-470-3939.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

St. Bruno Parish will be participating in a Thanksgiving Food Drive supporting The Kettle Moraine Food Pantry. The Food Pantry is off of Cty. Rd. E in Our Savior Lutheran Church, Wales. We’ll be handing out grocery bags with a list of needed items next weekend. Your donations will help individuals and families right here in our area who are in financial need.

Music Ministry

Keyboard Dedication

We will bless and dedicate the Yamaha Clavinova 705 to God’s glory on the Feast of Christ the King at the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Nov. 22. This is also the Feast of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music. We are grateful for the generosity of our parish donors who made the purchase of this instrument possible. The choir will sing a special anthem from the “Ode for St. Cecilia’s Day” by Daniel Purcell (1698). The “Grand Chorus” text we’ll sing is: Raise the voice, and raise the soul, Sing, sing, Cecilia, bless her name. Round the globe her fame shall roll, while music tunes the world and rules the mighty, mighty frame. The Greek philosophers believed that God created the Universe with an innate musical harmony (Pythagorus) and this harmony provides the framework for the preservation of this Universe. With St. Augustine, let’s renew our appreciation of this good gift of God (bonum donum Dei) in our life together and spiritual devotional life. Join us and invite a friend.

School Cantors

Many thanks to our 7th Grade Students for leading worship at the School Liturgy on October 28. The students signed and led the singing of Psalm 27, “The Lord is my light and my salvation”. Here, they are “riffing” on the sign for “afraid” in the week of Halloween.

Join The Team

There will be a planning meeting in the Parish Room at 4:45 p.m. this Monday, November 9, for anyone interested in helping out with the St. Bruno Church Christmas décor for this year. Questions? Contact Rebecca Ramage at 727-612-9915.

Advent Sale Starts Today

The Christian Formation Committee has Advent and Christmas items available for purchase in the Gathering Place. These items include Advent candles, wreaths, and calendars. Some items are limited, so shop early for the best selections. (Advent begins November 29.)

Kringle Sale Today

Place your order for Kringles today in the Gathering Place after all Masses or you can order from your favorite Knight. Same prices as last year! ($8 each or a case of 4/$31.) They will be delivered next weekend (Nov. 14 & 15) for pick-up. All proceeds go to our Vocations Scholarship Fund which we use to support seminarians like Michael Senglaub and Andrew Infanger. (Both men are from St. Bruno!) Thank you for your support!

BELIEF REQUIRES ACTION
When the presider or deacon sends us back into our individual worlds at the end of Mass with “The Mass is ended, go in peace to love and serve the Lord” or “The Mass is ended, announce the Good News with your lives”, how does what you believe call you to LIVE that statement?
Watch the movie “Do You Believe?” (PG-13) and join in discussion Nov. 12 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Bruno.

What’s Next?
Wednesday, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells us: “I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus of wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on.”

Ask yourself—“Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?”—and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul basket so that those who are suffering will be able to know God’s love and care.

WOMEN ARE INVITED...

...To Pray At The Seminary!

The de Chantal Society invites women for silence, prayer and spiritual formation at Saint Francis de Sales Seminary. We are a group who are passionate about supporting vocations, families and our own spirituality. We gather three times per year in the peace of the Seminary for adoration, formation and benediction, followed by a light reception. Our Nov. gatherings will be led by Bishop Richard Skiba. Please join us at whichever time works best for you: Wednesday, Nov. 18, 7-9 p.m. or Thursday, Nov. 19, 9-11 a.m. Gatherings are held at Saint Francis de Sales Seminary 3257 South Lake Dr., St. Francis. RSVP to NewHeartNewSpirit@sfs.edu or 414-747-6463.
