PASTOR’S PEN
Advent Is Here!!!

The start of a new Church Year begins with Advent, this weekend. Happy New Year! The first two weeks of Advent always concentrate on the Second Coming of Christ, the end of the world, what is called the Parousia in the Scriptures. Obviously it should cause us to reflect on our “readiness” for the coming of Christ, the Second Coming of Christ. Are we prepared and ready to meet Jesus at all times, whether at the end of our lives or at the end of the world? “Being prepared” doesn’t mean selling all of our possessions and giving away everything we own. Some fanatics have done that in the past, as they were certain that the world was going to end on a set day or year. “Being prepared” means living our life the best way that we can and sharing the gifts in our life, all of which come from God, with those around us. Our best way to prepare is to live lives of service, sacrifice, generosity and worship. The words of Jesus proclaim that “Whatsoever you do to the least of My people, that you do unto Me. Now enter into the home of my Father.” Advent is a time of examination of our lives in the context of a bigger picture that we are part of. Let’s build more fruitful lives over these weeks!

Advent Communal Penance Services

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy we are called to avail ourselves of the mercy that God readily wants to bestow upon us as a gift. We especially encourage the grandeur of Christ’s mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Once we are pardoned by our God and experience inner peace through absolution, we are empowered to be more merciful ourselves. Consider participating in a Communal Penance Service sometime during Advent, with individual confession and absolution.

St. Bruno & St. Paul Parishes will jointly celebrate a Communal Penance Service on Tuesday, December 1.

Special Collection For La Sagra da Familia

For over 34 years the Archdiocese of Milwaukee has sponsored a “sister” parish, Holy Family (La Sagrada Familia Parroquia), in the Province of Azua in the southwest corner of the Dominican Republic. There has been a relationship of continuously sharing lay missionaries and two Milwaukee priests, who pastor the parish out of the city of Sabana Yegua. The parish encompasses 27 villages and has grown to 27,152 parishioners. The people have many physical needs because of extreme poverty. There is no plumbing, drinkable water, or consistent electricity. In addition to these woes, the parish suffered severe damage from Hurricane Sandy in October, 2012. They are still rebuilding. There is a native health care staff and a native social worker. The parish has to serve physical, spiritual and educational needs as it dreams of a better future. Spiritually, the staff nurtures evangelization, catechesis, sacraments, prayer groups, adult and youth formation and leadership training (30% of the people are illiterate). Thanks to the financial generosity of the people of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee over the years, these endeavors are ongoing and there now exists a main parish church, a number of village chapels, a small parish staff, a health center, 18 pharmacies, and two nutrition centers for children (malnourished children are provided two meals a day).

The people of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee have again been asked to participate in and support a collection for La Sagrada Familia Parish. This week each parish household will receive a mailing from the Archdiocesan World Mission Office. Your gift can be returned by using the reply card or online at worldmissions.archmilidonate.org. In addition to your donation, we hope that you will pray for our brothers and sisters in the Dominican Republic and that the bond between us grows stronger. Thank you!

Cover Drafty Windows
- Use a heavy-duty, clear plastic sheet on a frame or tape clear plastic film to the inside of your window frames during the cold winter months. Make sure the plastic is sealed tightly to the frame to help reduce infiltration.
- Install tight-fitting, insulating drapes or shades on windows that feel drafty after weatherizing.

What is Your Catholic IQ?

St. Vincent De Paul

As we begin Advent, we are called to “wait” in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. Wherever you live in your parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul basket will help the poor celebrate the grace of God’s love this Christmas.

Early Due Dates

The Holidays are here, which means there are several early bulletin announcement due dates coming up. This year, we’re coordinating these dates with St. Paul’s:

</tr>
<tr>

</table>

Please remember to submit your bulletin announcements by 10:00 a.m. on the due date.

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is a) Apocalyptic comes from the Greek word, apokalusis, which means an uncovering of earth-shattering events. Those who trust in the Lord will never have to fear time, change or death itself.
