ASSOCIATE PASTOR'S PEN

In this Advent Season, as we prepare for Christ's birth and the many things we will give and receive, are we able to give without first being grateful?

Somehow as I think about this, I think the answer is "no". Before we can reach out and give what we have we are grateful for having:

- ✚ When we walk down the street and give something to someone who asks, is there not at least a split moment that we are grateful for having that ability to give?
- ✚ When we offer our time in ministry, are we not first grateful for what we receive and for our time that we are able to give?
- ✚ When we give that smile to someone passing by, are we not grateful for something in our day, for the smile we received from that person, for the breath that we are able to take?

- ✚ When we give consolation to someone, are we not thankful for the relationship that we have with that person?
- ✚ When we are on the receiving end of any of this, are we not more readily willing to then give? Why? I dare say it is because of our gratitude that we were shown/received that we then give mercy, care, and love.

Before we give, we are grateful for our many blessings/gifts that we receive. Understanding that ALL is gift can give us a new perspective on life. Take a moment (or many moments) each day to be thankful for something. As we grow in gratitude we grow in generosity of the gifts that God has given us of the love that He extends constantly and we can share so easily. As we give of our gifts are we not actually being an extension of the hand of God in giving what He has already given us?

And who wouldn't want to be a helpmate of God?

ADVENT COMMUNAL Penance SERVICES

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy we are called to avail ourselves of the mercy that God readily wants to bestow upon us as a gift. We especially encounter the grandeur of Christ's mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Once we are pardoned by our God and experience inner peace through absolution, we are empowered to be more merciful ourselves. Consider participating in a Communal Penance Service sometime during Advent, with individual confession and absolution.

Communal Penance Services at neighboring parishes are:

- Sat., Dec. 12, 10:00 a.m. St. Charles, Hartland
- Sat., Dec. 12, 10:00 a.m. St. Anthony on the Lake, Pewaukee
- Mon., Dec. 14, 7:00 p.m. Queen of Apostles, Pewaukee
- Wed., Dec. 16, 7:00 p.m. St. Jerome, Oconomowoc
- Wed., Dec. 16, 7:00 p.m. St. Theresa, Eagle
- Sat., Dec. 19, 1:30 p.m. St. Jerome, Oconomowoc

Recognize your sins, confess your sins & know God's mercy!"

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist urges us to "Prepare the way of the Lord", and this is what Advent is all about. We are called to help prepare the way of the Lord by making the real meaning of Christmas come alive in our own hearts, in our family, and to reach out to those in need.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor to celebrate Christmas.

YEAR OF MERCY OPENING MASS

Please join us in prayer at the Year of Mercy Opening Mass on Tuesday, December 8, 2015, 5:15 p.m., at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, 812 N. Jackson St., Milwaukee. Archbishop Jerome ListECKI will formally open the Year of Mercy with a proclamation and a blessing of the Cathedral "Holy Door." The Mass will begin with a beautiful new song commissioned specifically for the Year of Mercy.

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?

The answer is a)

The Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy is to have the mercy of God as its center. We are to live the year in the light of the Lord's words: "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." (Luke 6:36)
