The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph † December 27, 2015

—The Holy Family, by Juan Gutierrez
ASSOCIATE PASTOR’S PEN

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Many of us had the luxury of spending time with our own families and might still be blessed with their presence as this Christmas-tide is extended a couple days this year. Perhaps this time with family was not the blessing we would want it to be because of a rift in the family or a loss that dampens the celebration. I, personally, am blessed with a great family so anytime I am with them I have a feeling of being blessed and I do not take this for granted. This year I can’t help but think of all the people who are fleeing injustices and even life threatening situations as refugees. This is not a new thing in the history of the world (unfortunately). We can look at the Old Testament and see that migration and being refugees were a big part of the Israelite saga – 40 years in the desert fleeing from Egypt and deportation and return from Babylonian exile are a couple examples. Then we come to the Holy Family itself who fled to Egypt again to escape the “wrath” of Herod who slaughtered the Holy Innocents. This is not new. It is not even any kind of great revelation. However, as I gather within the comfort of my family during this Christmas season, I will be mindful of those who will not be able to do the same (at least not in the safety of a home) and I will hold onto the blessings that come from being in family.

fr. Chuck

SOLEMNITY OF MARY MASS SCHEDULE

The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, January 1, 2016, is a Holy Day of Obligation.

On December 31, 2015 (Thursday Evening) St. Bruno will have a Vigil Mass at 7:00 p.m.

On January 1 (Friday), St. Bruno will have an 8:00 a.m. Mass (8:45 a.m. Mass at St. Paul Parish, Genesee Depot)

La Sagrada Familia (The Holy Family)

La Sagrada Familia is our Archdiocesan sister parish in the Dominican Republic. I wrote an article in the parish bulletin on November 29 describing the poverty and struggles of the 27,152 parishioners that make up the parish in the D.R. You should have received a mailing from the Archdiocesan Office for World Mission inviting you to participate in a collection to support the ministry that is going on in the parish. This weekend’s Feast of the Holy Family might be a great time to not only pray for the people who belong to La Sagrada Familia Parroquia, but to send a donation to the Office for World Mission. You can use the reply card that was sent to you or go online and donate, at worldmissions.archmildonate.org. Thank you for your generosity!

La Sagrada Familia was one of the more than 300 parishes that received an enthusiastic response to the first-time offering of the archdiocesan quarterly collection in September 2014. The archdiocesan collection supports the funds we gather for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee’s Office for World Mission.

Welcome & Happy New Year!

Whether you are new or visiting, we welcome you to our Parish! If you are interested in becoming a member, or just want to find out more about us, please see page six, or go to our website: www.stbrunoparish.com. We’re glad you’re here!

Christmas Thanks!

Our pastoral staff members and we priests want to thank all of you who have been so generous to us this Christmas Season and throughout the past year. Again this year there was such an outpouring of cards, gifts and greetings from so many of you that we simply will not be able to thank everyone personally and individually. We also want to thank the many people who continue to pray for us. Know that we are very appreciative and thankful. Our entire staff is also thankful for the generosity of so many people who serve as volunteers for the betterment and life of our parish community and the neighborhood. Your lives are wonderful lessons of generosity that are truly inspiring. Every weekend and holyday there is a Mass offered for the intention of “the living and the deceased of our parish”. That includes all of you. May God’s blessings and graces fill your life throughout 2016! Happy New Year! ~Fr. Ralph

Music Ministry

Thank You, All Christmas Season Music Makers!

To echo the song of the angels at Christmas with their Glory to God in the Highest at the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ takes a village working together. To the children’s/youth choir on Christmas Eve, parish adult choir at the early “midnight” mass, and all the cantors, instrumentalists and librarians, a heartfelt thank you from the entire parish for your well-prepared songs of praise. With the Psalmist (22) we can confess, “The Lord God is enthroned on the sung praises of His people.”

God Be With You ’Till We Meet Again

I am wrapping up my 12½ years of music and liturgical ministry at St. Bruno Parish now. Norway as a church musician and catechist is likely for the coming year. It will be a seldom opportunity to be better connected to three grandchildren and two of my children’s families. You will hear shortly from our parish leadership the plans for liturgical and music ministry at St. Bruno as they get finalized. “Stay tuned”, as they say.

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to you the parishioners, my colleagues on the staff, the priests I have served under and God for this opportunity to make much inspiring music and prayer together. This is definitely a parish that embodies the body of Christ that shares each others’ mutual joys and sorrows (I Corinthians 12). You have built me up within this body and I hope there will be legacy humming in your heart from my sojourn here. In addition, thanks also for the many ways that you have supported and encouraged my family in your midst.

As the hymn goes, “God be with you ‘till we meet again!” Blessings to and through you in Christ Jesus our Lord!

~Mark Gould

Thanks to “Voces de Fe”

“Voces de Fe” (Voices of Faith) uplifted our celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe on Dec. 12, 2015, at St. Bruno Parish. The Patroness of all the Americas was serenaded in song and prayer with the able and inspiring leadership of St. Patrick’s Hispanic Choir from Whitewater, Wisconsin. Their humble leadership and fervent song kept the spirit of our blessed Mother alive among us. Thanks be to God for this ongoing partnership in the musical gospel.

Today is the feast of The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and so, we can celebrate that we all belong to the holy family of God, which makes us brothers and sisters to each other.

At Christmas this year, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring joy and hope to our “brothers and sisters” who are poor, by assisting many families, providing money for food, gifts, and rent & utility bills. Thank you!

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is a)

You would be practicing the Spiritual Work of Mercy to “Admonish the Sinner”. This should be done compassionately and may be one of the hardest Works of Mercy to practice because we live in a culture of everyone having their own set of values! You may be branded “politically incorrect”. St. Paul says “speak the truth in love”.
