“Christ and the Woman Taken in Adultery”
by Scarsellino, 1600-10

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with His finger.

But when they continued asking Him,
He straightened up and said to them,

“Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

—John 8:6b-7
PASTOR’S PEN
Palm Sunday is Next Weekend

At all three of our Eucharistic Liturgies next weekend, you will receive an unblessed palm as you enter the Gathering Place. Please remain in the Gathering Place for the Blessing Of The Palms ceremony. At the conclusion of that blessing, everyone will process into the church, remembering how Jesus processed into Jerusalem to face His Passion and Death. (If you have old, blessed palms that you wish to dispose of, you may bring them to church and place them in a collection receptacle in the Gathering Place.)

Start to calendar the Holy Week celebrations so that you take the time to join in all or some of these sacred experiences:

Tuesday of Holy Week (3/22): 7:30 p.m. Mass of Chrism at St. John’s Cathedral when the three Holy Oils are blessed and distributed to the parishes.

Holy Thursday – The Evening Mass of the LORD’S Supper: when the Eucharist was given to us and when Jesus washed the feet of His disciples, leaving us two powerful messages for a meaningful life. We are to eat this “bread from heaven,” Jesus’ glorified Body and Blood, and serve one another. This Mass begins at 7:00 p.m. Following the Mass of the Last Supper, there will be adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until midnight in the Chapel.

Good Friday – The celebration of the Passion and Death of Jesus on the cross destroys the power of sin for those who are sorry. The service begins at 1:00 p.m. and includes the reading of the Passion, Holy Communion and Veneration of the Cross. At 7:00 p.m., there are Stations of the Cross followed by Veneration of the Cross.

Holy Saturday – The greatest liturgy of the entire year. The Easter Fire is lit and blessed outside. From that fire the Easter Candle is lit and processed in the darkness into the church. The Exsultet (the magnificent Resurrection Song) is sung. Our salvation history is proclaimed in a number of biblical stories. Then the waters for baptism are blessed and our baptismal promises renewed. Alleluias are abundantly sung while Don McCarthy comes into full communion with the Catholic Church by his Confirmation and First Eucharist.

The Mass begins at 8:00 p.m.

(Earlier on Saturday, at 12:00 p.m., the Blessing of Easter Foods takes place in church. There is a tradition of bringing food to church to be blessed, food which a family will share on Easter, or food which will be shared with the less fortunate.)

NOTE: The Catholic Church does not allow a Mass of anticipation for Easter, so there can be NO Mass before dark on Holy Saturday. Therefore we are NOT permitted to have a 5:00 p.m. Mass of Anticipation.

Easter Sunday – The continuation of the Alleluias of Holy Saturday’s Easter Vigil. Masses are at 8:00 and 10:30 am.

Please come and be part of these significant days. These are more than days of remembrance. They are the events of salvation and redemption that are still happening for us. Enter into the mystery of it all and experience the saving power of Christ.

~Fr. Ralph

Fr. Chuck Invites You To...

Palm Sunday Vespers – to be held at St. John Vianney in Brookfield at 6:30 p.m. Come pray and experience the Office of Evening Prayer for Palm Sunday. The beautifully and powerfully composed prayer will be lead by Fr. Chuck and several of his priest friends. Along with the Palm Sunday Mass celebrations, this is a wonderful way to begin your Holy Week.

Guatemalan Student Sponsorship

Final Student Sponsorship Weekend: March 12/13. Please prayerfully consider continuing to sponsor a student or becoming a new sponsor for the deserving young men and women from our sister parish, St. Agustin in Chahal, Guatemala. Members of our Mission Team will be available for questions after all Masses.

Funerals During the Sacred Triduum

On Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday (March 24-27), a funeral Mass may NOT be celebrated according to the law of the Church. What is permitted, is that the body of the deceased may be brought to the parish church and the funeral prayers and final commendations offered, but these rituals must be celebrated without a Mass or the Eucharist during the Triduum. The burial commemorations are also permitted at the cemetery. After Easter Sunday, a Memorial Mass for the deceased may be scheduled if the family wishes. The death of a loved one is a traumatic experience, and the Church’s law on this matter might seem insensitive, but during the Sacred Triduum the only Masses that are permitted are the Holy Thursday Evening Mass of the Last Supper and the great Easter Vigil Mass celebrating the Resurrection of Christ on Holy Saturday night. Although Communion is distributed as part of the Good Friday Service, there is no Mass celebrated that day because of the death and burial of Jesus.

“Rediscover Jesus”

Question of the Week:

This week in Rediscover Jesus we’re reading #29-34 and the question of the week is #33: What is one way you can deny yourself today? Send your answer to Mary Kral at the Parish Office or marykral4@gmail.com. Read some answers to past questions that have been shared:

- “The most difficult thing for me to accept (live) is to think that Jesus can have time – interest to keep me on His radar. That He loves me more than I love myself. This is the most difficult thing to know, that I am deserving of a personal relationship with Jesus. What has been contradictory for me in attending Mass is that over and over again – we are to cite that I ‘am not worthy to receive you but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.’ That is difficult – on one hand, I am proclaiming I am not worthy – and I have to hope that Jesus says the word and I am healed. I struggle with the part between proclaiming I not worthy and not feeling that Jesus can love me more than I love myself. It’s a paradox.”

- “The area of my that will benefit most from God’s invitation to Rediscover Jesus worry. When I have a worry about anything, I write it down and put it under a desk mat in my office – I hand the worry over to God and try not to think about it anymore, I have to make that effort to remind myself that whatever happens in my life – it’s God’s will and not mine. I have to trust that God has a better plan for me than I do for myself. To re-discover Jesus keeps my mind focused on the fact that my life’s plans has already been determined by God and to have faith in that. Whenever I am asked to look through a new door – I do so with the intent that it’s God’s plan.”

Holy Week Reminders

Holy Week is the most special time of the Liturgical Year and has the most beautiful liturgies. Please bring your family for a wonderful prayer experience. Everyone is invited to bring bells to church on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday. Ringing these bells at the beginning of the Gloria makes the Glory to God a bit more special, and the children love it. Also on Holy Thursday, please bring back your Rice Bowls. We will bring them up at the Presentation of Gifts. All of the money in the Rice Bowls is for the needy. On Holy Saturday, Fr. Ralph will bless the new Holy Water as part of the rituals of the Easter Vigil. You may bring your Holy Water bottle from home to fill, and there will be some Holy Water bottles available. Have a beautiful and prayerful Holy Week.

Holy Week Help Needed

Liturgical Ministers please remember to sign up for your ministry for the special Liturgies of Holy Week. You will receive an email with a link to sign up online.

Additional opportunities for anyone to serve include Foot Washing on Holy Thursday or carrying the cross on Good Friday. These sign-up sheets are located in the Gathering Place, on the Kiosk.

Meals for Families With Newborns
Expectant and new mothers can receive meals made by fellow parishioners for them and their families. Contact Amy Golden at 262-402-8229 or algolden@gmail.com.

Prayer Network
If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, we have a group of parishioners at St. Bruno’s who would like to pray for your special needs. Call Donna at 262-965-3224, or Ruth at 262-965-2329.

St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP)
Contact the Parish Office for assistance from SVDP: 262-965-2332.

The Endowment for St. Bruno
We have established a permanent endowment fund for the future of our church and school. We invite a contribution in honor of family members, friends, or in memory of a loved one. Information and contribution envelopes are in the Gathering Place.

Parish Office Hours
Every weekday from 9:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

Bulletin Articles
Please submit your stories, announcements, photographs and ideas for the bulletin via email to stbruno@wi.rr.com by 10:00 a.m. Thursday, March 17, for the Easter Bulletin.
