THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER † APRIL 10, 2016

ST. BRUNO PARISH

“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”

HOLY WEEK 2016
This month of April is “Child Abuse Prevention Month” throughout the United States. It is every adult’s moral responsibility to learn the warning signs of abuse and to protect possible victims by reporting the suspected abuse or neglect to the responsible authorities. Sexual abuse of minors is a pervasive societal problem, and only concerted, sustained efforts by all adults in every segment of society can help to protect children and youth. To report suspected abuse, the following contacts can be made: Waukesha County Department of Health and Human Services at 262-548-7212 (262-547-3388); the Archdiocese of Milwaukee Office of the Victim Assistance Coordinator at 414-758-2232; or the local police department.

The Catholic Church has been focusing on the importance of keeping children and youth safe since the abuse of minors by clergy came to light. Patti Loehr is the Safe Environment Coordinator for the Archdiocese. She coordinates “Safeguard All of God’s Family” programming. She can be reached at 414-769-3449. Every teacher in our schools and religious education programs, every staff member of the school and parish, and every volunteer that works around children, must go through training to be more vigilant and observant of others’ behavior around and with children. Every child in our schools and religious education programs is also instructed about what is appropriate and what is inappropriate behavior by adults or older youth around them. They also learn to speak up and where to go for help.

On a somewhat related note about the sad sexual abuse events of the past, last Fall’s $21 million Archdiocesan Chapter 11 settlement (with approximately 450 abuse victims) had as a condition and an agreement that each of the 196 parishes of the Archdiocese contribute $2,500 to an Abuse Survivor Therapy Fund. Although the parishes of the Archdiocese were not directly a part of the bankruptcy suit, they willingly and readily supported the contribution to the Therapy Fund for the victims.

Let’s continue to help the victims of the past and work to prevent any abuse and harm to children and youth in the future. And never forget to pray for victims of abuse!

“Fr. Ralph

In this Sunday’s Gospel, the disciples, in their struggle, finally recognize Jesus and proclaim: “It is the Lord!”

Have you considered answering the call to “help the poor recognize the Lord in their life” by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Would you like to learn more about the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Did You Know . . .

Red, Yellow and White
Our St. Bruno Parish Campus uses these three colors to represent some basic things in our lives through our plantings.

Red is to honor the blood of Christ: We use red roses; red berries on the two Hawthorn trees.

White is to honor the Blessed Virgin: White roses; white Potentilla shrubs.

Yellow is to honor the gift of sunshine God gives us: Stella de Oro daylilies and Forsythia.

As Spring approaches, watch for the colors to burst forth, or find the red berries on the Hawthorn trees. We will have to replace some of these plantings in the Spring and some will need dividing.

Join us April 24!

~Buildings and Grounds
Mary Daniel mdaniel1@wi.rr.com

Parents and guardians have the primary responsibility for protecting their children from all potential harm. When choosing a nursery, daycare center, or school, parents should inspect the building and grounds to make sure there are no areas where children play or work that are “off limits” to parents. Such facilities should have a policy that welcomes parents to visit the center or school without prior appointment.

World Youth Day Pilgrimage to Holy Hill for Young Adults (18-39)
July 28-31: Young adult men and women (18-39) are invited to join Fr. Luke Strand on a four-day walking pilgrimage of mercy from Saint Francis de Sales Seminary to Holy Hill. We will be visiting parishes along the way while encountering the great work happening in the Archdiocese – join us! For more information, please visit us at http://www.thinkpriest.org/Milwaukee-WYD-Pilgrimage-of-Mercy-.htm or call the Vocation Office at 414.747.6437.

The Dousman Ottawa Lions Club is holding a Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, April 17, from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at the Dousman Ottawa Community Center (235 N. Main St. Dousman). Cost: Freewill Donation.
