St. Bruno Parish is a community of people sharing a common faith in the teachings of the Catholic tradition. We come together to worship God and to spread the Good News that Jesus gave us. Through celebrating Christian unity, we provide emotional support and practice the works of mercy.

FROM YOUR PASTOR’S PEN

I have wondered if these monthly themes of mercy have had any impact or if they are just another pretty cover on the bulletin. Many things have fallen by the wayside because other things so easily “take priority” such that the pastor pen which was supposed to reflect the cover the first weekend of the month has not done so. I read this reflection today and have to admit that it had too much relation to myself. I hope the same is not true for you.

~Fr. Chuck

Mercy Takes Work

“It is my burning desire that, during this Jubilee, the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. It will be a way to reawaken our conscience, too often grown dull in the face of poverty. And let us enter more deeply into the heart of the Gospel where the poor have a special experience of God’s mercy. Jesus introduces us to these works of mercy in his preaching so that we can know whether or not we are living as his disciples. Let us rediscover these corporal works of mercy: to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, heal the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead.” ~Pope Francis

It’s hard to believe we are more than halfway through the Jubilee year. Honestly, I’m not sure my conscience is more awake than it was six months ago. In fact, the more suffering I see on TV or on my Facebook newsfeed, the more I resonate with the increasing dullness of which the Holy Father speaks. Sure at home, I may feed my hungry children or give their thirsty bodies something to drink. But am I allowing even these small everyday gestures to change my heart? The hardest work of mercy for me is remembering that any of these efforts are meant to change me in the process – to understand what it means to be in solidarity with others and to deepen my relationship with Jesus. This Year of Mercy will not change us unless we seek out service and open ourselves to the personal conversion it can bring. I’ve got some work to do – how about you?

b) Went to the same college
c) Members of the same family
d) Had same hairstyle.

NOTE FROM SARAH
St. Bruno Parishioners,
After 4 great years of being with this parish community, I have discerned that it is time for me to move on. This has not been an easy decision as I deeply love this parish and each person in it. But, I know that if God is calling me to serve Him in a new capacity, then He will be calling someone new to take my place here. I know our youth ministry program will continue to run and thrive thanks to the work of our amazing small group leaders and volunteers.

As for me, I am excited to take on a brand new role and a new challenge as the Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry and Evangelization at St. Dominic Parish in Brookfield, WI. Though I will no longer be working here after August 19th, St. Bruno’s will always hold a special place in my heart and in my prayers. I hope to continue the many great friendships I’ve found here and will always be glad to hear from any of you.

I can be reached at 262-945-2444 or sarah.daszczuk@gmail.com.
Thank you for all of the love, generosity, and faith you have taught me and shared with me over the past 4 years. I will miss you all!

In Christ, Sarah Daszczuk

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP
The Lake Area Bereavement Sessions held at St. Bruno ended July 26th. This is an inspiring ministry and we have many people we would like to thank. This group could not have succeeded without so much support.

Thanks to the Holy Spirit for holding our hands when we most needed it! Thank you to the parishioners for their prayers, the parish staff for their help, St. Bruno Parish and Pagenkopf Funeral Home for their financial aid and most especially, the participants in this "Good Grief Group." They were an incredible group of people who had the courage to do the hard work of mourning their loved ones.

May God bless you all!
Peggy Knepprath and Sandy Mayernick

ST. BRUNO BOOK CLUB
The next meeting of the Book Club is Tuesday, August 8, at 9 AM in the Family Room.
We always welcome new members. You do not have to read the book, just come and enjoy the discussion, coffee and snacks! The book for August is.........
Atchison Blue by Judith Valente. (book about finding quiet in your life)
FAITH FORMATION CORNER

REGISTRATION
We are currently accepting registrations for Faith Formation classes grades Kindergarten - 11th grade for the 2016-2017 school year. If your child has been in our program, a registration form has been mailed to you. For those new to our parish, registration forms can be found on the parish website, in the parish office, on the kiosk, or in the door pocket of the Faith Formation office. We ask that you return your registrations by mid July so that we can plan accordingly for supplies and catechists.

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD PEOPLE!
St. Bruno's & St. Paul's Joint Faith Formation Committee is looking for a few good people to join the committee! Be an advocate for programs and education of the people in our parish community, for the entire life span. The committee is asking for a 1 year commitment, meeting the first Monday of the month. Please contact Jean Warren at jwarren7@wi.rr.com for details.

HS LEADERS NEEDED!
Are you passionate about Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith? Do you want our young people to find hope in our Church? Then you are qualified to be a high school small group leader. We need faithful mentors to lead or co-lead a group of amazing young men or women. Lessons are video-based so you do not have to “teach,” just lead discussion, listen, learn and pray with our teens. It’s not as scary as it sounds and I guarantee that you will love the teens, our Church, and Jesus Christ even more through this opportunity! Contact Sarah with questions, to preview the program, or sign up: 262-968-2276.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

In the month of July, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist many families, providing money for food, rent and utilities, etc.

Thank You!

Support for Seniors

(Volunteers are welcome too!)

The mission of Interfaith Senior Programs is to engage and support Waukesha County seniors in leading meaningful lives. Interfaith volunteers can be requested to drive you to healthcare appointments, pharmacies and grocery stores. If you live alone or are homebound and can’t easily visit with friends and family, we have a way to get you socializing! Have an administrative task that you need help with? Interfaith volunteers can help with that too. Interfaith volunteers can come to the client’s home to give a caregiver a break. Volunteers would also be happy to help if you need assistance with a minor home repair. Our volunteers can also mow the lawn, rake leaves, or shovel snow. SPARK! AIR is a program for caregivers and loved ones with beginning to mid-stage Alzheimer’s disease and other forms of dementia through the use of cultural programming made possible by an artist in residence program. Please see the Interfaith website for more information. http://interfaithwaukesha.org/Programs/Senior-Services (262) 522-2404
