During the month of August, focus on this spiritual work of Mercy:

Counsel the Doubtful

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you...
Let not your hearts be troubled..." (Jn. 14:27)

Invitation to Prayer: Lord, give me your wisdom so that I can speak words of comfort and courage to those in doubt and despair. Let me be your instrument of love, encouragement, strength, and hope.

For Personal Reflection: When have I experienced doubt in God’s presence and power, and how did those experiences lead me into deeper faith and trust?

How can you counsel the doubtful?

Teach: Help mentor, teach, and lead our parishioners, both young and old by volunteering with our faith formation programs.

Second spiritual work of mercy: ‘Counsel the doubtful’

The spiritual work of mercy “counsel the doubtful” can be understood in several different ways, depending on how we interpret the words “counsel” and “doubtful.”

It can mean that we offer insight or wisdom to someone who has questions or doubts, but it can also mean that we offer clarity where confusion reigns or candor when someone’s attitudes, values and behaviors are questionable.

The Bible offers numerous verses that illustrate some of the ways these words can be understood. One meaning of “counsel the doubtful” is to offer advice to people who are unclear as to what they should do.

The Book of Proverbs is filled with insightful sayings that provide guidance on how people should live and make smart decisions. In addition, there are sayings that point out the value of listening to good advice.

Proverbs 11:14 says it this way: “For lack of guidance a people falls; security lies in many counselors.” But not everyone is receptive to the counsel of others as Proverbs 12:15 recognizes: “The way of fools is right in their own eyes, but those who listen to advice are the wise.”

While the passages from Proverbs emphasize the importance of offering and accepting sage advice, another form of counsel is found in 2 Samuel 12 in the familiar story of David and Bathsheba.

David, the king of Israel, lusts for Bathsheba, and so arranges to have her husband killed in battle. When the prophet Nathan learns of this, he confronts David with the sinfulness of his actions. David, forced to recognize the truth, repents and makes amends.

A different type of example of counseling can be found in the story of Jesus and Nicodemus (John 3:1-21). This time the objective is to help someone struggling to understand some aspect of the Christian faith.

In this passage Jesus helps Nicodemus, a faithful man and a leader of the Jewish community, to understand the teaching of being born again. Jesus’ counsel is offered in such a way that it leads Nicodemus to a rich understanding of the teaching.

There are a variety of ways in which Jesus’ followers may provide counsel to those who have doubts or are doubtful. The real question is: Do we care enough about our neighbor to offer assistance in time of doubt?

These two parishes share a High School Youth Minister who will be responsible for faith-filled 9-12th grade instruction and the evangelization/outreach activities that support it such as retreats, mission trips, and youth group. This is a great opportunity to join a dynamic cross-parish formation team that includes an established core team of devoted volunteers at each of these parishes, all passionate about sharing Jesus Christ and forming disciples.

This position is full time with varied hours including evening and weekend work. Candidates should submit their resume AND an archdiocesan application available at www.archmil.org/jobs.htm as soon as possible to Rita Borowski, rborowr@gmail.com to express their interest for consideration or to seek additional information.

St. Bruno’s Thursday morning Men’s Group starts on Sept. 8. This dynamic program is designed to help you be a better spiritual leader in your church, community, and above all, your family. Become a better-formed Catholic! You need this program!

Please contact Jerry Strand (262) 965-3436 OR jerrystrand52@yahoo.com for more information.

Blest Art will be visiting our Parish August 20 & 21 on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land.

For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for those Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christians.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Dear Fr. Chuck and Parishioners,
On behalf of the Missionary Society of St. Theresa of the Little Flower (SSTLF) I wish to express my profound gratitude to you for your kindness in giving us the opportunity to preach a Mission Appeal in your parish recently. Fr. Matthias is very grateful and thanks you for showing him such great hospitality.

Indeed you have extended your love for the missions beyond boundaries and we thank you for that. Your kindness will help the Theresian Missionaries to evangelize and to provide quality Catholic Education to the most impoverished children in rural parts of Ghana who indeed are the future of the Church. Through your kindness the Missionaries will bring Christ to the poor in spirit and food to the hungry through education. I simply have no words that can possibly express my gratitude to you. All I can say is, thank you, thank you, thank you and may the Good Lord continue to bless you all.
Yours in Christ,
Rev. Paul Kala, SSTLF
Founder & Superior.
