“While the world changes, the cross stands firm.”

“"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished." - Lk 12:50
FROM YOUR
PASTOR ‘S PEN

I get these emails from Daniel Cellucci because of a Catholic leadership seminar that I have been a part of. I have used his reflections before and received this one in my email today, so I am sharing it with you to ponder in your heart.

Is your heart shattered?

“The Church Fathers teach us that a shattered heart is the most pleasing gift to God. It is the sign that we are conscious of our sins, of the evil we have done, of our wretchedness, and of our need for forgiveness and mercy.”

~Pope Francis

It was an atheist who once told me, “The only way to be absolutely invulnerable is to be absolutely vulnerable.” That thought has stayed with me for years. I’d like to think that I have never had a problem owning a mistake. After all, I’ve had lots of practice, just ask my wife Tricia. However, putting it all out there and giving voice to our faults is only one part of the equation. With my classic and enduring (or so I’d like to believe) self-deprecating humor, I may share chips and dents with those I meet. But, do I lay the all the shattered pieces of my heart at God’s feet, not because I want to be invulnerable, but because I know He is the only one who can truly make me whole? Why do I hide my shattered heart from this invisible, silent, merciful God who loves me? He doesn’t seek for me to be shamed or embarrassed. Better yet, why do I keep thinking he can’t see it? Let’s pray this week for our hearts to be made absolutely invulnerable by making them absolutely vulnerable to God’s love and mercy.

HS YOUTH MINISTER OPPORTUNITY

St. Bruno and St. Paul Catholic Parishes have a unique opportunity for a High School Youth Minister with some previous youth ministry experience, to continue building on the collaborative ministry already established. These two parishes share a High School Youth Minister who will be responsible for faith-filled 9-12th grade instruction and the evangelization/outreach activities that support it such as retreats, mission trips, and youth group. This is a great opportunity to join a dynamic cross-parish formation team that includes an established core team of devoted volunteers at each of these parishes, all passionate about sharing Jesus Christ and forming disciples.

This position is full time with varied hours including evening and weekend work. JOIN ST. BRUNO BOOK CLUB

The next meeting of the Book Club is Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 9 AM in the St. Bruno Family Room.

We always welcome new members. You do not have to read the book, just come and enjoy the discussion, coffee and snacks! The book for September is........

Health Revelations from Heaven to Earth

by Tommy Rosa & Dr. Stephen Sinatra

BOOK CLUB
Welcome!

On August 20 & 21 is Welcome Weekend! We will have coffee & juice after all of the masses, along with cookies on Saturday and donuts on Sunday. This is also the weekend that we register New Parishioners and offer Blood Pressure Screening. We welcome everyone to take this opportunity to reconnect and socialize with each other.

Blest Art will be visiting St. Bruno’s August 20 & 21 on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land.

For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for those Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christian.

When Blest Art visits St. Bruno Parish, we will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. We kindly invite you to visit our display and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support the many families who depend on this form or art for their living. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families.

We gladly accept cash, checks, and all major credit cards. Please note that we do not accept, nor do we accept any donations.

Thank you in advance for your purchase when we come to visit.

Jeryes Qumseya and the members of Blest Art Inc.

P.S. If you will be out of town this weekend we visit St. Bruno, please drop by our Web site: www.BlestArt.org. You can order beautiful carvings to be shipped to you.

Support for families of loved ones with mental illness

The National Alliance on Mental Illness of Waukesha County is offering a free 6 week or 12 week course taught by trained family members who have lived with a loved one diagnosed with mental illness. The course offers education and support for family members and was developed for parents and caregivers of children and adolescents living with mental illness. The program provides information and strategies related to caregiving. It is designed to plan seeds of hope.

Contact NAMI Waukesha (Barb or Denise) at 262-409-2743.

Support for Seniors
(Volunteers are welcome too!)

The mission of Interfaith Senior Programs is to engage and support Waukesha County seniors in leading meaningful lives. Interfaith volunteers can be requested to drive you to healthcare appointments, pharmacies and grocery stores. If you live alone or are homebound and can’t easily visit with friends and family, we have a way to get you socializing! Have an administrative task that you need help with? Interfaith volunteers can help with that too. Interfaith volunteers can come to the client’s home to give a caregiver a break. Volunteers would also be happy to help if you need assistance with a minor home repair. Our volunteers can also mow the lawn, rake leaves, or shovel snow. SPARK! AIR is a program for caregivers and loved ones with beginning to mid-stage Alzheimer’s disease and other forms of dementia through the use of cultural programming made possible by an artist in residence program. Please see the Interfaith website for more information.

Heat Up Wisconsin Program

We need your help and that of your parish! We all know that many families are in a position to need a helping hand. In our economy, many people have lost jobs, are veterans, are disabled or ill, or are elders on a limited income. Although someone may own a home, they cannot always afford to replace an old, inefficient furnace which only adds to their burden by running up the energy bills.
If you know someone who is in need of a new furnace, please nominate them for the Lennox Heat UP Wisconsin Program. Dealers will install up to 100 Lennox furnaces completely free to the chosen recipients.

Nominations due by August 28, 2016. For more information, please visit www.heatupwisconsin.com.
