FROM PASTOR CHUCK

To be a Christian Steward: A Summary of the U.S. Bishop’s Pastoral Letter on Stewardship (section three)

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace” (1 Pt 4:10)

As Christian stewards, we receive God’s gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others and return them with increase to the Lord.

STEWARDS OF THE CHURCH

Stewards of God’s gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others.

We are also obliged to be stewards of the Church – collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church’s essential mission. This mission – proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying – is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church.

All members of the Church have their own roles to play in carrying out its mission:

♦ Parents who nurture their children in the light of faith;
♦ Parishioners, who work in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community;
♦ All Catholics, who give generous support – time, money, prayers, and personal service according to their circumstances – to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church.

VISITING THE SICK

It is a great and noble tradition of the Church for loved ones to bring Communion to the sick or shut-in. It is a reminder to us that:

“If one member suffers in the Body of Christ, which is the Church, all the members suffer with that member (1 Corinthians 12:26). For this reason, kindness shown toward the sick and works of charity and mutual help for the relief of every kind of human want are held in special honor”

It is especially fitting that all baptized Christians share in this ministry of mutual charity within the Body of Christ by doing all they can to help the sick return to health, by showing love for the sick, and by celebrating the sacraments with them.

The obligation to visit and comfort those who cannot take part in the Eucharistic assembly may be clearly demonstrated by taking communion to them from the community’s Eucharistic celebration.

When the Eucharist is brought to the sick, it should be carried in a pyx. (A pyx is a small container in which one can carry the consecrated host, to the sick or those otherwise unable to come to church in order to receive Holy Communion.)

If you have need of a pyx to bring someone communion, we have pyxes available for you to borrow (and a card with prayers). They can be found in a basket on the gift table. Please feel free to take a pyx and use it as you need. Simply bring it with you to communion, have it open, and present it to the minister who will place a host in the pyx. When you no longer have need of the pyx, please return it to the basket.

When taking the Eucharist to the sick or shut-in take only what you need for that day’s visit. Be mindful that you carry the Blessed Sacrament with you. Be sure to treat it with the respect and reverence that is due it.

Know, also, that when you bring the Eucharist to your loved you, you are also bringing the prayers of the entire community with you. Please, also, remember that you can write the name of your loved one in the Needs of the People Book/Parish Book of Intentions. These prayers are lifted up at the Masses celebrated each day.

Thank you for your ministry to those who are unable to be with us during out weekend celebration.

COMBINED COLLECTION WEEKEND

Combined Collection begins this weekend. This collection, as in the past, consists of five separate appeals:

+ World Mission (Propagation of the Faith)
+ Bishop’s Overseas Appeal (Catholic Relief)
+ Peter’s Pence (Holy Father’s Appeal)
+ The Church in Central and Eastern Europe
+ Catholic Home Mission

Most members of St. Bruno Parish have already received an appeal letter, a brochure, a giving card and a return envelope directly from Archbishop Listecki regarding this year’s Fall Combined Collection for the Church in Mission. Instead of having five separate collections, the Archdiocese simplifies things by having five appeals in one collection. You may designate how much you want to give to each cause on the giving card, or you can give one “large” lump sum which will be divided evenly among the causes. You also have the choice of mailing your gift directly to the Archdiocese or you can drop your giving card and envelope into the collection at Mass.

Make all checks payable to: “The Church in Mission: Combined Collection” NOT to St Bruno Parish.

Please be generous in financially supporting these critical, life-giving apostolates in the Church. Be a participant in the broader mission of the Church. Remember to pray for the evangelization efforts that are going on through educators, missionaries, the bishops, and the Holy Father.

God reward you. Thank you for your generosity.

cS. Lewis, in his book Mere Christianity, said, “If you want to get warm, you must stand near the fire, if you want to be wet you must get into the water. If you want joy, power, peace, eternal life, you must get close to, or even into, the thing that has them.”

To be in relationship with Christ, to lead others to a relationship with Christ, we must, as C.S. Lewis says, get closer to Him. ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today’s Gospel we hear that only one of those healed returned to glorify God and to give thanks to God. It is true, that when we have a grateful heart we know that everything is a gift from God.

To give thanks for all that God has given to you, have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?
