For millions of Christians around the world, March 1st this year marks the beginning of Lent, the annual season of almsgiving, self-examination and repentance. Lent prepares us for the great feast of Easter. The fasting and acts of self-denial most of us make during Lent in food, drink and entertainment reflect a key truth about our faith. Christianity is incarnational. God’s word became flesh in the person of Jesus Christ. His death on the cross and his resurrection from the grave remind us that each human being — body and soul — was made by God, redeemed by Christ and destined for eternal life.

For Catholics, Lent is a time when God invites all of us to enter into a deeper relationship with himself. Lent is our pilgrimage to Calvary, and beyond that, to Easter and abundant life. Jesus came to save us; to show us that our lives have meaning; that God loves us; that despite all our sins, no matter how dark, he treasures us as his sons and daughters; that suffering has a purpose; that each person no matter how infirm or disabled has dignity; and that death is never the end of who we are.

All of us live much of our daily lives with an interior struggle. On the one hand, each of us is born with an ache for “something more.” We all have a natural longing for happiness, but we can’t be happy alone. We were made for wholeness, for friendship with one another, and for communion with our Creator. This is what Augustine means in his words from the Confessions: “Our hearts are restless, (God,) until they rest in thee.” Like Augustine, our hearts are restless for the joy which only friendship with God through Jesus Christ can bring.

Lent is not a time to revile ourselves. After all, what God loves, we hardly have the right to hate. But the fasting, prayer and repentance of the season do have a very important purpose: they help us to clear our soul of debris. They cut away the selfishness that obstructs our view of God and blocks his light from us. As Scripture says, in denying ourselves we find ourselves — because we’re incomplete and restless, we’re not fully ourselves, without God.

Lent is an invitation to dethrone the distractions that keep our hearts restless and empty. If we make room for the real King, he’ll do much more than fill the space. He’ll make us what he intended us to be: saints. So let’s live this Lent not as a burden, but as an adventure, a joy, a way of refocusing ourselves on the one thing that really matters eternally — friendship with God. For each of us, there’s no better place to begin or renew that friendship than in the confessional. God’s love for his people is the one love that does not and cannot fail.

God Bless,
Fr. Dan

It is a lesson that we all need—to let alone the things that do not concern us. He has other ways for others to follow him; all do not go by the same path.
—St. Katharine Drexel
LENTEN FAST & ABSTINENCE REGULATIONS
The Catholic church asks each member to preserve the penitential character and purpose of Lent. For this reason:
A) Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and each Friday of Lent;
B) Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, in addition to abstaining from meat, should fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Hence, on those days they should eat only one full meal. Smaller quantities of food may be taken at two other meals, but no food should be consumed at other times during those days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allow. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one’s 59th birthday.
Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

STARTS MARCH 1
The first reading on the 1% Challenge card is from Matthew 16:13-17. Jesus asks “Who do you say that I am?” What a great question to start off our Lenten encounter with Jesus! If He were sitting with me, right now, and He asked me this question, how would I answer? I can say I know He died on the cross to save all our sins, I know He performed miracles and taught people about the love of God during His time on earth. These are things I know about Jesus. I also know about St. Bruno from studying his life, I know about St. Paul from hearing his writings in the letters to the faithful of Corinth and Ephesus, etc. I can say much more about who my best friend is, or my spouse, or my favorite aunt because of all the time I’ve spent with them sitting, listening, and talking. Use the 1% Challenge every day (except Sundays). Sit with Jesus for 15 minutes, read the scripture passage a few times, listen for what He is trying to tell you that day, conclude with asking for what you need and what others need. By doing this, you are getting to know Him better, just as you would if you sat, listened, and talked to a friend for 15 minutes each day. At the end of Lent, you will be able to answer Jesus’s question in a much deeper way because you took the time to get to know Him better.

Thursday, 3/2: Stand on the shore as a bystander and witness the baptism of Jesus.
Friday, 3/3: Jesus offers living water – reflect on how He interacted with the woman.
Saturday, 3/4: What could happen in your life if you put out into the deep as the fishermen did?
More 1% Challenge cards can be found in the Gathering Place.

CHALLENGE YOURSELF THIS LENT—JOIN A SMALL GROUP!
Challenge yourself to try out a small group for 5 weeks during Lent. No experience necessary! Get together with others to sit with Jesus, read and discuss Scripture or a book or a video, and pray together for those who need prayer. Small groups can be a wonderful opportunity to deepen your relationship with Jesus and strengthen the bonds of our parish community. Sign up on the bulletin board in the Gathering Place. Several leaders are available to form groups based on interest, so if you don’t see a time/opportunity that works for you, let us know on the SIGN UP BOARD in the Gathering Place.
