Registration forms have been mailed to all families currently enrolled in Faith Formation classes. If you did not receive this mailing, forms can be found on the parish website, on the kiosk in the Gathering Place, or in the Faith Formation office. We ask that you register by August 1 to help us in our planning for materials and supplies. We are currently looking for catechists (teachers) and aides to help with our Sunday classes. PARENTING POINTER

If one listens to the news a lot it can feel like terror on every side. Our children are not immune to this fear. Talk with your child about their fears. Listening and posing solutions can help you both move toward the goal of - "Do not be afraid." (Mt. 10:31)
What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The first Native American to be recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church is St. Kateri Tekakwitha. She is informally known as the:

- a) Rose of the Mohawks
- b) Cosmos of the Mohawks
- c) Lily of the Mohawks
- d) Daisy of the Mohawks

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer: Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this conversation among the readings, enabling us to zero in on what this unique combination of God’s word has to say to us this particular Sunday.

Next time you attend Sunday liturgy, try reading the Scripture ahead of time and see how this new relationship among the readings addresses and challenges you to be a better Christian here and now.

Help for New Parents

Catholic Charities’ Pregnancy and Parenting Supportive Services program was awarded a grant through the Aurora Better Together Fund to offer in-home therapy for moms and dads who are expecting a child or have an infant in their home. The therapist assists clients who have a mental health diagnosis or those who may be struggling with postpartum depression. The therapist works alongside the home visiting team that offers in-home education and support.

Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680) was called the Lily of the Mohawks in recognition of her kindness, prayer, faith and suffering. She was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012. We celebrate her feast on July 14 in the USA and April 17 in Canada.

Sharing the Gospel

When you are tired and upset, go to God. Talk things over with him. Tell him the whole story. God is a good listener. He has a gentle heart. He will say to you, "I love you. I forgive you." Then snuggle up with your favorite blanket and take a nap. When you wake up, you will feel much better. Then you will share your love by saying, "May I help you?"

Prayer

Lord Jesus, fill me with love for my family,

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Jesus tells us, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” These words may seem a bit contradictory at first given how hard it can often be to be a disciple and live as Jesus taught. While the Gospel can be difficult, it is never a burden. On another occasion Jesus says of his Father, "It is mercy I desire, not sacrifice." God desires our hearts and when we give him our hearts we become free. We become free of ourselves and discover the joy that comes from serving God and others. We can easily get very rigid in terms of our faith, think that we know better, and place expectations on others that can be more of a burden than a source of new life. Are we willing to be open and learn from Jesus?
