MISSION SUNDAY GUEST

The Congregation of the Holy Spirit (Spiritans) is an international Religious Congregation working in 65 countries dedicated in serving the poor and underprivileged anywhere the church will call upon them. Fr. Francis Tandoh is a member of the Congregation from Ghana, West Africa. He worked in the missionary area of the Gambia. He is currently ministering in three parishes in Dayton under the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. He will speak to us about his mission work and vocations in Africa. The proceeds from the appeals will go to help the missionary work of the Spiritans working in difficult war-torn areas like Congo and for the training of over 80 seminarians, in the Holy Ghost seminary in Ghana and Nigeria. The Holy Ghost Fathers are devoted in working with the less advantage people.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:
The Congregation of the Holy Spirit, popular known as the Holy Ghost Fathers or Spiritans, is an International Missionary Society. The Holy Ghost Fathers (Spiritans) was founded in France in 1703, by Claude Poullart De Places. It was given its present world wide missionary thrust in 1848 by Venerable Francis Libermann who was also French and a convert from Judaism.

This Congregation was established to work with the disadvantage, needy and the abandoned. We work in difficult places where the Church finds it difficult to get personnel to work.

The late Pope John Paul II, on his pilgrimage to Africa repeatedly stressed the need for Africans to be missionaries, “not only in their own countries, but outside, and, in particular, to other African countries.” The Missionary Congregation of the Holy Spirit has undertaken this task, more than 2000 Africans are in formation with about 1000 members on active missionary service. Several missionary provinces has emerged, the Spiritan Province of Nigeria, Angola and Kenya, Tanzania, Kogi and to mention a few.

In 1978, the West African Foundation was formed to accept candidates from Senegal, the Gambia, Sierra Leone, Liberia, and Ghana, which became a province in 2000. Her first members were ordained in 1986. They were four members. Since then, we have ordained more than 200 others. In 2009 the West Africa Province was grouped into three circumscriptions, the Province of Ghana, Gambia Foundation and the Foundation of Sierra Leone, because of the growth in numbers. Right now, the Province of Ghana has her members working in mission areas like Guinea in West Africa, attending to the needs of the refugees from Sierra-Leone. In Malawi, members are working with the abandoned, like the (A.I.D.S.) patients. In the Gambia, members evangelize by bearing witness to the Muslim community, and trying to restore the image of the female population they relegate in a male dominated culture. Spiritans are presently working in Sierra-Leone, Liberia, Northern Nigeria, Northern Ghana, and Benin and recently in Taiwan (Asia).

The Province of Ghana has its headquarters in Ghana. The Novitiate is in Sierra Leone and Philosophy house is in Ghana that now has about 77 students. The Theology house is in Nigeria, West Africa. Our cost for maintaining and caring for a student which includes food, medical, clothing and tuition is approximately $5,000.00 per annum.

The Congregation of the Holy Spirit has about three thousand members working in all continents in sixty-five countries of the world.

RELEVANTS:

The Theology house is in Nigeria, West Africa. Our cost for maintaining and caring for a student which includes food, medical, clothing and tuition is approximately $5,000.00 per annum.

The BIG WINNER in all of this is our own St. Bruno Parish, but you can win too!

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: My coworkers and I have been debating the death penalty and whether or not it should be part of our justice system. Why are so many people who claim to be pro-life believers in favor of it?

Answer The issues of crime and punishment are never easy because so many factors influence people and how they view problems and solutions. Increased violence, loss of life, cost to taxpayers and the community at large, and the maneuverings of lawyers and courts only add fuel to the fire. When bad things happen in your neighborhood or to your home or to you, you want lawyers and courts only add fuel to the fire. When bad things happen in your neighborhood or to your home or to you, you want relief. Any normal person would feel that way. A pro-life view does not insulate anyone from the bad effects of criminal behavior. Innocent people are hurt every day and it may seem as though those who cause the pain get away with it, or get off easy.

The death penalty is not excluded by Church teaching. The state has the right to impose penalties that are commensurate with the crime as well as to defend itself from further harm (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §2266). When possible, punishment should help correct the offender, offering a chance of redemption, which is why the pope and bishops have called for an end to the death penalty. For more information, visit the Human Life and Dignity section of the USCCB’s website (www.usccb.org).

St. Vincent De Paul

The home visit is the basic, most fundamental activity of the Vincentian ministry. Rather than have people come to us, we go to the homes of those in need.
We speak with the person needing help during the friendly visit to find out the nature of the problem as well as to learn more about their other needs. We also want an environment where the person feels relaxed and unthreatened. Their own home is the best place for this to happen.
Whatever the person shares with us remains confidential between the Vincentian conference and the person. A home visit is always done by a minimum of two Vincentians, never alone. This provides multiple viewpoints and suggestions on the resolution of problems. We listen to the person or family, getting their perspective on the problem and its resolution. When we are able, we try to meet the immediate need first and then try to develop a longer term plan with the needy.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids
Maybe you have heard that actions speak louder than words. It means that the things you do are more important than the things you say. Show kindness to others. Trust God. He wants what is best for you, so find out how to work for God. Then do what he asks.

Prayer
God, I want to show you that I love you.

Mission for the Week
Show kindness to a friend. Help someone pick up a mess they made, just because you love Jesus.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week
Saying and doing are two very different things. Often, we say we are going to do the right thing but then we do not. We get distracted by a self-focused concern, apathy, fear, and a number of other excuses. The choice to act with virtue is always before us. The ability to choose is one of God’s gifts. Fully living the Gospel means that we choose to “practice what we preach.” Faith without action serves no purpose.
