Everyday Stewardship

"Get Together" was a popular song in 1967 by the Youngbloods. I was not alive when the song was released, but it was a song I played frequently learning how to play guitar when I was younger. The song called for all of us to come together and "try to love one another right now." It was a song that came out in the Vietnam War era and during somewhat of a hippie revolution, but perhaps the words belong to no real moment in time. They are simply the commands of Jesus.

Sometimes we minimize the power of love by cute pop songs and slogans that mean little without action. However, we can never underestimate the power of love. Love can tear down barriers between people, change tears to laughter, and mend relationships torn apart by sin.

No option exists for disciples of Jesus Christ to not love others. Not only are we commanded to do so, but love is a gift we must pass on freely. If we give of our time, talent, and treasure, but choose not to love, we cannot claim to be truly committed disciples and good stewards. As this Easter season draws ever closer to an end, we must allow our love to bear witness to the source of all love, the Risen Jesus. This is our calling until, as the words of the Youngbloods' song states, "the one who led us here returns for us at last."

FAITH FORMATION

( Doesn’t End at Confirmation)
First Communion Weekend!
THANK YOU for celebrating First Communion with us this weekend. What a special sacrament for the 15 St. Bruno children and their families. We are all a part of the wonderful St. Bruno family and the greater community of Catholics.

Alpha: "Tremendous JOY"
That's what one of the Alpha guests had to say about the Alpha course that just ended. Watch the bulletin/website for the fall dates/times/locations so you can experience what others before you have: "lifts you up to the next level of the spiritual journey", "developed a deeper relationship with God", “Come home to the Church”, "builds community". COME AND SEE!

CINCO DE MAYO commemorates the Mexican Army’s unlikely victory over Spain on May 5, 1862. It is often mistaken for the Mexican Day of Independence. In 1810, Mexico was seeking independence after being enslaved for 300 years. The man who led the Mexican War for independence was a Catholic priest, Father Hidalgo. He rallied the people with a speech known as El Grito de Dolores at the church.

When is Mexican Independence Day?

a) May 16
b) July 16
c) September 16
d) November 16

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: What are the fruits of the Holy Spirit?

Answer: St. Paul first enumerates these in the Letter to the Galatians. There are twelve of them. They are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. He explains in chapter 5 the proper use of freedom. The Galatians were divided within the community and the result is a litany of vice and corruption. The law of love had been set aside and in its place greed, selfishness, division, and other diseases of the spirit are given free reign. These are the evils that enslave us, denying us the basic freedom we need to live our faith. Freedom is not a license to give in to the baser drives of our being, but rather an ability to choose the higher gifts and the life of faith. It is not a freedom from, but rather a freedom for. We are freed from the slavery of sin for the life of faith. The virtues St. Paul lists are the very ones that we often associate with saints, who live these virtues in extraordinary ways in very ordinary lives. The fruits of the Spirit are the way we measure our growth in holiness and in faith.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the fruits of the Holy Spirit as perfections that the Spirit forms in us as “the first fruits of eternal glory” (#1832). In other words, these are the virtues that are the result of living our faith and bringing it to perfection.

Bereavement Support Group Sessions

St. Bruno’s Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, June 5 through July 24, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the death of a loved one? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone may not heal your grief. It’s what you do with your time that can make a big difference.

St. Bruno’s Circle of Life will host a series of grief support sessions on Tuesdays beginning June 5 through July 24, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Everyone is welcome! To register or more information, call St. Bruno Parish Office, 262-965-2332 or Peggy Knepprath, 262-424-4567.

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is : c
His role as the priest in Hidalgo and his popularity with the people led Father Miguel to the idea of revolting against the Spanish in favor of a more “equitable” society. He rang the church bell and gave the call to arms, Grito de Dolores.

St. Vincent de Paul

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us,
“This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you...You are my friends if you do what I command you.”
By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you fulfill the commandment to love one another as Jesus has loved you.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids

Jesus loves you as much as his Father loves him.
He wants you to love
your family and friends
as much as he loves you.
You are his friend. He wants to spend time with you. Spend time praying to Jesus every day. Tell him that you love him. Share your food, toys, and clothing. Help your family and friends every day. Tell Jesus you do all good things in his name.

Prayer
Jesus, help me love my neighbor as much as you love me.

Mission for the Week
I will love my family and friends as much as Jesus loves me.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week
"Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love." So many people hunger for love. All of us desire to be immanently connected with others, God, and our world. Many things can work against this and cause us to feel alienated and even profoundly sad. Pope Francis tells us that our “infinite sadness can only be cured
by an infinite love.” We have been touched by God’s love. We are called to bring that love to others so that their sadness and wounds can be healed. We must do this even for those we do not particularly like or who have hurt us. We cannot let anything stand in the way of love.
