Jesus said to his disciples: “When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me.”
- Jn 15:26
Weekly Message

PENTECOST

What did Mary do? She said “yes” to the Holy Spirit. And in that “yes,” the Holy Spirit filled her with new life. The Early Church called Mary, Theotokos, which is Greek for “God-bearer.” She allowed her Creator to act in her and accomplish great things through her. In giving birth to God’s son, Mary gave new life to the whole world. We’re called to follow her example, each of us in his or her own way. Hearing the Gospel isn’t enough. Talking about our faith isn’t enough. We have to do something about it. Each of us, in a personal way, needs to be a kind of Theotokos, a God-bearer. The seed of faith has to bear fruit in a life of Christian action.

This is why this Pentecost celebration is so important. Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. Pentecost is our birthday as a believing people. The Church, like Mary, is about new life. The Holy Spirit filled Mary with new life at the Annunciation, and Mary gave birth to Jesus. The Holy Spirit filled the Apostles with new life at Pentecost, and they immediately gave birth to a new era through their preaching and example.

God relentlessly creates new life through each of us - if we allow Him to. We’re meant to be fertile. We’re meant to bring others to new life in Jesus Christ. The “Acts of the Apostles” should continue today in the witness of our own lives.

Pope John Paul II explained Pentecost in the following way in his Papal Letter on the occasion of the Millennium. Pentecost is not just the birthday of the Church. It’s also the feast day of the Holy Spirit, who set the Apostles on fire with zeal in the Upper Room and who opened the minds in the crowd which first heard them preach . . . and who has guided and renewed the life of the Church for 2,000 years. We can only celebrate this Great Jubilee because the Holy Spirit first conceived Jesus in the womb of Mary. We can only celebrate the Great Jubilee because the Holy Spirit has never stopped sustaining the mission of the Church. Furthermore, just as He strengthened and encouraged the first Apostles, so too He will strengthen and encourage each of us – if we let Him.

Alpha: "INSPIRATIONAL"

Watch the bulletin for dates/times for our next Alpha course this fall. The small groups really were inspirational – having people share their faith journeys, their questions and struggles, and their insights was so wonderful. People in the last session commented: “Alpha is so ecumenical” “It’s a comfort that other people have similar concerns.” “People are all at different places in their spiritual journey and that is ok.” “Come home to church.” COME AND SEE!

RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

MAY 20, 2018
What Is Your Catholic IQ?

On May 25, we celebrate the feast of St. Mary Magdalene de’ Pazzi (1566-1607). She was an Italian Carmelite nun who suffered illnesses most of her life. When asked how she could bear so much pain without a murmur, where did she point?

a) at a crucifix
b) at the holy water
c) at the altar
d) at her prayer book.

Why do we do that? Catholic Traditions Explained

Question: How do we know when we receive the Holy Spirit?
Answer: My brothers and I discovered something as we got older. There’s a little bit of Dad in us. Each time we catch ourselves using one of his gestures, expressions, or comments about a meal, we say, “I’m getting more like Dad!” Many laughs and good-natured kidding have come out of it. Mom loves it, and so does Dad, although I doubt he’d admit it!

When we are confirmed, we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. There is no radical change in us that makes us seem suddenly different. Over a period of time, we come to see that there is a little bit of the Spirit in us. We catch ourselves using the gifts, and often end up wondering where a bit of wisdom came from, or why we were so patient or we feel an intensity in our prayer. Perhaps we felt drawn to deepen our spiritual life or found courage in witnessing to our faith. That’s when we know we have received the Holy Spirit. We take on his image. Yes, we grow in age, grace, and wisdom, but we also grow in our awareness and understanding of the working of God in our life. We become more godlike, realizing we’re getting more and more like God. Our thoughts, words, and actions carry that quality and others, too, see it in us. You might call it holiness. But be confident! There’s a little bit of him in all of us.

Bereavement Support Group Sessions

St. Bruno’s Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, June 5 through July 24, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Grieving is very hard work and time alone will not heal your grief; it’s what you do with your time that can make a big difference. These sessions will use Alan Wolfelt’s book, Understanding Your Grief: Ten Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and Healing Your Heart.

Dr. Wolfelt uses a “companionship” model of bereavement which emphasizes the spiritual, soul-based nature of the grief journey. Anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago is welcome to join. Everyone is welcome! Come to as many as you like.

If you want more information, call the Parish Office, 262-965-2332 or Peggy Kneprath, 262-424-4567.

What is Your Catholic IQ?
The answer is: a Mary pointed to the crucifix and said “those who call to mind the sufferings of Christ, and who offer up their own to God...find their pains sweet and pleasant.” She is the patron for sick people as well as the co-patron of Naples, Italy.

St. Vincent de Paul

Pentecost

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God’s presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor box will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God’s love for them.

Sharing the Gospel

For the Kids

Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have guides to lead them on hikes. The Holy Spirit is your guide on your way to heaven. The Holy Spirit will help you know about Jesus Christ and his love for you. The Spirit will lead you to peace with others and teach you new things. The Holy Spirit will help you when you are in trouble. The Holy Spirit will guide you to everlasting love and joy.

Prayer

Holy Spirit, guide me to the kingdom of heaven.

Mission for the Week

I will ask the Holy Spirit to give me love, peace, forgiveness, and joy.

St. Bruno Book Club

Next meeting of the Book Club
Tues., June 12th at 9 a.m. St. Bruno Family Room. The book for May is: Putin Country: A Journey in the Real Russia by Anne Garrels

In Putin Country, Garrels crafts an intimate portrait of Middle Russia. We meet upwardly mobile professionals, impassioned activists who champion the rights of orphans and disabled children, and ostentatious mafiosi.
