‘Amazing Grace’ and the task of living our faith more deeply

“Amazing grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me. I once was lost, but now am found; was blind, but now I see."

Whether Catholic, Orthodox or Protestant, nearly every American Christian knows John Newton’s beautiful hymn, “Amazing Grace.” Believers have sung it for more than 200 years. Its words and melody speak to one of the deepest instincts of the human heart: the need for deliverance. Like St. Augustine before him, Newton discovered that “our hearts are restless until they rest in (God).”

A former slave trader, Newton converted to Christianity during a storm on the Atlantic. He later became one of the leading Christian evangelizers of his day in England as an Anglican priest. But he never forgot his role in the slave trade. He spent the rest of his life repenting for it and preaching against it. He understood from direct experience that real personal conversion must have broader consequences. If we claim to love God, then we need to prove it with our actions. Slavery, Newton saw, violated human dignity in a profound way.

Newton did more than write a memorable hymn, however. His life had a huge impact on others — among them the son of a wealthy merchant named William Wilberforce. Like Newton, Wilberforce underwent his own Christian conversion. He took Newton’s anti-slavery message into Parliament in 1789, where he became the leading voice against slavery for the next 18 years. Largely because of Wilberforce, England abolished the slave trade throughout its empire in 1807 — the same year Newton died.

Last year, the story of William Wilberforce and John Newton opened in theaters throughout the United States in the new film by Walden Media, “Amazing Grace.” It’s a compelling movie; a beautifully written, acted and directed portrait of a man — Wilberforce — on fire with his faith and its consequences. Inspired by Newton, Wilberforce literally reshaped the conscience of the modern world. Walden Media is the same company that brought the wonderful “Chronicles of Narnia” to the screen in 2005. It’s easy to recommend a film like “Amazing Grace” because the story is so powerful and so very well done. But it’s also an ideal source of personal reflection as we begin our own journey of Lent.

As long as we have breath, God offers us the chance for repentance and conversion, and through them, a path to eternal life in Jesus Christ. St. Paul, St. Augustine and St. Ignatius all took that path. So did William Wilberforce and a self-described former slaver and “wretch” like John Newton. In fact, every Christian man or woman who takes the Gospel seriously must walk the same road.

PRAYERS

Prayer for Travelers & Vacationers

God of all travelers:
Send us an angel to keep us
Safe wherever we go.
Grant us summertime refreshment,
as you once sent ravens to refresh your holy prophet Elijah.
Like Ruth and Naomi, keep us
devoted to one another.
Like Abraham and Sarah,
may we be gracious to guests
and hospitable to strangers.
Bless us on our journeys,
bless the people we meet,
and bless our returning home,
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

There is a website called masstimes.org where you can find churches and mass times when traveling.

PRAYER WALL

We all have many needs and things to pray for in our lives, great and small, so, therefore, you are encouraged to write out prayer petitions and place them in the wall at any time. We encourage you to also take another’s petition home with you and pray for it. It is our hope that this will become a perpetual prayer wall and a place where you can leave your prayer requests and prayerfully support the needs of others in our community.
Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: Why do we celebrate the Hearts of Jesus in the month of June?

Answer: Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an ancient practice. We can see its Scriptural origins in Jesus’ own references to His Heart. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest? for I am meek and humble of heart” (c.f. Matthew 11:28, 29).

The devotion received a surge of popularity in the late 1600s. Jesus appeared several times to a French religious sister, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, pointing to his heart. During this time, the Jansenist heresy had risen in France, which preached limited predestination for salvation. When appearing to Margaret Mary, Jesus affirmed his love for all mankind: “Behold the Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing.” He asked for a special feast celebrating his Sacred Heart on the Friday following the feast of Corpus Christi. Over time, June has become known as the month of Sacred Heart.

Bereavement Support Group Sessions

St. Bruno’s Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, NOW through July 24, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Grieving is very hard work and time alone will not heal your grief; it’s what you do with your time that can make a big difference. These sessions will use Alan Wolfelt’s book, Understanding Your Grief: Ten Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and Healing Your Heart. Dr. Wolfelt uses a “companionship” model of bereavement which emphasizes the spiritual, soul-based nature of the grief journey. Anyone who has had a loved one die recently or some time ago is welcome to join. Everyone is welcome! Come to as many as you like. If you want more information, call the Parish Office, 262-965-2332 or Peggy Knepprath, 262-424-4567.

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

St. Anthony of Padua is remembered on June 13. He was born in Lisbon, Portugal in 1195 and died in Padua, Italy in 1231. He was a Catholic priest and friar of the Franciscan Order. One of many stories about Anthony: he had a book of psalms that was very important to him because it had notes he made to use teaching students in the Franciscan Order. One of the novices decided to leave the Order and took the psalter. Anthony prayed and both the novice and the book returned. He is the patron saint for:

- a) lost things
- b) Vocations
- c) travelers
- d) writing

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, Jesus looking around those seated in the circle said, “Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

Through your almsgiving you are indeed doing the will of God and your gift placed in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box indeed brings Christ’s love and compassion to the poor.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

For the Kids

Someone in our family may have a hard time forgiving. However, God can handle it. God’s love is bigger than any one person. He is stronger than the biggest evil. Say, “God, I am sorry that I did wrong. Will you forgive me?” God will forgive you and will help your brother or sister forgive you too. God will also fill you with the Holy Spirit so that you can learn to forgive.

Prayer

Holy Spirit, keep me away from evil words and actions.

Mission for the Week

I will talk about the good things the Holy Spirit does for me.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand. Is the kingdom of your soul divided? We are often confronted with choices that appear to be good but in essence are not. We struggle with choosing good over evil and right from wrong. Conflicts often exist within, and we walk through life with a divided heart. We realize what is needed to live with God but find ourselves doing the exact opposite. As we gather with our brothers and sisters and seek God’s gift of Christ in the Eucharist, may we not only be united with one another in faith but united with God within. All conflicts and divisions can cease, and we can act with a focused, strong, and determined heart.

ST. BRUNO BOOK CLUB

Next meeting of the Book Club Tues., June 12th at 9 a.m. St. Bruno Family Room. The book for MAY is: Putin Country: A Journey in the Real Russia by Anne Garrels

In Putin Country, Garrels crafts an intimate portrait of Middle Russia. We meet upwardly mobile professionals, impassioned activists who champion the rights of orphans and disabled children, and ostentatious mafiosi.

ST. PAUL MASS SCHEDULE:

Saturday: 5:30 p.m.

Sunday: 9:00 a.m.

Weekdays:

Tuesday & Friday 8:00 a.m.

Reconciliation: 2nd & 4th Saturday 10:00 a.m. or by appointment
