16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. - Mk. 6:31b-32
GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Now what?" It's a difficult thing to hear, isn't it? The train comes late, a child unexpectedly cries, and the latest public policy debate flares up in the news. Life throws us curveballs, and we have no choice but to adapt. Jesus and the Apostles find themselves in that exact situation in today's Gospel.

The Apostles have returned from their two-by-two missionary journey. As Jesus hears all of their stories, he knows they need time to recover and refresh. "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Their wilderness retreat is short-lived, however, as eager crowds discover their location. Jesus is well aware of the needs of his disciples. Still, as he looks out at the crowd, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." The rest break is over. "He began to teach them many things."

For those of us who have experienced a taste of much-needed relaxation only to have it taken away abruptly, perhaps we surmise what the Apostles might have been feeling in that moment. But Jesus isn't being inconsiderate of the Apostles needs. He offers them - and us - a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a lived lesson."

really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we are part of non-human ancestry. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary’s parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

James’ infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary’s parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

Long before Grandparents’ Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior’s human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation -- God becoming human!

Why do we do that?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Answer: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story?

Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus’ life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

So where do we get their names? The name Joachim comes from the Greek Jesus. The name Anna is the Greek form of the Hebrew name Hannah which means grace. Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. However, they are part of non-human ancestry. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation -- God becoming human!

After School Care Job Opening

St. Bruno Parish School is looking for an adult to staff the After School Care Program. The hours would be 3:30 PM - 6:00 PM, Monday-Friday. This is a paid position. For more details, contact Mary MacDonald at mary.macdonald@stbrunoparishschool.com or 262-965-2291.

NOW ENROLLING!

St. Bruno Parish School offers grades 3K-8th. Please contact the school office for a tour or more information about what our parish school offers. We are enrolling for the 2018-2019 school year and spots are filling fast. We offer small class sizes and a faith-based education!

Registration Open

Registrations for the 2018-19 Faith Formation programs. Registration information can also be found on the parish website, along with the class schedule. You can register by paper form and send it with payment to St. Bruno OR you can register and pay online through the “We Share” program (found on our Parish website www.stbrunoparish.com)

New this year, High School Faith Formation registration will be all done online through the FACTS system. You can find instructions on the parish website. If you have children in both child & high school programs,

Many people identify with saints due to their connection with difficult health conditions. In this category would be saints like Peregrine, the patron of those who suffer with cancer and Lucy, the patron saint of those with eye conditions. St. Dymphna is the patron saint of those who struggle with:

- Indigestion
- Mental Illness
- Muscle Dysfunction
- Heart Disease

Alpha is coming!

"Why am I here? Is there more to life than this?" Alpha offers the opportunity to investigate those questions through food, fellowship, a talk, and discussion with others searching for the answers just like you. Come and see this fall. Watch the bulletin and parish website for more information. In the meantime, here’s what a few Alpha guests had to say about their experience:

People are at different places on their spiritual journey. It’s a comfort that other people have similar concerns. Learn what other people feel about their faith.

Liturgical Prayer
ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God’s love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box.

Sharing the Gospel For the Kids
Have you ever just wanted to be alone for a while? Jesus and his disciples knew what that felt like. They wanted to be alone to talk and rest, but crowds of people were surrounding them. Even when Jesus and his disciples tried to slip away unnoticed, people followed them anyway. They arrived only to find more crowds of people. This was certainly not the quiet time they had planned on. Being patient and kind, Jesus gave up what he wanted, and he began to teach the crowds.

Prayer
Dear God, thank you that Jesus gave up what he wanted, just so he could help other people. Help me to follow his example. Amen.

Mission for the Week
Spend some alone time with Jesus tonight. If you get interrupted because someone else needs help, that’s okay. Go help, and then come back to your alone time with Jesus.

St. Paul Mass Schedule:
Saturday: 5:30 p.m.
Sunday: 9:00 a.m.
Weekdays:
Tuesday & Friday 8:00 a.m.
Reconciliation: 2nd & 4th Saturday 10:00 a.m. or by appointment

St. Bruno Book Club
Next meeting of the Book Club Tues., Aug 14th at 9 a.m. St. Bruno Family Room. The book for JUNE is: Thief by Markus Zusak
It is 1939, Nazi Germany. With the help of her foster father, Liesel learns to read and shares her stolen books with her neighbors during bombing raids.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week
The many images we have of God help frame our relationship with Him. Have we ever imagined Jesus so deeply moved with emotion and engulfed with pity for us? We often are sheep without a shepherd who are lured by the emptiness of worldly attractions and superficial desires. We become lost. God, in the depth of His being, is deeply moved by our pain, loneliness, and heartache. God does not judge or condemn. He loves and is mercy itself. He knows firsthand the pain that comes with being lost and alone and desires to teach us about His merciful love. Do we want to be taught? Listen to God’s word and be open to God’s presence in the Eucharist.

July 22, 2018
The St. Bruno Prayer Shawl Ministry will be 10 years old on July 24. One of the parish’s most active ministries, it has met weekly, year round since its inception, and crafted almost 1000 prayer shawls that are offered to those struggling with the loss of a loved one, those facing serious illness, or some other devastating event. A card enclosed with each shawl carries the opening message "May this prayer shawl enfold you in warmth, comfort, healing and peace", and concludes "This prayer shawl was made just for you with our love and prayers. St. Bruno's Prayer Shawl Ministry." You do not have to be a member of St. Bruno to receive a shawl, as they are freely offered to individuals outside our community. They have received many heart-felt notes of appreciation from recipients of these shawls.

They have also created baby blankets that are given at baptisms, hundreds of hats and mittens that have been taken to St. Ben's by Deacon Joe and baby booties sent to Life's Connection. Please contact Yvonne Hickey at jonvon@execpc.com or (262)443-7934 for more information.
