Living the Gospel, Part 1

In the earliest days of the Christian movement, when both Jews and Greeks looked upon the nascent faith as either scandalous or irrational, it was the moral goodness of the followers of Jesus that brought many to belief. The Church father Tertullian conveyed the wondering pagan reaction to the early Church in his famous adage: “How these Christians love one another!”

At a time when the exposure of malformed infants was commonplace, when the poor and the sick were often left to their own devices, and when murderous revenge was a matter of course, the early Christians cared for unwanted babies, gave succor to the sick and the dying, and endeavored to forgive the persecutors of the faith. And this goodness extended, not simply to their own brothers and sisters, but, astonishingly, to outsiders and to enemies. This peculiarly excessive form of moral decency convinced many people that something strange was afoot among these disciples of Jesus, something splendid and rare. It compelled them to take a deeper look. During the cultural and political chaos following the collapse of the Roman Empire, certain spiritual athletes took to the caves, deserts, and hills in order to live a radical form of the Christian life. From these early ascetics, monasticism emerged, a spiritual movement. What so many found fascinating was the sheer intensity of the monks’ commitment, their embrace of poverty, and their lithe trust in divine providence. Once again, it was the living out of the Gospel ideal that proved convincing.

Something similar unfolded in the thirteenth century, a time of significant corruption in the Church, especially among the clergy. Francis, Dominic, and their confreres inaugurated the mendicant orders, which is just a fancy way of saying the begging orders. The trust, simplicity, service to the poor, and moral innocence of the Dominicans and Franciscans produced a revolution in the Church and effectively re-evangelized armies of Christians who had grown slack and indifferent in their faith. “Fr. Weekly Message

Blessed Art Coming to St. Bruno & St. Paul August 18/19

Blest Art will be visiting your parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for those Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christians.

Blest Art Inc. helps the struggling Christian families of Bethlehem by marketing their artwork in the United States. Due to this work, we help many Christian families to maintain their livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of our Lord.

We gladly accept cash, checks, and all major credit cards. Please note that we do not ask for, nor do we accept, any donations. Check out their website at www.BlestArt.org.

Mission Cooperation Program

We welcome Fr. Dennis Thiessen, SDS from the Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorians), who is visiting our parish for the annual mission appeal. Fr. Dennis currently teaches Theology and Social Studies and is Priest Chaplain at Divine Savior Holy Angels High School in Milwaukee. He has been invited here by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee through the Mission Cooperation Program. Fr. Dennis has visited Tanzania several times over the past 30 years and is looking forward to sharing with us their missionary activities in that country and inviting us to support their mission. Please be generous. Checks payable to St. Bruno or St. Paul

For the next few weeks, we will challenge your knowledge of things you see in church. There is a credence table in our church. Is it

b) the altar table
c) table where items are placed before Mass
d) a card table?

A Special Thank you!
I received a miracle because of all of you….your prayers made it all possible! I had colon cancer surgery in March and thanks to one and all who peppered God with prayers, I do not need chemo or radiation. What a treasure my St. Bruno Family is for me!

WHAT IS YOUR CATHOLIC IQ?
The answer is: c
The Credence Table is where the chalice, paten, cruets, etc. are kept before they are used at Mass. (The Credence Table at St. Bruno’s is behind the wall at the altar.)

Why do we do that?
CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED
Question: On August 10, we celebrate St. Lawrence. He was a deacon who valued the true treasures of the church. Can you tell us more about him?
Answer: There is little known about Lawrence other than he was a deacon in Rome during the reign of Emperor Valerian from 253-259. In 258, Valerian began a persecution of the leaders of the Roman Church. Lawrence was in charge of the purse for the church of Rome. Roman officials in need of money demanded that the riches of the church be handed over to them. Lawrence asked for a few days to gather them.
Lawrence took the money he had charge over and distributed it to the poor of Rome. Then he gathered all the homeless and the poor together. When the Roman officials came again demanding the riches of the church, Lawrence pointed to the destitute and homeless, saying that these are the true riches of the church.
For this he was imprisoned and tortured. Lawrence was put to death by burning on a gridiron. It is said that as he was dying, he told his executioners to turn him over because he was done on one side and needed to be fully cooked for the Lord.
Lawrence continues to be a model for us today. The church needs continual reminders that its riches are the people. The primary purpose and mission of the church is to be continually sensitive to the needs of all God’s people, most especially the least of our brothers and sisters.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Gospel tells us “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” By “listening” we are able to live the gospel. Gospel living is something simple as taking the time to listen to those who need to spill out their hearts when seeking help.
Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you enable the members of the Society to become a “listening heart” to the hungry, the homeless and the struggling poor.

SVDP Volunteers Needed: The St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Stores in Oconomowoc and Waukesha are in need of volunteers (18 and older). For more information or to volunteer, please contact Felicia, 262-825-8025.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
What can I do to accomplish the works of God? This is a question every Christian must ask. Ultimately, we are asked to be the light of Christ for others. This calls us to be compassionate, forgiving, nonviolent, generous, concerned for the poor, and welcoming to strangers. These are often contrary to what the world values. We are asked to simplify our lives and become less self-focused so that others can share in God’s creation. We need help in order to fulfill this tall order. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, which we celebrate today, is the way we are nourished so that we can fulfill this mission.
