23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

He put his finger into the man’s ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, “Ephphatha!”—that is, “Be opened!” - Mk 7:33b-34
Weekly Message

“THE RIGHT DIRECTION, EVEN WHEN WE SOMETIMES WANDER OFF COURSE.”

In our Church today, few concepts are more misunderstood than the concept of Catholic stewardship. I know many hear the word “stewardship” and immediately it morphs into “fund-raising.” But that is not really what stewardship is about.

Quite simply, the good steward is the person who takes care of whatever it is that she or he has been entrusted. As the U.S. Catholic bishops said in Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response: “A Christian steward is one who receives God’s gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others and returns them with increase to the Lord.”

When we think about it, good stewardship affects every part of our lives. If we have wasted a talent, or dawdle our time away with worthless pursuits, or squander our resources, something inside of us just doesn’t feel right. That’s because our inner compass senses a worthless pursuit, or squander our resources, something inside of our lives. If we have wasted a talent, or dawdle our time away with the Lord.”

As good stewardship is a beautifully spiritual act, it is also dangerously contagious. When we see people in our parish leading by example of good stewardship, of not calling attention to their generosity, we are very likely to become “infected.” We surely are affected. The practice of good stewardship is enormously attractive and appealing.

I love that adage, attributed to St. Francis, “Preach the gospel, and use words if necessary.” That is how good stewards share this bountiful life with God in Christ. Not by mouthing pious words, but by actions that speak to the deepest parts of us. Good stewardship calls out to us all. It’s possible, exciting, fulfilling, while bringing us ever closer to the giver of the gifts we have been given.

Prayer for Peace

I think we all remember where we were on 9/11. We saw the tower fall and we saw the selfless first responders run toward the falling towers and debris without concern for their well-being, but for that of the fallen men and women. This is the model of patriotism, and why we now celebrate Patriot Day. Let us pray...

O God of selfless love, we are a blest people to have a god like you. You instill your love for us into the hearts of your human creatures. Even if those human creatures do not acknowledge you, your love for us still shines through. We ask your blessing upon all first responders today and ask you to protect them and their families. Help us love people of all nations, races, and creeds, which will bring about the end to wars and terrorism. We ask all this in your peace. Amen.

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: If God is good, why is there evil in the world?
Answer: The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn’t He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He’s not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision -- good or bad -- is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!

What Is Your Catholic IQ?

The answer is: d

The ambo can also be called the lectern or pulpit. It is the raised stand from which readers read, cantors chant and preachers preach. The original term was a Greek word _ambo_ meaning step or elevate. The term _lectern_ is from the Latin “to read.”

SVDP Mission Statement

Inspired by gospel values, the Society of SVDP, a Catholic lay organization, leads men and women to join together to grow spiritually by offering person to person service to the needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederic Ozanam, and patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

As a reflection of the whole family of God, members, who are known as Vincentians, are drawn from every ethnic and cultural background, age group and economic level. Vincentians are united in the international society of charity by their spirit of poverty, humility and sharing, which is nourished by prayer and reflection, mutually supportive gatherings and adherence to a basic Rule.

Organized locally, Vincentians witness God’s love by embracing all works of charity and justice. The Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes, making no distinction in those served, because in them, Vincentians see the face of Christ.

Live the liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

We often associate the word "healing" with something that produces dramatic, physical results: the blind see, the crippled walk, and the deaf hear. Witnessing such miraculous events is few and far between for most. Healing happens more frequently in very ordinary ways using very ordinary means. And we can all be God’s instruments for bringing it about. Kindness, love, mercy, and compassion can go a very long way. Treating people with kindness? being inclusive and welcoming of the poor, the weak, and the powerless? listening to another’s story and pain? offering compassion and love to those who have wronged us? avoiding hurtful criticisms and watching our tongues. All can go a long way to changing and healing human hearts. There is power in love and kindness. Does this power not speak of someone greater than ourselves working in and through us?
