Vigil

What practically can we do during the season of waiting and vigil keeping? What are some practices that might incarnate for us the spirituality described here?

How about the classically Catholic discipline of Eucharistic adoration? To spend a half-hour or an hour in the presence of the Lord is not to accomplish or achieve very much—it is not really “getting” anywhere—but it is a particularly rich form of spiritual waiting. As you keep vigil before the Blessed Sacrament, bring to Christ some problem or dilemma that you have been fretting over, and then “Say, “Lord, I’m waiting for you to solve this, to show me the way out, the way forward. I’ve been running, planning, worrying, but now I’m going to let you work.” Then, throughout Advent, watch attentively for signs.

A second—and more offbeat—suggestion: Do a jigsaw puzzle. Find one of those big, complex puzzles with thousands of small pieces, one that requires lots of time and plenty of patience, and make of it an Advent project. As you assemble the puzzle think of each piece as some aspect of your life: a relationship, a loss, a failure, a great joy, an adventure, a place where you lived, something you shouldn’t have said, an act of generosity. So often the events of our lives seem like the thousands pieces of a puzzle lying incoherently and disconnectedly before us. As you patiently put the puzzle together meditate on the fact that God is slowly, patiently, according to his own plan and purpose, ordering the seemingly unrelated and incongruous events of our lives into a picture of great beauty.

Finally, take advantage of traffic jams and annoying lines—really anything that makes you wait. When you are forced to slow down, pray one of the great, repetitive vigil prayers of the church, such as the rosary or the Jesus prayer (“Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner”). With this resolution in mind, hang a rosary around your rearview mirror at the beginning of Advent. Consider the possibility that God wants you at that moment to wait and then sanctify the time through one of those savoring prayers.

~Fr. Dan

FAITH FORMATION (DOESN’T END AT CONFIRMATION)

St. Bruno Family Class
How will you RISE UP to follow Jesus? This is the question we have been pondering this year in our monthly Family Class. In an effort to get to know Jesus, we have been studying his Miracles and Parables. Each month we come together with our Faith Formations and start with a prayer. We then have a fun community building activity—one month it was doing a photo scavenger hunt, last month it was taking time to learn about family traditions. After we delve into the Miracle and Parable of the day, we have family directed activities to help us apply the lesson to everyday modern life. Families work at their own pace, spending as much time as they want on each activity. We close again with prayer before the families leave. The children absolutely treasure this time with their parents, and the parents also enjoy the opportunity to grow in their faith with their family.

It is my belief that when you know Jesus, you mean REALLY know Him, you naturally Rise Up and want to follow Him! Being involved with this Faith Community has blessed my life in so many ways. It brings me great joy to work with families as their children grow in faith, and prepare for sacraments.

_ Amy Golden Director of Child and Family Ministry_

Our Catholic faith
We have a series of sessions on Sunday mornings for people who wish to become Catholic (RCIA). If you would like to brush up on some of your Catholic faith, you are welcome to come, too! Please see the schedule on the parish website (in the RCIA section in the Faith Formation tab). If you would like to attend, please let our team leaders, Beth and Peter McFadzen (bpmc90@wi.rr.com) know so they can send you the reading materials ahead of time. Beth and Peter facilitate the discussion and are also joined by Deacon Joe Senglaub, and, when time permits, Fr Dan. The sessions run from 10-11:30am in the Family Room at St. Paul.

Hanukkah (Chanukah) is celebrated with a nightly menorah lighting, special prayers and food. The event celebrates the rededication (Chanukah) of the Holy Temple after the Greeks had entered the Sanctuary and defiled the holy oil. When the Israelites entered the Temple they found one “cruse” of oil that had not been defiled. It should have been sufficient for one day but miraculously, the oil lasted for how many days?

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Tradition Explained

Question: On many Sundays, especially during Advent and Lent, we hear a reading from one of the prophets. What is significant about them for us? Didn’t Jesus fulfill all their predictions?

Answer: Lent and Advent are the times of the church year when the prophetic word forms an important part of the liturgical season. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, and Zephaniah are just some of the prophets who offer powerful and essential lessons for Christians of any era. Prophets do not predict the future. They are very much concerned about the present, calling Israel to follow once again the word of God.

The prophets witness to a life of faith. In the midst of an intense relationship with God, the prophets are very aware of their unworthiness to embrace this call from God and struggle to accept the mission God entrusts to them.

The prophets speak on behalf of God. Each testifies that the word spoken is not from them but from God. At times, this lands them in trouble with their audience. Jeremiah, for example, felt betrayed by God as the prophetic message was delivered. People did not like the message because of their sin-filled lives, and their displeasure was taken out on the prophet. While tempted at times to “throw in the towel,” the prophets remained true to the life of faith and persevered in the proclamation of God’s word. In modeling these virtues and calling us to greater fidelity, the prophets offer an example and message that are still important to us today.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Making straight the path of Christ is not only the vocation of John the Baptist but of every baptized believer. God desires to lead us with His mercy and justice. These are essentials in God’s kingdom and some of the gifts Christ’s future coming will bring. But our world’s systems do not place emphasis on these values. Wanting greater profits, downsizing companies in order to reduce expenses, using others for personal or corporate gain, and valuing institutions over people are just a few of the “values” we encounter every day. We are called to straighten the path to Christ. In a world that places value on things that are counter to our call, how do we respond? We need to learn to discern what is of real value and then take the risk of bringing it into the marketplace.

Pray for all military personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.
