MISSION STATEMENT
St. Bruno Parish is a community of people sharing a common faith in the teachings of the Catholic tradition. We come together to worship God and to spread the Good News that Jesus gave us. Through celebrating Christian unity, we provide emotional support and practice the works of mercy.

Jesus said to her, “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” - Jn 2:4
LOVE YOUR FAMILY

Nothing is more demanding, and nothing takes more care and self-sacrifice, than love within a family. Loving "humanity" is easy. Loving family members, friends and neighbors as God wants them to be loved, day in and day out can be challenging at times.

We can turn to Pope John Paul II’s Encyclical Familiaris Consortio for help. First, “it is from the family that citizens come to birth, and within the family that they find the first school of the social virtues that are the animating principle of the existence and development of society itself.”(#42) What are those virtues? Justice, charity and a love for freedom and truth as God means freedom and truth to be understood. Second, “far from being closed in on itself, the family is by nature and vocation open to other families and to society, and undertakes its social role.”(#42) This means that families can’t be fortresses or enclaves. God created us to engage and sanctify the world, not withdraw from it.

Familiaris Consortio encourages families to become involved in forms of social service, especially those which favor the poor; to cultivate the practice of hospitality and to engage themselves politically. The Pope especially encourages families to "be the first to take steps to see that the laws and insCg'bYtuCg'bYons of the state to support and promote the pracCg'bYce of hospitality and to engage themselves politically. The family is to undertake its social role.”(#42) This means that families can’t be fortresses or enclaves. God created us to engage and sanctify the world, not withdraw from it.

As the Holy Father says in Novo Millennio Ineunte, we should never be “seduced by the naïve expectation that, faced with the great challenges of our time, we shall find some magic formula . . . It is not a matter of inventing a new program. The program already exists: It is the plan found in the Gospel . . . [and it] has its center in Christ Himself, who is to be known, loved and imitated, so that in Him we may live the life of the Trinity, and with Him transform history . . .”(29).

The most important way for families to live Familiaris Consortio is to pray often and together. We need to live what we say we believe. That means bringing Christ into all of our daily routines, and all of our daily interactions and reflections.

Catholic Quotes—Words to Inspire the Faithful

"Our entire good consists not only in accepting the truth of God’s word, but in persevering in it." -- St. Francis de Sales

Did you know? Our parish website has a link to Fr. Dan’s past homilies. You can go back to listen to Fr. Dan’s message again after mass. The link is on the right hand side of the front page of the parish website. www.stbrunoparish.com
Faith Formation

Take time to reflect on Scripture Feb 10

On Sunday, February 10, you are invited to join fellow parishioners at St. Bruno in reflecting on the Sunday readings before you attend 10:30am mass. We will meet in Mr. Phillips' classroom at 9am. We will have prayer, breakfast casserole (to be consumed prior to the one hour fast before mass/communion) and coffee/tea followed by discussion of that day’s readings. Please take some time to read them before you come if possible. (Click on the date in the calendar to find the readings of the day found at http://www.usccb.org/bible/ readings/011139.cfm) For planning purposes, please RSVP to Mary Kral in the parish office.

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Join with others to talk about Jesus, prayer, the bible, and more. We start with a meal, watch a video, and then have time to talk in small groups.

Getting together to share about our faith is not something many of us do on a regular basis; those who have been on the past Alpha courses have said small group discussion was the best part of Alpha. Others have started reading the bible more regularly as a result of Alpha. Someone else said "Alpha introduced joy and peacefulness."

Why not give Alpha a try? Come to at least the three sessions! Maybe you will feel, as one Alpha guest did, "a reawakening of what it [faith] is supposed to be. " Sign up on the St. Bruno parish website (click on the Faith Formation tab) or call Mary Kral directly to join the next Alpha course. Bring a friend, anyone is welcome.

Alpha runs from 6-7:45pm on Thursdays at St Bruno’s starting 1/31.

Women’s Group

Join other women at St. Paul as we come together for fellowship and to read a book about “Saint John Paul the Great: His Five Loves” by Jason Evert. Join us on Monday mornings from 8:45-10am in the Gathering Space beginning January 14th. We will discuss the first chapter that day. We will then meet for 9 to 10 weeks to complete the book. If you have any questions, reach out to Kelsey at kdemarais@gmail.com or 262-744-0049 (call/text). We have a copy of the book- join us!

Dynamic Men’s Groups Invites All Men.

St. Paul We meet at 6:00 am and/or 7:00 pm. Join anytime! Want to have an extraordinary life? This video series, Kapaun’s Men, examines how the concept of Stewardship helps us recognize the unique set of gifts God has given to each of us and how to use those gifts well. By focusing on Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service, this helps us live as a gift to others and leave behind a legacy for our family, friends, and the world. As Father Emil Kapaun, taught, "God gave us our gifts, not for our own glory or pride, but that we might use them for God’s greater honor and glory. Use your gifts to help your fellow man as much as you can.”

St Bruno will continue with a program from Fr Robert Spitzer called, “Happiness, Suffering, and the Love of God.” They will start on Thursday, January 17 at 6:00 am at St. Bruno’s.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.
Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God’s love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
Mary had great faith in God. She also knew that God could do anything. So when the wedding servers ran out of wine, she knew Jesus could help. She said, “Do whatever Jesus tells you to do.” That’s the smartest thing any of us can do.

Prayer
Dear God, help me to do everything you say. I know you can do anything.

Mission for the Week
What does Jesus tell you to do in his word, the Bible? Find out by reading the Bible for 15 minutes a day with your family. You could start by reading Luke.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Did you ever consider that God takes great delight in you? We are by no means second or afterthoughts of God. As the master artisan, God takes delight in every fabric of our being and every single component of who we are. We are intentionally and lovingly designed! God gets much joy out of every child He creates, and He does not abandon us. God is definitely in charge! God can take a painful past or an apparent dead-end and turn it into a glorious future. He can transform nothing into something and is always eagerly ready to give us the gifts of faith, hope, and love. We are never bound by the past and never without options. All we have to do is listen to Him. Are we willing to give up the controls and allow Him to do what He does best?
