Life is to be Lived

Words are cheap. Actions matter. God remakes the world with our deeds, not our intentions. What distinguishes real faith from surface piety is whether we actually do what we say we believe. This was at the heart of Rich Curran’s talk a few month’s ago.

This is why elected officials — and even everyday clergy and laypeople — who claim to be Catholic but whom disregard their religious beliefs in their personal lives and public actions are so damaging to the common good. They claim to follow Christ and his Church with their words, but show how unimportant Christ is to them by their living witness.

Our mission as disciples is not simply to pass along good morals to our children, or convey a sense of God’s hand in the world. These things are vital, of course, but they don’t exhaust our vocation. Our mission is to bring the world to Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ to the world. Each of us is a missionary, and our primary work is the conversion of our own hearts and the hearts of others, so that someday the whole world will acknowledge Jesus Christ as humanity’s only savior and Lord.

That’s a big task. We can’t do it by just “dialoguing” about it, any more than Christ could redeem us by writing an essay on sin. The Gospels have power because they tell the story of what God did; what his only Son did; and what Christ’s followers did. The Passion accounts of Christ’s suffering and death move us so deeply because they show in bitter detail how unashamedly God loves us.

This is the hot spark at the heart of Mel Gibson’s film “The Passion of the Christ” and every other sincere attempt to tell the Passion story. God spared not even his own Son in saving us. No wonder the cross draws the eye of great artists again and again down the centuries. The blood of the cross reminds us that — at least on one day in history — love had no limits. And since then, everything has been different.

God built the Church we’ve inherited through the love of generations of believers. Their witness made our faith possible. It’s now our turn to shape the future by the zeal we bring to our own daily witness. It’s our turn to act. It’s our turn to live our Catholic faith with all the courage and strength Christ brought to loving the Church he founded.

Living our Catholic faith means making our Catholic beliefs the anchor of our lives; living them all the time every day, both in our private homes and our public choices; living them in our families, friendships, work environments and social and political decisions. Anything less is lukewarm. Anything less ignores Christ’s call to be leaven in the world and “make disciples of all nations.”

Catholic Quotes—Words to Inspire the Faithful
"Grace is nothing else but a certain beginning of glory in us."
—— St. Thomas Aquinas

Chili Dinner THIS SATURDAY
Are you and your family a little chilly this winter? Join us for our St. Bruno Chili Dinner on Saturday, January 26th following the 4pm Mass, sponsored by the Stewardship Committee. There will be plenty of chili to go around for everyone, so bring your family and friends to enjoy fellowship with the rest of the parish family. It will be held in the Gathering Place after Mass. All donations will be given to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to help our local friends in need.

Parish Mission – Save the Date
“The place where you stand is holy ground”
Monday, March 11 at 6:30 pm at St. Paul & Tuesday, March 12 at 6:30 pm at St. Bruno.
The Mission will focus on the scripture readings throughout the season of Lent.
Parish Mission audience is geared for middle school and up.

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Join with others to talk about Jesus, prayer, the bible, and more. We start with a meal, watch a video, and then have time to talk in small groups.

Getting together to share about our faith is not something many of us do on a regular basis; those who have been on the past Alpha courses have said small group discussion was the best part of Alpha. Others have started reading the bible more regularly as a result of Alpha. Someone else said "Alpha introduced joy and peacefulness.”

Why not give Alpha a try? Come to at least the three sessions! Maybe you will feel, as one Alpha guest did, "a reawakening of what it [faith] is supposed to be.” Sign up on the St. Bruno parish website (click on the Faith Formation tab) or call Mary Kral directly to join the next Alpha course. Bring a friend, anyone is welcome.

Alpha runs from 6-7:45pm on Thursdays at St Bruno’s starting 1/31.

Help Wanted – SMALL things done with GREAT love change the world

The Faith Formation team (supporting children to families to high schoolers and yes, adults, too!) is in the business of changing lives – yours, mine, all of ours! We are all in the business of helping each other grow from sinners to saints. We need people to RISE UP and join the Faith Formation Committee, a collaborative effort between St Bruno and St Paul. We meet once per month on the first Monday of the month from 6:30-8pm. As a committee member, you would be asked to share your opinion of faith formation for all ages of our parish. You’ll hear about what’s coming soon in the areas of Child and Family Ministry, Youth Ministry, and Adult Ministry. We talk about our hopes and dreams for these areas, some of our struggles, as well as our successes. We also spend a portion of the meeting looking at an article or part of a new book that we want to share to keep us all informed of what is happening in other parishes or best practices. Input from parishioners, whether you have children in the Faith Formation programs or not, is important for all of us since faith formation is LIFELONG. Please contact any one of us on the Faith Formation team to learn more:

- Karen Farrell, Child/Family Ministry, St. Paul

Catholic Tradition Explained

Question: This month, we had the March for Life and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. What does the Church have to say about having respectful conversations between people who disagree?

Answer: Christians are not removed from the world and its conflicts. Indeed, Jesus sends us “to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8). Due to the complex nature of the human experience, the pressures of cultures that don’t share Christian values, and the difficulty of living the Gospel, even people of good will have conflicts! The Church has disagreements within herself. This has been the case from the beginning. In the letters of Paul, we see him confronting people who disagree? YOU might be interested in “Living in the Web of Creation” on Sunday, February 17.

When we encounter people who disagree with us - on topics large and small - we must remember basic Christian values. Respect and compassion are critically important. We need to be good listeners to grasp another person’s perspective. This dialogue doesn’t mean we compromise our values or deny the truth. We may still disagree, but our conversation can be a lot more civil if we try to understand each other!

St Bruno & St Paul Parish Combined Green Team

Do YOU think about sustainability, conserving our natural resources, and wonder what other faiths are doing? Supported by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Carpools will be leaving from each parish.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

St. Theresa of Avila reminds us that, “Christ has no body now on earth but yours; no hands but yours; no feet but yours. Yours are the eyes through which the compassion of Christ must look out on the world. Yours are the feet with which He is to go about doing good. Yours are the hands with which He is to bless His people.” We are, in every way shape and form, the Body of Christ. Our bodies are not just one single part but many. We are many, and we are all uniquely different. Yet each in his or her own way contributes significantly to the whole. We are all baptized in one spirit, and there are no distinctions that separate us. We must keep our eyes focused on the greater whole and not get distracted or consumed with particular parts. Everything and everyone must work together for the praise and glory of God.
