Gospel Meditation - Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Emails. Carpoools. Shopping lists. Home repairs. It can seem like we move so quickly from one thing to the next. Our news comes in sound bites and headlines. How often do we take time for silence, for prayer, for reflection, for wisdom? Jesus warns us of stumbling into life without an adequate sense of where we’re going. “Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit?” This Sunday’s Gospel isn’t about fumbling along but offers a self-check on our own motivations.

“Why do you notice the splinter in your brother’s eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?” Without adequate self-reflection, it’s easy to become blind to our own faults. We go through life’s motions as our bad habits linger or even increase. We may become increasingly impatient, we may avoid important tasks, we may neglect the emotional needs of our spouse. Perhaps, in the process, we find fault with those around us. In the words of Jesus, “remove the wooden beam from your own eye first.”

So how do we know? How can we notice the hidden faults in our lives? “A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of store of evil produces evil.” Do you notice certain relationships that have become strained, or situations where you know you don’t act your best? Perhaps this is an area where you are acting out of sin, rather than virtue. The truth is, all of us are a mixture of light and dark, vice and virtue. We can’t pretend we’re perfect! But we also need to take time to pause and prayerfully examine the fruit we’re bearing.

LENTEN FAST AND ABSTINENCE REGULATIONS
The Catholic church asks each member to preserve the penitential character and purpose of Lent. For this reason:
A) Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and each Friday of Lent;
B) Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, in addition to abstaining from meat, should fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Hence, on those days they should eat only one full meal. Smaller quantities of food may be taken at two other meals, but no food should be consumed at other times during those two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one’s 59th birthday.
Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

St. Vincent De Paul

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel today, Jesus uses images in speaking to his disciples: “Can a blind man act as guide to a blind man?...Why look at the speck in your brother’s eye when you miss the plank in your own?...A good tree does not produce decayed fruit....”
It is true that donations come to the Society because a good person produces goodness from the good in their heart.

Pray for all First Responders, military personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.

Scripture followed by Stations of the Cross

Does God speak to you when you pray? How does Scripture speak to you? Join us on Friday nights before Stations of the Cross if you want to hear how God speaks to you directly through Scripture. Each week Deacon Joe will provide an opportunity for Lectio Divina. In Christianity, Lectio Divina (Latin for “Divine Reading”) is a traditional Benedictine practice of scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God’s word. It does not treat scripture as texts to be studied, but as the living Word.
