Lent Communal Reconciliation March 18, 6:30pm at St Bruno

Scripture & Stations of the Cross
Join us on Friday nights before Stations of the Cross if you want to hear how God speaks to you directly through Scripture. Each week Deacon Joe will provide an opportunity for Lectio Divina. In Christianity, Lectio Divina (Latin for “Divine Reading”) is a traditional Benedictine practice of scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God’s word. It does not treat scripture as texts to be studied, but as the living Word.

As we enter into this Lenten season of penance and self-denial, we’re reminded that the God we follow is no stranger to these things. In this Sunday’s Gospel, we see the temptations of Jesus which have parallels throughout Scripture and in our own lives. The apostle John warns against temptations to sensual lust, enticement of the eyes, and a pretentious life (cf. 1 John 2:16). Before Eve plucks the fruit from the tree, she hears it is good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom (cf. Genesis 3:6). The temptations of Jesus are our own.

"Turn these stones to bread." Here is the lure of bodily comfort, like good food or sensual lust. It’s the simplest of temptations because it’s instinctual. We want good for our bodies! But there may be times these bodily goods don’t serve the higher good for our souls. The leap “from the temple parapet” would entice the eye of the person watching. A feat like this would prove Jesus’ Messianic ability. His popularity could be a shortcut to the cross. We might not be daredevils, but we want people to like us and be impressed by us. Do we sacrifice our values along the way? To "bow and worship" the devil - and so claim power and a pretentious life - seems like a dramatic temptation. Not everyone may feel enticed by power in the professional sense, but all of us want control. A volunteer team can feel just as intense as the boardroom! How often do we prefer to be in control of our lives (and perhaps even the lives of others), rather than allow God to be God?

When we consider areas of temptation and sin, it’s not to feel ashamed. The temptation in the desert reminds us that we are not alone and that the strength of Jesus can be our strength, too.

LEN T E N  F A S T A N D A B S T I N E N C E  R E G U L A T I O N S
The Catholic church asks each member to preserve the penitential character and purpose of Lent. For this reason:
A) Catholics who have celebrated their 14th birthday are bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and each Friday of Lent;
B) Catholics who have celebrated their 18th birthday, in addition to abstaining from meat, should fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Hence, on those days they should eat only one full meal. Smaller quantities of food may be taken at two other meals, but no food should be consumed at other times during those two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one’s 59th birthday.
Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

St. Vincent de Paul
First Sunday of Lent
In today’s Gospel, Jesus overcomes the temptations to wealth, power and esteem. As we begin Lent, may we open our hearts to the grace of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to celebrate the grace of God’s love this Easter.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
When you give food and clothes to charity, don’t be a show-off. When you pray, find a quiet place to talk to God alone. When you skip meals to pray, find a quiet place to talk to God alone. When you see yourself as one of the privileged and the saved and are quick to condemn those who choose to do things differently, how wrong are we to point out the faults of others? It is so easy to see what others are doing wrong and much harder to see ourselves for who we are. Many want to see themselves as one of the privileged and the saved and are quick to condemn those who choose to do things differently.

We can be so hypocritical while at the same time proclaiming to be so spiritual. What we speak reveals the true thoughts of our minds and intention of our hearts. We fool no one but ourselves. Rather than being defensive, critical, and exclusive, does it not make more sense to help each other and work together for the kingdom of God? We may have to leave something behind, but in turn, we'll gain much more.

Mass/Devotion Times
Weekend Mass Times: Saturday 4:00 p.m. Sunday 10:30 a.m.
We pray the Rosary at 7:40 a.m. when there is 8:00 a.m. Mass.
The Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel is open 24/7 for private prayer.
Eucharistic Adoration is every Tuesday from 2:00-4:00 p.m. in the Chapel.
If you wish to practice adoration outside these hours, contact the parish office.

Pray for all First Responders, military personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.

St. Bruno Book Club
Next meeting of the Book Club: Tues., March 12th:
My Cousin the Saint
By Justin Catanoso
Justin, born and raised in New Jersey, knew little about his family beyond the Garden State. In 2001 he discovered that his grandfather’s cousin was a Vatican-certified miracle worker. He embarked on a quest to connect with his family in Italy and awakens his faith.
