While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. - Lk 9:29

Lent Communal Reconciliation March 18, 6:30pm at St Bruno

Scripture & Stations of the Cross
Join us on Friday nights before Stations of the Cross if you want to hear how God speaks to you directly through Scripture. Each week Deacon Joe will provide an opportunity for Lectio Divina. In Christianity, Lectio Divina (Latin for "Divine Reading") is a traditional Benedictine practice of scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God’s word. It does not treat scripture as texts to be studied, but as the living Word.

† March 22 St Bruno 5:30pm Lectio, Stations 6pm
† March 29 St Paul 5:30pm, Lectio, Stations at 6pm
† April 5 St Bruno 5:30pm Lectio, Stations 6pm

As we march through Lent, it can be easy to think it’s all about sacrifice. No chocolate, no alcohol, no meat on Fridays. Yet here, only in the second week of Lent, we have the story of the transfiguration. This reading reminds us of the “why” behind what we do. We don’t fast from dessert to lose weight. We don’t donate money or serve others because it’s merely a nice thing to do. Lent is transformation! Peter, James, and John trudged up the mountainside behind Jesus. This must have been a difficult hike, because when they reached the top, “Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep.” Despite our best efforts, perhaps we, too, can be asleep to the deeper meaning of the Lenten season. Jesus is transfigured while we do. We don’t fast from dessert to lose weight. We don’t donate money or serve others because it’s merely a nice thing to do. Lent is about transformation!

Peter, James, and John trudged up the mountainside behind Jesus. This must have been a difficult hike, because when they reached the top, “Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep.” Despite our best efforts, perhaps we, too, can be asleep to the deeper meaning of the Lenten season. Jesus is transfigured while they slumber, but eventually they become “fully awake, [and] they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.”

This is no small thing! The disciples witness Jesus in his divine splendor and see the miraculous apparitions of Moses and Elijah. The entire mountain becomes a spiritual breakthrough. “A cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud.” These symbols are present in the Old Testament. They are present on Mount Sinai when Moses prayed alone and received the 10 Commandments. Elijah had a similar experience when he prayed alone before God. But here are ordinary men, former fishermen, who have been drawn up into an adventure beyond their wildest expectations. Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah, the fulfillment of all that came before. But Christianity is not the religion of the elite, where only the select few are allowed to participate. We are all invited into spiritual transformation. Lent is a privileged time for this!

Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2019—Amazing Grace
The Catholic Stewardship Appeal, the annual fundraising campaign of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, supports Catholic life throughout southeastern Wisconsin.

St. Bruno Book Club
Next meeting of the Book Club Tues., APRIL 9th: The Book of Creation: An Introduction to Celtic Spirituality
By: J. Philip Newell
Newell begins by tracing the history of Celtic spirituality and then goes on to draw from the Celtic sources on creation: Eriugena, Pelagius, the Carmina Gadelica, novelist George MacDonald, poet Kenneth White and others.

St. Vincent De Paul
Second Sunday of Lent
Lent is a call not just to “give up something” but more important to “give something for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
One night when Jesus prayed, Jesus showed Peter, James and John what he would look like in heaven. Jesus’ face changed and his clothes glowed brightly. Jesus even talked to Moses and Elijah, who had gone to heaven many years earlier. Jesus was different. He was from God!

Prayer
Dear Jesus, I can hardly wait to see what you really look like in heaven.

Mission for the Week
Find something that glows in the dark. As you see it in a dark room, imagine how brightly Jesus must have glowed.

Masses for homebound Catholics
Sunday 5:30 a.m. on WITI, Channel 6 and 9 a.m. on WCGV, Channel 24.

St. Paul Mass Schedule:
Saturday: 5:30 p.m.
Sunday: 9:00 a.m.
Weekdays:
Tuesday 8:00 a.m. & Friday 8:45 a.m.
Reconciliation: 2nd & 4th Saturday 10:00 a.m. or by appointment

Liturgy of the Week

Weekend Mass Times: Saturday 4:00 p.m. Sunday 10:30 a.m.
We pray the Rosary at 7:40 a.m. when there is 8:00 a.m. Mass.
The Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel is open 24/7 for private prayer.
Eucharistic Adoration is every Tuesday from 2:00-4:00 p.m. in the Chapel.
If you wish to practice adoration outside these hours, contact the parish office.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week
Our minds are often preoccupied with the things of this world, and we forget about the things of heaven. We live our lives as if what we see before us is all there is and almost place the truth of eternity on hold until it is absolutely necessary to confront it. We fail to see the connection between earth and heaven and to see the road of transformation we are all called to travel. When Jesus was transfigured before his disciples, they saw the truth of who he was. Earth and heaven were wed that day, just as they will one day come together for us. God desires to transfigure us as well, changing our earthly body into our heavenly one. We miss our true destiny if we don’t factor this into the choices we make and the paths we choose to walk.

Pray for all First Responders, Military personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.
