Palm Sunday
As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. - Lk 19:36, 37b
Holy Week

St. Teresa of Avila told the story of the devil’s appearing to her in the guise of the Risen Christ, hoping to tempt her into believing that it was Jesus himself coming to her. Immediately she dismissed him; but before he left her the Evil One asked her how she knew that he was not Christ. St. Teresa answered, “Because you have no wounds.” The source of Christian joy is Christ’s resurrection from the dead. The tomb is empty. His risen body is glorified, but it remains his, bearing the wounds of his passion.

As we enter into Holy Week we remember the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord with wonderful liturgies. At the Holy Thursday liturgy the Triduum, the great Three Days that celebrate the central mystery of our faith, begins. Triduum rituals invite us all to baptismal renewal, par excellence. Here are some examples.

Washing of Feet: After the homily on Holy Thursday, we imitate our master in the washing of feet. This ritual reminds us that our baptismal commitment means we are to be servants of one another. In the time of St. Ambrose in Milan, those who were baptized also had their feet washed, because of Jesus’ words to Peter: "Whoever has bathed has no need except to have his feet washed" (Jn 13:10). Many scholars have seen a baptismal reference in those words.

Veneration of the Cross: As part of our observance of Good Friday, we venerate the cross on which Christ died. The veneration challenges us to be willing to accept the cross, too, for it is the only way to resurrection. Through Baptism, we shared in Christ's death that we might come to new life. Every year we are called to deepen our identification with his cross and resurrection.

Waters of Baptism: The core of our celebration of the Easter Vigil is the Baptism of the elect. As we share in their joy on this holy night, we are all called to renew our own baptismal promises, to live in the joy of life in the Risen One.

Please note the different times of the Holy Week Liturgies. On behalf of the parish staff and school of St. Bruno and St. Paul, I want to wish you all a blessed Holy Week.

~ Fr. Dan

Please read: URGENT EMAIL SCAM ALERT

Within the past few months, parishes within the Archdiocese of Milwaukee (and nation-wide) have fallen victim to various forms of financial fraud.

Some parishioners have notified us that they received scam emails appearing as if they are coming from their pastor, requesting that the email receiver purchase gift cards on his behalf. Although many who have received these emails have found them suspicious enough to inquire before moving forward, some have followed through with these purchases, thinking the gift cards they are purchasing are being sent to their pastor.

The scammers are very creative, and many people and organizations have been swindled by their fraudulent tactics. They have access to email strings, will mention names of people you know, and can make the phone number or email they are using look legitimate.

If you receive an email that looks like it is coming from your pastor that is asking for money, gift cards, or requesting any items of purchase, please notify the parish and DO NOT MOVE FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE.

Thank you for your attentiveness.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC TRADITION EXPLAINED
Question: What are the servant songs of Isaiah? How do they relate to Jesus’ life and ministry?
Answer: The four servant songs (Isaiah 42:1-4, 49:1-6, 50:4-9, and 52:13-53:12) are strategically placed in Second Isaiah to offer hope and consolation to a suffering Israel during its Babylonian Exile.

Israel had been defeated by the Babylonians, who destroyed their temple, killed the last of the kings in David’s lineage, exiled them from their land, and transported them to Babylon. This is the context in which Second Isaiah composes his powerfully poetic book of hope and consolation. A significant part of that message is the portrait of God’s servant, who is called to be a source of hope and encouragement for the people.

Each of the four poems emphasizes God’s choice and election of the servant. The last poem stresses the suffering and rejection of God’s servant, along with his eventual death. Isaiah is certain that God will use the servant’s innocent suffering as a way to redeem and remove the guilt and sin of others. Thus, the servant becomes a source of salvation for himself and for others.

Who is this servant? Many suggest that Isaiah was referring to Israel herself, as she underwent exilic suffering which would ultimately prove to be redemptive. Jesus’ followers, including those for whom Mark wrote his Gospel, understood Jesus’ ministry in terms of Isaiah’s suffering servant whose innocent suffering and death became the means of salvation for all.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Palm Sunday
Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks.
Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life.
As you donate to Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God’s love to those who carry their cross of suffering and pain.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
The friends of Jesus made a special parade just for him. The people liked Jesus. He fed them. He healed them. They wanted to crown him king. They were sure that with Jesus in charge, they could live in peace.
When you praise God, and when you put
Jesus in charge of your life, you really can live with peace in your heart!

Prayer
Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus to be my king.

Mission for the Week
Make Jesus king of your life. Ask him to help you spend your time doing the things that would make him happy.

LIVE THE LITURGY -
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Once hailed with blessings and hosannas as he approached the Mount of Olives, the same
God is nailed to a cross amid cries for His crucifixion. What an ironic twist of fate. What an unjust end to this compassionate, simple, and loving life. Life’s ironies and cruelties are dramatically witnessed today and throughout this Holy Week. The thread of God's love is woven through it all as it reveals God’s transforming, redemptive, and salvific plan. It is all necessary: the hardship and the joy, the suffering and the glory, the disappointment and the inheritance. When life takes a turn for the worse, we often question where God is. Are we ready to walk through our lives as did Jesus, with a persistent trust that regardless how difficult our journey, all will work out in the end. "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit."

Safeguarding our Children
If you are in need of the Safeguarding class,
There will be one held at St. Bruno on Tuesday, May 28 at 2pm in the Parish room. This class is limited to 15 people, so sign up on the Archdiocese website as soon as possible.
