Sacrament of CONFIRMATION
Second Sunday of Easter

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that “from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday.”

Pope John Paul had actively promoted the message of St. Faustina. In his 1980 encyclical on God’s mercy, Rich in Mercy, he developed a scriptural and doctrinal basis for our faith in the mercy of God. By linking the revealed truth about God’s mercy to one of the most solemn Sundays after Easter itself, he illumined the fact that the liturgy already proclaimed the divine mercy. The truth has been embedded for two millennia in the worship of the Church. Once again we see an illustration of the ancient saying, “The law of faith is the law of prayer.”

On the Second Sunday of Easter, the responsorial psalm and Gospel for Cycles A, B and C center on the theme of mercy. In Psalm 118 we see an illustration of the ancient saying, “The law of faith is the law of prayer.”

The other texts speak of healing and give the assurance there is sin and the punishment due to that sin. The plenary indulgence grants complete forgiveness of venial sin. The plenary indulgence grants complete forgiveness of sin and the punishment due to that sin.

All are Welcome!

Movie Nights + Fellowship + Prayer
April 25—7pm at St. Bruno: St. Catherine of Siena, The Mystic.*
This video (58 mins) is from the Pivotal Players series. Bishop Barron shows us the places where St. Catherine ministered and prayed. This saint exemplified the power of a life lived in relationship with Jesus. We celebrate her feast day Apr 29. Come learn more about this influential Doctor of the Church.

May 13—7pm at St Paul: The Power in My Hands. A story of hope and the power of prayer in the rosary. We will join together on the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima to watch this movie (81 mins) and pray the rosary together. PowerInMyHandsTheMovie.com

May 30—7pm at St Bruno: Michelangelo, The Artist.* In this video (80 minutes) from the Pivotal Players series, we travel with Bishop Barron as he studies some of the greatest works of art in the world. Michelangelo’s legacy reveals the creative potential of the human spirit and shows that beauty is a route of access to God. Through humanity’s creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord. We will gather to watch this video on the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord, celebrating the entry of Jesus’ humanity into Divine Glory! *Internet search Pivotal Players for more information.

We are planning for Alpha in the fall.
In the meantime, here are some things our Alpha guests had to say at the end of the last session: "The facts about the Bible and Jesus in the first videos had the most impact. How can people not believe when they hear all those facts?" "I feel like these Alpha sessions scratched the surface in answering the question ‘Why am I here?’” “Before the course I knew a lot of factual tidbits about my faith, but ...not really organized in my head...The way that the Alpha course was presented helped me to make sense of it all...to see the big picture. Prior to the course, I ...could liken my many ‘factoids’ to leaves that were floating around or piled up. Now I have the tree to hang them on!” Our Alpha course is successful in part to our hosts and helpers and, of course, to our Advocate, the Holy Spirit!

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the loss of a loved one or do you know someone who is grieving? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone will not heal your grief. These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Whether you have had a loved one die recently or a while ago, you are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is more information on the parish website, the kiosk in the Gathering Place or call Peggy Knepprath, 262-424-4567 or Sandy Mayernick, 262-968-4422.

would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to St. Bruno Parish for hosting the Baby Bottle Campaign in January! The monetary gifts you provided helps our two centers in caring for pregnant moms, fathers and their children. It also provides hope, help and healing for families who have lost a child through miscarriage and stillbirth as well as crisis care. In 2018, we cared for 1,462 families so you see how important this mission is! Your parish raised $2,231.88 and we feel blessed to have you on our team, caring for the families who need us! God bless you all and thank you!

St. Vincent De Paul
Second Sunday of Easter
In the Gospel today, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says: “Peace be with you!” Indeed, the mercy of God centers our heart in peace.

In the month of April, through your gifts, SVDP was able to help the poor celebrate the peace of Easter, by assisting many families, providing money for food, utility, rent and bills. Thank You!

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
Jesus, the best friend of the apostles, had just been killed for his teachings. The apostles were afraid the soldiers would come and kill them, too. They were so frightened that they locked all the windows and the doors in the upper room where they had the Last Supper. They huddled together in fear. When Jesus appeared right in the middle of them, they were amazed. He said, “Do not be afraid. I am with you.”

Prayer
Lord, come to me when I am afraid.

Mission for the Week
When I am afraid, I will ask Jesus to come and help me.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Peace be with you! Of all of the things the resurrected Christ could have said, he chose this: Peace be with you! These calming words lessened the disciples’ anxiety and gave them a wonderful sense of reassurance. Words have the power to do that. Jesus touches his friends with his breath and breathes his Spirit upon them. This intimate gesture of peace begins to alleviate the uncertainty and fear that no doubt consumed their thoughts and hearts. Words and gestures are so important in doing God’s work. Even the simplest of greetings and actions can profoundly move people and direct them to God. On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, we are reminded that God’s all-forgiving and merciful love comes to us through the risen Christ. By our words and actions, may we show that forgiveness and merciful love to others.
