How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, or a life-altering event. How do we respond in these circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father’s hand! We can’t remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance.

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us follow Him and to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

Pray the Rosary before Mass May 18/19 & 25/26

In honor and devotion to Mary, Mother of Jesus, the last three weekends in May please join the Knights of Columbus to pray the Rosary before Saturday and Sunday Masses in the church. The Rosary will start 20 minutes before Mass and end before Mass starts. Come Early to pray the whole Rosary or join us when you arrive. To add an intention or for questions, call Bill Bridge (262) 894-3247. For information visit: Rosary Evangelization Apostolate website.

TOURS AVAILABLE!

FAITH FORMATION
(DOESN’T END AT CONFIRMATION)

MOVIE NIGHTS + FELLOWSHIP + PRAYER

May 13—7pm at St Paul: The Power in My Hands. A story of hope and the power of prayer in the rosary. We will join together on the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima to watch this movie (81 mins) and pray the rosary together. PowerInMyHandsTheMovie.com

May 30—7pm at St Bruno: Michelangelo, The Artist.* In this video (80 minutes) from the Pivotal Players series, we travel with Bishop Barron as he studies some of the greatest works of art in the world. Michelangelo’s legacy reveals the creative potential of the human spirit and shows that beauty is a route of access to God. Through humanity’s creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord. We will gather to watch this video on the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord, celebrating the entry of Jesus’ humanity into Divine Glory!

*Internet search Pivotal Players for more information.

We are planning for Alpha in the fall. In the meantime, here are some things our Alpha guests had to say at the end of the last session: "The facts about the Bible and Jesus in the first videos had the most impact. How can people not believe when they hear all those facts?" "I feel like these Alpha sessions scratched the surface in answering the question 'Why am I here?'" "Before the course I knew a lot of factual tidbits about my faith, but ...not really organized in my head...The way that the Alpha course was presented helped me to make sense of it all...to see the big picture. Prior to the course, I ...could liken my many ‘factoids’ to leaves that were floating around or piled up. Now I have the tree to hang them on!" Our Alpha course is successful in part to our hosts and helpers and, of course, to our Advocate, the Holy Spirit!

PRAY FOR PEACE

NO Cookie’s needed For St. Ben’s

Thank you for all your donations, but we will not be going to St. Ben’s this month!
Church calls men to be deacons “in relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you’ll need to be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you’ll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!

Are you considering serving the Church as an Ordained Deacon? The Church calls men to be deacons “in-service” to the People of God. If you are a man (married or single), that feels this call and wants to know more, please contact the Office for Diaconate Formation at 414-758-2207 or maldonadom@archmil.org.

Grief Support Sessions
St. Bruno’s Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, June 4 through July 30, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the loss of a loved one or do you know someone who is grieving? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone will not heal your grief. St. Bruno’s Circle of Life will host a series of grief support sessions on Tuesdays beginning June 4 through July 29, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Whether you have had a loved one die recently or a while ago, you are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is more information on the parish website, the kiosk in the Parish room or call Peggy Knepprath, 262-242-4567 or Sandy Mayernick, 262-968-4422.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: At a parish council meeting, our pastor mentioned the need for deacons. It is something I am considering. How do I know if I have a vocation? What steps should I take next?

Answer: Any and all gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to the church are for the good of the community. As members of the Body of Christ, what one member does affects all. What the body does also affects each member. A vocation or call to ministry is tested and ordered or to service.

If you are considering becoming a deacon, the first step would be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you’ll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!

Safergarding our Children
If you are in need of the Safeguarding class, There will be one held at St. Bruno on Tuesday, May 28 at 2pm in the Parish room. This class is limited to 15 people, so sign up on the Archdiocese website as soon as possible. https://www.archmil.org/Offices/Safe-Environment.htm

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When something delights us, it touches us in a unique and special way. We are stirred within, filled with happiness, glee, and joy. The object of our delight captivates us, and we are eager, sometimes beyond words, to obtain it. Have you ever been delighted by your faith, the Gospel, God’s Word, or an encounter with God? The Gentiles were delighted when they learned they were sharers in the Good News and ecstatic that they were included. They recognized their shepherd and realized that they discovered something or someone unlike any other before. We can easily become lukewarm in our relationship with God and forget just how life-changing the Good News of our faith really is. We are brought to the springs of life-giving water and are gifted with something secular life simply cannot provide: Jesus, the Good Shepherd.
