5th SUNDAY OF EASTER
“I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” - Jn 13:34

ARMED FORCES DAY
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

I was recently reading an article about the real aspects of true love. The psychologist writing the piece said that many people hide behind the words "I love you." They can start believing that if they say it enough times, it simply becomes true.

Jesus claimed that the world would know his disciples by the fact that they loved one another. In the Church, we speak of loving one another quite frequently. I hope that someone can tell that I am a disciple of Jesus by the way I love others. However, that hope is something I have to keep in the center of my mind because I fear too often that I speak more of love than act out of love.

As Christians, we can find ourselves hiding behind our words. History, unfortunately, has shown us that our witness of action has not always been profound enough. The world will surely know whom it is we serve if we love like Jesus, we act like Jesus, and we serve others like Jesus. Our stewardship will bear witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ, and we will bring others to him. Our love will be an instrument of our evangelization. Our words will become true, not because we said them enough, but because they are true.

ST. BRUNO PARISH

May 30—7pm at St Bruno: Michelangelo, The Artist.

In this video (80 minutes) from the Pivotal Players series, we travel with Bishop Barron as he studies some of the greatest works of art in the world. Michelangelo’s legacy reveals the creative potential of the human spirit and shows that beauty is a route of access to God. Through humanity’s creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord. We will gather to watch this video on the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord, celebrating the entry of Jesus’ humanity into Divine Glory!

*Internet search Pivotal Players for more information.

FAITH FORMATION

MOVIE NIGHTS + FELLOWSHIP + PRAYER

We are planning for Alpha in the fall.

In the meantime, here are some things our Alpha guests had to say at the end of the last session: "The facts about the Bible and Jesus in the first videos had the most impact. How can people not believe when they hear all those facts?" "I feel like these Alpha sessions scratched the surface in answering the question 'Why am I here?'” “Before the course I knew a lot of factual tidbits about my faith, but ...not really organized in my head...The way that the Alpha course was presented helped me to make sense of it all...to see the big picture. Prior to the course, I ...could liken my many 'factoids' to leaves that were floating around or piled up. Now I have the tree to hang them on!” Our Alpha course is successful in part to our hosts and helpers and, of course, to our Advocate, the Holy Spirit!

Adults, please pray about joining one of these workshops: God Has a Plan for Your Life – And Has Equipped You for That Mission

In your Baptism and Confirmation, you received gifts that our world needs. Do you know yours? As you uncover your gifts, you discover that they are important clues to the particular mission God has for you. Join over 100,000 Catholics around the world who have begun to discern their charisms through the Catherine of Sienna Institute’s Called & Gifted workshop.

The Catherine of Sienna Institute’s Called & Gifted Workshop is a regular offering of the John Paul II Center’s Missionary Discipleship Institute. Registration fee for Called & Gifted is $40, which covers materials, continental breakfast, and lunch. No one will be denied due to financial circumstances. Space is limited and pre-registration is required so that we can prepare enough materials and meals. Register now for our upcoming Called and Gifted Workshops on June 8 and Sept 21, 2019.

Small Group Leader Workshop

Join us at our next training workshop for small group leaders from around the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Adult, lay-led small groups are helping to renew our parishes and awaken more hearts to follow Jesus together! Whether you are a new leader, a leader-in-training, or a veteran leader wanting to brush up on skills and best practices, this workshop will offer you inspiration, training, and networking with other leaders. Register for the Thursday June 20, 2019 workshop at St. Gabriel Parish, Hubertus now! CONTACT MARY KRAL for information or register directly from the parish website under Faith Formation on the first Adult Formation tab.
Grief Support Sessions
St. Bruno's Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry will offer Bereavement Support Sessions on Tuesdays, June 4 through July 30, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM.

Are you experiencing feelings of sadness and sorrow due to the loss of a loved one or do you know someone who is grieving? Grieving is very hard work, and time alone will not heal your grief. St. Bruno’s Circle of Life will host a series of grief support sessions on Tuesdays beginning June 4 through July 29, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. These sessions will help with understanding the rhythms of the grieving process. Gathering with others who are dealing with the emotions of loss may be the first step needed to move toward healing. Whether you have had a loved one die recently or a while ago, you are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is more information on the parish website, the kiosk in the Gathering Place or call Peggy Knepprath, 262-424-4567 or Sandy Mayernick, 262-968-4422.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: I’ve heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. What are they, and what’s the difference?

Answer: As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These - along with burying the dead - are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person.

The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world.

Are you considering serving the Church as an Ordained Deacon? The Church calls men to be deacons “in-service” to the People of God. If you are a man (married or single), that feels this call and wants to know more, please contact the Office for Diaconate Formation at 414-758-2207 or maldonadom@archmil.org.

Safeguarding our Children
If you are in need of the Safeguarding class, there will be one held at St. Bruno on Tuesday, May 28 at 2pm in the Parish room. This class is limited to 15 people, so sign up on the Archdiocese website as soon as possible. https://www.archmil.org/Offices/Safe-Environment.htm

HELPERS NEEDED...

UPCOMING ST. BRUNO EVENTS

LORD, JESUS CHRIST, ALMIGHTY GOD

In remembrance,
I faithfully pray

For men and women who have been called to serve:
Seeking peace where there is violence,
Protecting lives where there is peril,
Upholding freedom where there is oppression.

On this day, I join in prayer

For all who have lost life or ability or loved ones in war.
May their sacrifices have continued meaning,
Love’s comfort endure beyond the pain, and
Their service be saluted with unforgotten gratitude.

Amen.

HAPPY ARMED FORCES DAY

Thank you to all who have given and served.

As a child growing up in North Korea, Hyeonseo was one of millions trapped by a brutal communist regime. Aged seventeen, she decided to escape North Korea and the repression, poverty, starvation and brainwashing.

St. Vincent De Paul
Fifth Sunday of Easter
In the Gospel today, Jesus says “I give you a new commandment: love one another…. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you show that you have love for one another, especially those suffering and poor, and that indeed you are the disciple of Jesus.

Sharing the Gospel with Kids
Jesus said, “Love each other as I have loved you.” He died on the cross so that your sins and mine might be forgiven. Jesus was human like you and me. He shared his food with friends. He visited and healed the sick. He cried when his friends died. He told stories to help people learn about his Father in heaven. When you show love for others, Jesus smiles because he is very proud of you.

Prayer
Lord, teach me to love and help others.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
How do people know that you are a disciple of Jesus Christ? Some folks prefer to keep their faith a secret and rarely mention their belief in Jesus. Others are more vocal and readily tell people that they are Christian. For Jesus, there is another way to recognize whether one is a disciple. He tells his friends that all will know they are disciples if they have love for one another. The love to which Jesus calls us to is not just an earthly love. It’s not just about doing nice things for people or even keeping positive thoughts about others. Jesus’ love is divine love. Put simply, Jesus became human so that we can become divine. We are called to look at the world, people, and ourselves as God does. This requires unconditional compassion and a whole lot of mercy and forgiveness. We cannot do this alone. That is why the risen Christ remains with us, especially through the Eucharist, to help us become who he is. If done correctly, there will be no question about who has our allegiance.
